Change in the Balkan States Örjan Sjöberg, Michael Louis Wyzan, 1991 Central and Eastern Europe Handbook Patrick Heenan, Monique Lamontagne, 2014-05-12 The Regional Handbooks of Economic Development series provides accessible overviews of countries within their larger domestic and international contexts focusing on the relations among regions as they meet the challenges of the twenty first century The series allows the non specialist student to explore a wide range of complex factors social and political as well as economic that affect the growth of developing regions in Asia Europe and South America Each Handbook provides an overview chapter discussing the region s economic conditions within an historical and political context as well as 20 or more chapter length essays written by recognized experts which analyze the key issues affecting a region s economy its population natural resources foreign trade labor problems and economic inequalities and other vital factors In addition the volumes offer useful support materials including a series of appendices that include a detailed chronology of events in the region a glossary of terms biographical entries on key personalities an annotated bibliography of further reading and a comprehensive analytical index Economic Growth, Prosperity and Sustainability in the Economies of the Balkans and Eastern European Countries Maria Mavri, Patricia Ikouta Mazza, Anastasios Karasavoglou, Persefoni Polychronidou, 2024-08-07 This book features a selection of papers presented at the 15th International Conference Economies of the Balkan and Eastern European Countries EBEEC held at the University of the Aegean in Chios Greece May 12 14 2023 The EBEEC conference serves as an annual meeting of policy makers from Eastern European and Balkan countries as well as scientists More than 300 researchers and students attended the conference and presented their work in parallel sessions This volume deals with various aspects of economic growth prosperity and environmental social and economic sustainability of countries in the region in the context of globalization and digitalization It also examines topics such as consumer behavior towards new products and services human capital teleworking the food market international trade and foreign direct investment In turn the book proposes frameworks and solutions to help countries deal with and manage the complex local and global environment Balkan Economic History, 1550-1950 John R. Lampe, Marvin R. Jackson, 1982-06-22 Western economic historians have traditionally concentrated on the success stories of major developed economies while development economists have given most of their attention to the problems of the Third World The authors of this pioneering work study a part of Europe neglected by both approaches Modernizing patterns in Balkan economic history are traced from the sixteenth century when the territory was shared by Ottoman and Habsburg empires through the nineteenth century when they emerged as independent states to the end of World War II and its aftermath Despite present differences in economic systems Greece s private market economy Yugoslavia s planned market economy and the centrally planned economies of Romania Bulgaria and Albania the authors find that shared origins and common subsequent experiences are ample justifications for treating the area as an economic unit Balkan Economic History 1550 1950 will be a major case study for development economists and will provide historians with the first analytical and statistical study to survey the entire region from the start of the early modern period The Balkans in Transition Charles Jelavich, Barbara Jelavich, University of California. Center for Slavic and East European Studies, Economies in Transition G. Roland, 2011-12-13 The twentieth anniversary of the fall of the Berlin Wall saw many reflect on the political economic and social changes of recent years The legacy of communism and the economic prospects of post communist countries are rigorously analysed in this stimulating study of the long term consequences of transition Entrepreneurship Development in the Balkans Veland Ramadani, Sasho K Josev, Bruno S. Sergi, 2023-09-25 Entrepreneurship Development in the Balkans directly engages questions of innovation and risk management within various types of entrepreneurship including female social migrant and corporate entrepreneurship in the context of the Balkans Balkan Worlds: The First and Last Europe Traian Stoianovich, 2015-05-20 Encompassing the period from the Neolithic era to the troubled present this book studies the peoples societies and cultures of the area situated between the Adriatic Sea in the west and the Black Sea in the east between the Alpine region and Danube basin in the north and the Aegean Sea in the south This is not a conventional history of the Balkans Drawing upon archaeology anthropology economics psychology and linguistics as well as history the author has attempted a total history that integrates as many as possible of the avenues and categories of the Balkan experience The Conversation of Economic Development: Historical Voices, Interpretations and Reality Wilfred L. David, 2019-07-23 This book investigates the belief patterns that underly alternative perspectives of development thought and policy It discusses the differing theories and models of development in a discursive manner to highlight the importance of interaction between academic discourse and everyday life experiences Utilizing insights drawn from the history of ideas economic history philosophy and political economy the author shows how the field of development economics has evolved Explaining Yugoslavia John B. Allcock, 2000 Traversing the politics economics demography and culture of the former Yugoslavia John B Allcock examines and makes sense of the region s troubled past and troubling present Though many think of the Balkans as a uniquely troubled region the author asserts that the continuities in Balkan history constitute the same processes of development that have occurred in other societies and are part of the ongoing process of global modernization Economic Crisis in Europe and the Balkans Anastasios Karasavoglou, Persefoni Polychronidou, 2013-07-22 The economies of the European countries are still in recession the development process is at a standstill companies are facing financial difficulties and the EU s monetary policy is tight and focused on lowering inflation The fiscal problems and high debt levels of the northern European countries are of great importance and they are the consequences of both the European economy s structural characteristics and the EU s policies The economic area of Eastern Europe the Balkans and the Black Sea countries is also vital due to its special economic characteristics The effects of the economic crisis on this particular area are catalytic while the prospects for recovery are doubtful The present book deals with the key aspects of the economic crisis in Europe especially focusing on southeast Europe and the Balkans The consequences of the crisis in these countries are analyzed and suggestions for how to address the crisis are outlined Further Education in the Balkan Countries Volume 1 Ali Murat Sünbül, Özcan Demirel, 2009-01-15 Economic Transformation in Poland and Ukraine Rafał Wiśła, Andrzej Nowosad, 2020-10-07 When Poland and Ukraine introduced their political social and economic system reforms at the beginning of the 1990s both economies were at a similar level of economic development GDP 9 500 per capita However in 2018 Ukrainian GDP per capita had remained at the same levels since 1991 while in Poland it had increased significantly to more than 27 000 per capita This book assesses the reasons for the growing gap between the level of economic development in Ukraine and Poland It examines the course of events and evaluates the effectiveness of the system transformations both in the context of the economy as a whole and in individual regions Polish voivodeships provinces and Ukrainian oblasts It also analyzes the consequences of the 2008 2009 Ukrainian Russian gas conflict and 2013 2014 Euromaidan events for the Ukrainian economy Additionally the authors offer an insight into the migration movements which have recently been observed in Poland and Ukraine This is the first comprehensive comparative analysis concerning the spatial diversification of economic development in these two countries and the authors highlight the ways in which these reforms have proved effective in Poland and hardly effective in Ukraine This analysis helps to identify the basic interrelations between the core macroeconomic variables at the regional level and the impact of political events from both a national and regional perspective The book will appeal to academics researchers and policy makers interested in the economic and political changes in these two countries in a comparative setting and on national and regional levels as well as those working on issues of EU integration Balkan Think Tanks Convention SETA Ankara, 2015-11-28 On 10 12 June 2015 a convention of Balkan think tanks was organized by the SETA Foundation with financial support of the Turkish Prime Ministry Presidency for Turks Abroad and Related Communities YTB During the event researchers from Balkan think tanks discussed various political issues faced by the region and Turkey This report summarizes the remarks made during the workshop sessions

Governing Territorial Development in the Western Balkans Erblin Berisha, Giancarlo Cotella, Alys Solly, 2021-06-19 This book offers a multifaceted overview of the evolution of spatial development governance and planning in the Western Balkans from an institutionalist perspective Written by experts in the field it features various regional and national studies covering topics such as regional and spatial planning territorial development and governance and regional and cross border cooperation in the Western Balkans Offering a wealth of national regional and local insights on territorial cooperation development and planning this book will appeal to scholars in regional and spatial sciences and related fields alike
