Fantastic Metamorphoses Other Worlds:

Fantastic Metamorphoses, Other Worlds Marina Warner, 2002 Marina Warner explores the metaphorical power of metamorphoses in the evocation of human personality Beginning with Ovid's great poem The Metamorphoses as the founding text of the metamorphic tradition she takes us on a journey of exploration into the fantastic art of Hieronymous Bosch the legends of the Taino people the life cycle of the butterfly the myth of Leda and the Swan the genealogy of the Zombie the pantomime of Aladdin the haunting of doppelgangers the coming of photography and the late fiction of Lewis Carroll The publisher Fantastic Metamorphoses, Other Worlds Marina Warner, 2002-10-10 Metamorphosis is a dynamic principle of creation vital to natural processes of generation and evolution growth and decay yet it also threatens personal identity if human beings are subject to a continual process of bodily transformation Shape shifting also belongs in the landscape of magic witchcraft and wonder and enlivens classical mythology early modern fairy tales and uncanny fictions of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries This collection of essays given as the Clarendon Lectures in English 2001 takes four dominant processes of metamorphosis Mutating Hatching Splitting and Doubling and explores their metaphorical power in the evocation of human personality Marina Warner traces this story against a background of historical encounters with different cultures especially with the Caribbean Beginning with Ovid's great poem The Metamorphoses as the founding text of the metamorphic tradition she takes us on a journey of exploration into the fantastic art of Hieronymous Bosch the legends of the Taino people the life cycle of the butterfly the myth of Leda and the Swan the genealogy of the Zombie the pantomime of Aladdin the haunting of doppelgangers the coming of photography and the late fiction of Lewis Carroll Seductions in Narrative Gemma López, 2007 Seductions in Narrative is a highly original academic study which provides a critical discourse in which desire narrative and subjectivity are explored Through the critical reading of two novels by contemporary English authors Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson the book cleverly assesses the ways in which desire allows the subject to imagine an alternative utopian location where a narrative of the self in all its multiplicity and ambiguity can be effected This book is unique as general studies on these issues tend to focus on the literature produced over the nineteenth century but not on contemporary literature The pieces which examine desire and narrative in contemporary novels tend to do so in the work of post colonial authors Specific works on the production of Angela Carter and Jeanette Winterson also tend to focus on a somewhat close reading of their novels but do not make use of their fiction in order to debate specific poststructuralist issues as this book successfully undertakes Metamorphosis Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-06-05 How do we perdure when we and everything around us are caught up in incessant change But the course of this change does not seem to be haphazard and we may seek the modalities of its Logos in the transformations in which it occurs The classic term Metamorphosis focuses upon the proportions between the transformed and the retained the principles of sameness and otherness Applied to life and its becoming metamorphosis pinpoints the proportions between the vital and the aesthetic significance of life Where could this metaphysical in between territory come better to light than in the Fine Arts In this collection are investigated the various proportions between the vital significance of the constructivism of life and a specifically human contribution made by the creative imagination to the transformatory search for beauty and aesthetic values Papers by Lawrence Kimmel Mark L Brack Sheryl Tucker de Vazquez William Roberts Jadwiga Smith Victor Gerald Rivas Max Statkiewicz Matti Itkonen George R Tibbetts Linda Stratford Jorella Andrews Ingeborg M Rocker Stephen J Goldberg Leah Durner Donnalee Dox Catherine Schear Samantha Henriette Krukowski Gary Maciag Kelly Dennis Wanda Strukus Magda Romanska Patricia Trutty Coohill Ellen Burns Tessa Morrison Sabine Coelsch Foisner Gary Backhaus Daniel M Unger Howard Pearce Swimming the Christian Atlantic Jonathan Schorsch,2009 Explores the nexus of politics race and religion among three incompletely Christianized groups in the seventeenth century Judeoconversos Afroiberians and Amerindians The Poetry of Translation Matthew Reynolds,2011-09-29 A very wide ranging book which launches a new theory of poetry translation and pursues it through readings of poem translations from across the history of English literature It engages with the key debates in translation studies and offers new interpretations of major works such as Pope s Iliad Pound s Cathay and Dryden s Aeneis The Form of Becoming Janina Wellmann,2017-04-28 An examination of the constitutive role of rhythm and movement in the visualization of developing life In The Form of Becoming Janina Wellmann offers an innovative understanding of the emergence around 1800 of the science of embryology and a new notion of development one based on the epistemology of rhythm She argues that between 1760 and 1830 the concept of rhythm became crucial to many fields of knowledge including the study of life and living processes She juxtaposes the history of rhythm in music theory literary theory and philosophy with the concurrent turn in biology toward understanding the living world in terms of rhythmic patterns rhythmic movement and rhythmic representations Common to all these fields was their view of rhythm as a means of organizing time and of ordering the development of organisms With The Form of Becoming Wellmann a historian of science has written the first systematic study of visualization in embryology Embryological development circa 1800 was imagined through the pictorial technique of the series still prevalent in the field today Tracing the origins of the developmental series back to seventeenth century instructional graphics for military maneuvers dance and craft work The Form of Becoming reveals the constitutive role of rhythm and movement in the visualization of developing life
