Farmers Face The Crisis Of The 1990s:

Farmers Face the Crisis of the 1990s Doug Jenness, 1992 Examines the deepening economic and social crisis in the capitalist world and explains how farmers and workers can unite internationally against the mounting assaults from the billionaire bankers industrialists and merchants of grain Review of the Food, Agriculture, Conservation, and Trade Act of 1990 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Agriculture. Subcommittee on Wheat, Soybeans, and Feed Grains, 1992 Formulation of the 1990 Farm Bill United States. Congress. House. Committee on Agriculture, 1990

Disembodiment Banu Bargu, 2024-11-20 Disembodiment examines self destruction self injury and radical self endangerment as unconventional performances of resistance and refusal Banu Bargu troubles the dominant approach that treats these acts as individual pathologies cries for help and signs of despair taking the reader on an unsettling journey that passes through the suicides of enslaved Africans the hunger strikes of woman suffragists Gandhian fasting practices Bouazizi s self incineration and the lip sewing practices of migrants and asylum seekers to chart a bleak repertoire of contention performed by the oppressed As a work in global critical theory whose normative compass is the suffering body Disembodiment offers a bold materialist theory of corporeal agency that upholds the fundamental rebelliousness of the body

Undernutrition and Public Policy in India Sonalde Desai, Lawrence Haddad, Deepta Chopra, Amit Thorat, 2015-12-14 Despite substantial economic growth India has one of the highest undernutrition rates in the world it is home to almost 40 per cent of the world s stunted children This volume assesses the status and causes of undernutrition in the country and examines the effectiveness of policies designed to address undernutrition The essays tackle wide ranging themes and challenging issues including nutrition water sanitation and hygiene WASH maternal neonatal and child health Integrated Child Development Services ICDS Public Distribution System PDS crop procurement and National Food Security Act 2013 With contributions from leading academic researchers policymakers as well as civil society representatives this volume will be indispensable to scholars teachers and students of public policy development economics development sociology and Indian economy It will also be useful to government institutions think tanks and NGOs Accelerating Africa's Food Production in Response to Rising Prices: Impacts and Requisite Actions Xinshen Diao, Shenggen Fan, Derek Headey, Michael Johnson, Alejandro Nin Pratt, and Bingxin Yu, Agrarian Distress and Farmer Suicides in North India Lakhwinder Singh, Kesar Singh Bhargoo, Rakesh Sharma, 2019-10-02 This volume provides a comprehensive and detailed socio economic overview of agrarian distress in India which has manifested in the suicides of farmers and agricultural labourers Using empirical research and field data from rural India especially Punjab this book examines the underlying causes of farmer suicide and steps which can mitigate the crisis Covering nearly 1 400 rural households the research in this volume identifies the various dimensions of the deepening crisis in agriculture and farming It categorises the factors of the problem across different regions and estimates its extent and magnitude In this updated edition the authors focus on instances of political mobilization and collective movements by farmers struggling to bring the issue of agrarian distress to attention The book also discusses the implementation of state waived loans and compensations and their effect on the farming community Topical comprehensive and rich in data this book will be valuable to scholars and researchers of political economy agricultural economics South Asian politics political sociology and public policy Reconstructing biotechnologies Guido Ruivenkamp, Shuji Hisano, Joost Jongerden, 2023-08-28 The main subject of this publication is the co creation of society and biotechnology The authors do not treat society and biotechnology as separate domains instead they consider technologies as socially constructed The main focus of this publication is on agro biotechnologies and the contributors present perspectives for reconstruction both from and in the North and the South Reconstructing biotechnologies offers a range of critical social analyses confronting the actuality of biotechnology with the potentialities of its social reconstruction In doing that the book develops and merges literature from four different disciplines namely i critical theory and its analyses of technology and power ii political economy critically assessing the interrelationship between economy politics and technology iii social constructivism which holds that technology is the product of agency and knowledge systems and iv the analysis of rural society and agrarian technologies in rural sociology Reconstructing biotechnologies introduces exciting approaches and examples into the social reshaping of biotechnologies It brings together critical examinations of contemporary biotechnology development and puts forward possible alternatives written by critical scholars The contributions in this publication are for students and scholars in a wide range of disciplines such as social and political sciences science and technology studies and development studies The editors of the book are associated with the Social Sciences Department of Wageningen University in the Netherlands and the Graduate School of Economics of Kyoto University in Japan They have published extensively on social and political theory and biotechnology Preparation for the 1990 Farm Bill: Crop insurance; wheat; deficiency payment problems United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Agriculture, Nutrition, and Forestry, 1991 Farmer Suicides: Issues and Complexities Dnyandeve Talule, 2022-08-03 Although the significant portion of the present book dwells upon the large amount of background secondary data on farmer suicides at the all India state and district level and its analysis from the viewpoint of complexities of the issue of suicide by farmers the central point of entire discussion carried out in the book depends on the victim's household level primary data Thus predominantly the book relies on the victim's household primary data on farmer suicides cases reported from the two most affected districts of Maharashtra These districts belong to the Marathwada Usmanabad and Vidarbha Yavatmal region of the state and have ranked for last three decades as the most affected districts of farmer suicides in the country The census survey based discussion brings out a multi stage ground level complexity faced by the suicide victim farmers Reading of this book will help revealing the socio economic cultural psychological and agrarian policy complexities that have been consistently pushing these farmers towards the suicide trap for more than last three decades The Oxford Handbook of Migration Crises Cecilia Menjívar,Marie Ruiz,Immanuel Ness,2019 The Oxford Handbook of Migration Crises focuses on two interrelated aspects of migration crises the contexts that give rise to such crises and the role of the media and public officials in framing migratory flows as crises It critically examines what crises are where they arise and how this concept is used in scholarship and policy

COVID-19: Food System Frailties and Opportunities Claire Kremen, Elliot Berry, Rachel Bezner Kerr, Patrick Meyfroidt, Ivette Perfecto, Todd Rosenstock, José Antonio Teixeira, Hannah Wittman, 2023-11-21 The global coronavirus pandemic is revealing major weaknesses inequities and system wide risks in global food systems giving renewed urgency to foster pathways to greater food system sustainability and resilience Due to rising unemployment supply chain disruptions and other responses to the pandemic such as disruptions to social assistance programs in some countries predictions suggest a near doubling of food insecurity globally Nutritional changes are also occurring as food availability and access changes leading to substitution of dry canned or processed foods for healthier fresh ingredients for some communities and the reverse for others These food security and nutritional changes are likely to be as impactful on human health as the virus itself As a system wide shock the pandemic reveals weaknesses of global supply chains The media highlighted empty supermarket shelves alongside food dumping in situations where producers locked into disappearing food service outlets were unable to access new markets Farmers with long standing reliance on migrant agricultural labor that can no longer travel across international borders under lockdown struggle to access support for the upcoming harvest season The pandemic highlights well known inequities for marginalized food systems employees as essential workers are exposed to greater risks of contracting the virus in food processing agricultural and grocery store settings but have little choice in accepting these conditions in order to keep these low paying jobs The pandemic reinforces another well known food system inequity marginalized and impoverished minorities often suffer from diet related diseases i e cardiovascular diseases diabetes and or malnutrition that place them at greater risk of morbidity and mortality from the coronavirus Lockdowns and border closures are reducing economic opportunities such as day labor and agricultural markets in some regions such as much of Africa ensuing risks of food and nutrition insecurity for vast segments of the population threaten to set back development increase social conflict and catalyze migration Finally the current pandemic shines a spotlight on the systemic risk of infectious diseases to emerge and become globalized through local bushmeat markets and international wildlife trade and how wildlife hunting and trade is influenced by land use changes including by industrial agriculture At the same time adaptive responses to the coronavirus illustrate how more resilient and sustainable food systems could evolve going forward To avoid supply chain disruptions communities are increasing their reliance on local food systems including an increase in urban gardening and community supported agriculture programs Small scale farmers are innovating to connect with buyers and with each other including through new online marketing initiatives Entrepreneurs are identifying foods that would otherwise be wasted and directing them to food banks Retailers and wholesalers are re configuring their distribution networks to shift food to where it is needed most Food pantries local producers and food businesses are also collaborating with municipal governments to address food security gaps arising from COVID 19 impacts

Transforming India into a digital state has been an objective of successive governments in India However the digital by its very nature is a capricious multi dimensional entity Its operationalization across multiple sectors in India has highlighted the fact that the digital compact with publics in India is a two edged sword On the one hand devices such as mobile phones have enabled access and efficiencies and on the other they have increased the scope for surveillance capitalism and the expansion of governmentality The digital is at the same time a resource commodity and process that is absolutely fundamental to most if not all productive forces across multiple sectors As a part of the Media Dynamics in South Asia series this volume explores the making of digital India and specifically deals with the contradictions of an imperfect democracy internal compulsions and external pressures that continue to play crucial roles in the shaping of the same Mindful of the key roles played by political economy and context and based on conversations with theory and practice it makes a case for critical understanding of the digital embrace in India
