Fashion Theory Volume 12 Issue 2 Alistair O'Neill, 2008-06-15 Special Issue Fashion Curation Exhibitions of fashion textiles and dress in museums and galleries have grown inordinately over the last fifteen to twenty years This special issue extends from the previous issue Exhibitionism Vol 12 Issue 1 to examine the considerations raised by teaching fashion curation as a discipline concerned with the cultural worth of dress on display MA Fashion Curation at London College of Fashion University of Arts London was established in 2004 and this issue reflects the discourse generated from its programme and documents some of its initial projects The special issue balances the practical and theoretical concerns of contemporary fashion curation and explores emerging cultural and commercial contexts for a practice informed by both academia and the museums and galleries sector Indexed by the IBSS International Bibliography of Social Sciences the DAAI Design and Applied Arts Index ARTbibliographies Modern Abstracts in Anthropology the Anthropological Index Online AIO of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland Sociological abstracts ISI Web of Science Arts K G Saur Verlag s IBR International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature and Social Sciences and K G Verlag s IBZ International Bibliography of Periodical Literature on Humanities and Social Sciences African Fashion, Global Style Victoria L. Rovine, 2015-01-12 African Fashion Global Style provides a lively look at fashion international networks of style material culture and the world of African aesthetic expression Victoria L Rovine introduces fashion designers whose work reflects African histories and cultures both conceptually and stylistically and demonstrates that dress styles associated with indigenous cultures may have all the hallmarks of high fashion Taking readers into the complexities of influence and inspiration manifested through fashion this book highlights the visually appealing widely accessible and highly adaptable styles of African dress that flourish on the global fashion market The Cambridge Global History of Fashion: Volume 2 Christopher Breward, Beverly Lemire, Giorgio Riello, 2023-08-17 Examines the challenges of fashion from the nineteenth century to the present day from decolonisation to sustainability Fashion Theory, 1997 Staging Fashion Tiziana Ferrero-Regis, Marissa Lindquist, 2020-12-10 The fashion show and its spaces are sites of otherness representing everything from rebellion and excess through to political and social activism This conceptual and stylistic variety is reflected in the spaces they occupy whether they are staged in an industrial warehouse on a city street or out in the open landscape Staging Fashion is the first collection of essays about the presentation and staging of fashion in runway shows in the period from the 1960s to the 2010s It offers a fresh perspective on the many collaborations between artists architects and interior designers to reinforce their interdisciplinary links Fashion architecture and interiors share many elements including design history material culture aesthetics and trends The research and ideas underpinning Staging Fashion address how fashion and the spatial fields have collaborated in the creation of the space of the fashion show The 15 essays are written by fashion interior architecture and design scholars focusing on the presentation of fashion within the runway space from avant garde practices and collaboration with artists to the most spectacular and commercial shows of recent years from Prada to Chanel

Schroeder, 1981 Although libraries and museums for many centuries have taken the lead under one rational or another in recovering storing and displaying various kinds of culture of their periods lately as the gap between elite and popular culture has apparently widened these repositories of artifacts of the present for the future have tended to drift more and more to what many people call the aesthetically pleasing elements of our culture The degree to which our libraries and museums have ignored our culture is terrifying when one scans the documents and artifacts of our time which if history in any wise repeats itself will in the immediate and distant future become valuable indices of our present culture to future generations As Professor Schroeder dramatically states it No doubt about it it is the contemporary popular culture that is the endangered species The essays in this book investigate the reasons for present day neglect of popular culture materials and chart the various routes by which conscientious and insightful librarians and museum directors can correct this disastrous oversight
