Far Horizons, the Travel Diary of an Engineer Joseph Henry Ehlers, 1990* Far Horizons - Joseph H. Ehlers, 1966 Far Horizons - Joseph H. Ehlers, 1966 Exporting American Architecture 1870-2000 Jeffrey W. Cody, 2005-06-27 The export of American architecture began in the nineteenth century as a disjointed set of personal adventures and commercial initiatives It continues today alongside the transfer of other aspects of American life and culture to most regions of the world Jeffrey Cody explains how why and where American architects planners building contractors and other actors have marketed American architecture overseas In so doing he provides a historical perspective on the diffusion of American building technologies architectural standards construction methods and planning paradigms Using previously undocumented examples and illustrations he shows how steel frame manufacturers shipped their products abroad enabling the erection of American style skyscrapers worldwide by 1900 and how this phase was followed by similar initiatives by companies Engineering Trouble: US-Chinese Experiences of Professional Discontent, manufacturing concrete components 1905-1945 Thorben Pelzer, 2023-07-31 In the early twentieth century the first large batch of Chinese civil engineers had graduated from the USA and together with their American senior colleagues returned to China They were enthusiastic about reconstructing the young republic by building new railways highways and canals but what the engineers experienced in China including mismanaged railways useless highways and silted canals did not always meet their expectations and ideals In this book Thorben Pelzer makes the stories of these Chinese and American engineers come to life through exploring previously unpublished letters rare images maps and a rich biographical dataset He argues that the experiences of these engineers include a myriad of contradictions disillusionment and discontent keeping the engineering profession in a constant flux of searching for its meaning and its place in Republican China FAR Horizons Foreign Area Research Coordination Group, 1968 FAR Horizons ,1968 FAR Horizons United States.
