Far North:

Far North Marcel Theroux, 2025-06-25 Far North is a 2009 National Book Award Finalist for Fiction. My father had an expression for a thing that turned out bad. He'd say it had gone west. But going west always sounded pretty good to me. After all, westwards is the path of the sun. And through as much history as I know of, people have moved west to settle and find freedom. But our world had gone north, truly gone north, and just how far north I was beginning to learn. Out on the frontier of a failed state, Makepeace, sheriff and perhaps last citizen, patrols a city's ruins, salvaging books but keeping the guns in good repair. Into this cold land comes shocking evidence that life might be flourishing elsewhere; a refugee emerges from the vast emptiness of forest whose existence inspires Makepeace to reconnect with human society and take to the road, armed with rough humor and an unlikely ration of optimism. What Makepeace finds is a world unraveling: stockaded villages enforcing an uncertain justice and hidden work camps laboring to harness the little understood technologies of a vanished civilization. But Makepeace's journey, rife with danger, also leads to an unexpected redemption. Far North takes the reader on a quest through an unforgettable arctic landscape from humanity's origins to its possible end. Haunting, spare yet stubbornly hopeful, the novel is suffused with an ecstatic awareness of the world's fragility and beauty and its ability to recover from our worst trespasses.

The Far North Elisha Kent Kane, 2016-09-25 In May 1845 Sir John Franklin sailed from England with the ships Erebus and Terror on an expedition to attempt the discovery of a North West Passage or water communication between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans to the North of the American Continent. No intelligence was received from him after the year following. Numerous expeditions were fitted out and despatched in search of Franklin and his brave crew both from this country and from America. In 1854 Dr Rae returned with information that the Esquimaux had reported having seen the bodies of forty white men near Great Fish River in the spring of 1850. This intelligence was not considered trustworthy and Lady Franklin fitted out a private expedition under the command of Captain M. Clintock who sailed from Aberdeen in the steam yacht Fox. July 1857 He returned in 1859 with indisputable proofs of the death of Franklin and the fate of the expedition under his command, full details of which he afterwards published. The present volume is an epitome of Arctic Explorations, an official account of the Second Grinnell Expedition in search of Sir John Franklin, the First Grinnell Expedition having been dispatched in 1850 under Lieutenant De Haven with Dr Kane as surgeon. These expeditions were fitted out at New York at the expense of a wealthy and generous merchant of that city named Grinnell, and Mr Peabody, the eminent American resident in London, whose munificence and liberality are now so well known in this country. In the Second Expedition the brig Advance was placed under the command of Dr Elisha Kent Kane, assistant surgeon. U.S.N. a gentleman well qualified from previous experience to undertake such an important duty. Dr Kane was born at Philadelphia in 1822 and was educated at the Medical College of Pennsylvania. In 1843 he accompanied the embassy to China and for some time travelled in the interior of India.
