Boyd,Denis Linehan,2016-12-05 Ordnance War Architecture Space investigates how strategies of warfare occupy and alter built and other landscapes Ranging across the modern period from the eighteenth century to the present day the book presents a series of case studies which operate in and between a number of settings and scales from the infrastructures of the battlefield to the logistics of the domestic realm The book explores the patterns forms and systems that articulate militarised spaces excavates how these become re circulated and reconfigured within other domains and discusses the often ephemeral legacies and residues of these architectures The complexities of unpicking the spaces of the fog of war are addressed by an inter disciplinary approach which deploys graphic and textual analyses and techniques to provide new and unique perspectives on a hitherto underexplored aspect of architectural and spatial discourse the tactics and programmes through which the built environment has historically been made to respond to the imperatives and threats of conflict and in the context of the war on terror continues to be so in ever more pervasive ways Making War, Making Women Melissa A. McEuen,2011-02-15 Drawing on war propaganda popular advertising voluminous government records and hundreds of letters and other accounts written by women in the 1940s Melissa A McEuen examines how extensively women s bodies and minds became battlegrounds in the U S fight for victory in World War II Women were led to believe that the nation s success depended on their efforts not just on factory floors but at their dressing tables bathroom sinks and laundry rooms They were to fill their arsenals with lipstick nail polish creams and cleansers in their battles to meet the standards of ideal womanhood touted in magazines newspapers billboards posters pamphlets and in the rapidly expanding pinup genre Scrutinized and sexualized in new ways women understood that their faces clothes and comportment would indicate how seriously they took their responsibilities as citizens McEuen also shows that the wartime rhetoric of freedom democracy and postwar opportunity coexisted uneasily with the realities of a racially stratified society The context of war created and reinforced whiteness and McEuen explores how African Americans grappled with whiteness as representing the true American identity Using perspectives of cultural studies and feminist theory Making War Making Women offers a broad look at how women on the American home front grappled with a political culture that used their bodies in service of the war effort Raised on Old-Time Country Cooking Bettye B.
