

EUROPE IN THE 19TH & 20TH CENTURIES

1789-1939

THIS is perhaps the most complete and at the same time the most brilliant of histories of contemporary Europe.

Its value may well be emphasised by the recent additions to Part 5, which now comprises a study of the war, 1914-1918, of the peace negotiations and the Treaty of Versailles, of the rising of new nationalities and the new international standpoint of the last few years. Then there is a chapter on the Munich crisis and its results, and yet another on the events from Munich to the outbreak of war in 1939.
