about football in the north east THE FAR CORNER Harry Pearson vowed that his next project would not involve hanging around outdoors on days so cold that itinerant dogs had to be detached from lamp posts by firemen It would be about the summer specifically about a summer of shows and fairs in the north of England Encompassing such diverse talents as fell running tupperware boxing and rabbit fancying literally and containing many more jokes about goats than is legal in the Isle of Man Racing Pigs and Giant Marrows is without doubt the only book in existence to explain the design faults of earwigs and expose English farmers' fondness for transvestism Warm wise and very funny it confirms increasing suspicions that Harry

Pearson is really quite good Home at Grasmere Dorothy Wordsworth, William Wordsworth, 2007-04-26 A continuous text made up of extracts from Dorothy Wordsworth's Journal and a selection of her brother's poems Dorothy Wordsworth kept her Journal because I shall give William pleasure by it In doing so she never dreamt that she was giving future readers not only the chance to enjoy her fresh and sensitive delight in the beauties that surrounded her at Grasmere but also a rare opportunity to observe the progress of a poet's mind Colette Clark's skilful and perceptive arrangement of Dorothy's entries alongside William's poems throws a unique light on his creative process and shows how the interdependence of brother and sister was a vital part in the writing of many of his great poems By reading these poems in relation to the Journal it is possible to trace the processes by which they were committed to paper and so achieve a fuller understanding of them A writer in her own right Dorothy kept her Journal sparse in personal and emotional detail Yet there is nevertheless a deep emotional undercurrent running beneath the surface which only falters when William marries Mary Hutchinson Never again was Dorothy to achieve the freedom spontaneity and the limpidly beautiful prose with which she infused and irradiated the Grasmere Journals The Grasmere and Alfoxden Journals Dorothy Wordsworth, 2008-07-10 These two journals provide a unique picture of daily life with Wordsworth his friendship with Coleridge and the composition of his poems They also offer wonderfully vivid descriptions of the landscape and people of Grasmere and Alfoxden in Somerset which inspired Wordsworth and have enchanted generations of readers This edition includes full explanatory notes on the people and places Dorothy writes about The Countryman John William Robertson Scott, 1977 Some Records of the Annual Grasmere Sports Hugh W.
