Civilising Grass Jonathan Cane, 2019-07-01 Civilising Grass is a socio cultural analysis of the lawn on the South African highveld exploring the complex relationship between landscape and power in the country's colonial modernist and post apartheid eras Drawing from eco criticism queer theory art history and postcolonial studies this book offers a lively and provocative reading of texts and illustrations to reveal the racial and gendered aspects of natural environments It argues that the lawn an ordinary and often overlooked feature of South African everyday life is neither natural nor innocent Rather like other colonial landscapes the lawn functions as a site of commonplace violence of oppression dispossession and segregation This book explores an eclectic archive of artistic literary and architectural lawns between 1886 and 2017 analysing poems maps gardening blogs adverts ethnographies and ephemera as well as literature by Koos Prinsloo Marlene van Niekerk and Ivan Vladislavic In addition Civilising Grass includes colour reproductions of lawn artworks by David Goldblatt Lungiswa Gqunta Pieter Hugo Anton Kannemeyer Sabelo Mlangeni Moses Tladi and Kemang Wa Lehulere Examination of these and other works reveals the organic relationship between lawn and wildness and between lawn and human non human actors thereby providing rich and unexpected insights into South African society past and present

Forecasting Trafficability of Soils C. A. Carlson, A. A. McDaniel, 1967 Three Men in a Boat (illustrated) + Three Men on the Bummel + Idle Thoughts of an Idle Fellow: The best of Jerome K. Jerome Jerome K. Jerome, 2013-11-10 This carefully crafted ebook Three Men in a Boat illustrated Three Men on the Bummel Idle Thoughts of an Idle Fellow The best of Jerome K Jerome contains 3 books in one volume and is formatted for your eReader with a functional and detailed table of contents Three Men in a Boat published in 1889 is a humorous account by Jerome K Jerome It is a story of three men accompanied by a dog as they travel in a boat up the River Thames The book was initially intended to be a serious travel guide with accounts of local history along the route but the humorous elements took over to the point where the serious and somewhat sentimental passages seem a distraction The three men are based on Jerome himself the narrator J and two real life friends George and Carl with whom he often took boating trips The dog Montmorency is entirely fictional Because of the overwhelming success of Three Men in a Boat Jerome later published a sequel about a cycling tour in Germany titled Three Men on the Bummel Three Men on the Bummel also known as Three Men on Wheels was published in 1900 eleven years after his most famous work Three Men in a Boat To Say Nothing of the Dog The sequel brings back the three companions who figured in Three Men in a Boat this time on a bicycle tour through the German Black Forest Idle Thoughts of an Idle Fellow published in 1886 is a collection of humorous essays by Jerome K Jerome It was the author s second published book and it helped establish him as a leading English humorist While widely considered one of Jerome s better works and in spite of using the same style as Three Men in a Boat it was never as popular as the latter Jerome Klapka Jerome 1859 1927 was an English writer and humorist best known for the comic travelogue Three Men in a Boat Other works include the essay collections Idle Thoughts of an Idle Fellow 1886 and Second Thoughts of an Idle Fellow Three Men on the Bummel a sequel to Three Men in a Boat and several other novels Vita Contemplativa Byung-Chul Han,2023-10-23 In our busy and hurried lives we are losing the ability to be inactive Human existence becomes fully absorbed by activity even leisure treated as a respite from work becomes part of the same logic Intense life today means first of all more performance or more consumption We have forgotten that it is precisely inactivity which does not produce anything that represents an intense and radiant form of life For Byung Chul Han inactivity constitutes the human Without moments of pause or hesitation acting deteriorates into blind action and reaction When life follows the rule of stimulus response and need satisfaction it atrophies into pure survival naked biological life If we lose the ability to be inactive we begin to resemble machines that simply function True life begins when concern for survival for the exigencies of mere life ends The ultimate purpose of all human endeavour is inactivity In a beautifully crafted ode to the art of being still Han shows that the current crisis in our society calls for a very different way of life one based on the vita contemplativa He pleads for bringing our ceaseless activities to a stop and making room for the magic that happens in between Life receives its radiance only from inactivity boring Is it therapeutic Should we linger more Less What happens when we linger Harold Schweizer here examines an experience of time that though common usually passes unnoticed Drawing on a wide range of philosophic and literary texts and examples On Linger and Literature exemplifies in its style and accessible argumentation the new genre of post criticism and aims to reward anyone interested in slow reading daydreaming or resisting our culture of speed and consumption

Idle Hands Timothy Shay Arthur,1871      The Complete English Poems George Herbert,2004-10-07

George Herbert combined the intellectual and the spiritual the humble and the divine to create some of the most moving devotional poetry in the English language His deceptively simple verse uses the ingenious arguments typical of seventeenth century metaphysical poets and unusual imagery drawn from musical structures the natural world and domestic activity to explore a mosaic of Biblical themes From the wit and wordplay of The Pulley and the formal experimentation of Easter Wings and Paradise to the intense highly personal relationship between man and God portrayed in The Collar and Redemption the works collected here show the transcendental power of divine love
