Grass War:

Grass Varieties in the United States Angus Alexander Hanson, 1959 Childhood Chris Jenks, 2004-11 Childhood is an extremely complex and highly contested concept It refers to a life phase as well as to the age group defined as children but is also a cultural construction part of the social and economic structure of communities The key scholarship collected introduced and reprinted in these volumes reflects this complexity and introduces the reader to the wide variety of interpretations that have been and continue to be placed on it It might be suggested that the push or initiative in theorizing childhood has derived from advances within sociology and anthropology However the future provides potential for interdisciplinary study which this collection also reflects The contemporary study of childhood must comprise a conjoining of disciplines sociology anthropology psychology social geography history philosophy and socio legal theory all have something to add to the field and are represented within the collection Singing with the Dogon Prophet Walter E.A. van Beek, Oumarou S. Ongoiba, Atimè D. Saye, 2022-04-25 In the Dogon funeral proceedings a major song cycle called baja ni is performed in a session of at least seven hours The texts of the chants are attributed to a legendary figure called Abir who as a blind singer in the nineteenth century roamed the heartland of the Dogon The baja ni songs have escaped scholarly attention thus far Singing with the Dogon Prophet by Walter E A van Beek Oumarou S Ongoiba and Atim D Saye provides their first publication in English as well as an analysis of these songs These texts deal with the relations between man and woman man's ambivalent dependency on the otherworld and with life and death the whole night performance is one of the high points of the funeral Additionally Abir is a prophet and during his life has uttered a great number of prophecies on a wide range of topics from local issues to the relation of the Dogon with the Fulbe herdsmen and from the arrival of the colonials to ecological transformation This book examines how these prophecies with these songs offer an inside view of the way the Dogon construct the present in a continuous dialogue with their past and their projected future Custer on Canvas Norman K Denzin, 2016-06-03 Norman Denzin shows how artistic representations of Little Big Horn demonstrate the changing perceptions often racist of Native America by the majority culture in this multilayered performance ethnography Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons, 1929 The Agricultural Output of Scotland, 1925 Scotland. Board of Agriculture, 1928 Grass Varieties in the United States A. A. Hanson, 1959 Günter Grass's "Danzig-Quintet" Katharina Hall, 2007 This study extends the long established notion of Grass's Danzig Trilogy to that of the Danzig Quintet a literary project of epic proportions which explores the evolution of Germany's relationship to its Nazi past over a period of forty years The interlocking stories of Die Blechtrommel 1959 Katz und Maus 1961 Hundejahre 1963 rtlich bet ubt 1969 and Im Krebsgang 2002 are mediated by the memory and language of seven first person narrators Using the dual conceptualisation of memory developed by Freud and Lacan reliving versus recollecting the past the author shows how these narrators accounts assert the reality of the Holocaust as well as German wartime suffering while highlighting the reluctance of ordinary Germans to admit their involvement in the Nazi regime This delineation of the complex relationship of three generations to their history is deepened by the intertextual nature of the quintet Using the theory of Peter Brooks Umberto Eco Shoshana Felman and Hayden White the study explores how Grass's textual strategies encourage the reader to view all five works as one overarching narrative while simultaneously avoiding any literary or historical closure In the process the study places each book in the context of its moment of production and also considers the implications of Grass's belated admission in August 2006 that he served with the Waffen SS during the final months of World War Two Günter

Grass's Use of Baroque Literature Alexander Weber, 1995 This is the first study to discuss the affinity between Grass's complete works and baroque literature Grass's employment of baroque literature is of particular interest because it takes up a tradition from which German literature has long broken away Alexander Weber's argument moves from an outline of general thematic parallels in the early works to an analysis of the conscious use of baroque literature in Der Butt and Das Treffen in Telgte He offers both a close reading of Grass and general reflections on how a past literary tradition can be adopted by a modern writer The study focuses on the themes of vanity carpe diem and Senecan Stoicism in the early works it discusses parallels between the rhetorical structure of the courtly historical novel and Der Butt and traces the artist's melancholy and baroque allegories in Der Butt and Das Treffen in Telgte Kiowa, Apache, & Comanche Military Societies

William C. Meadows, 2009-03-06 For many Plains Indians being a warrior and veteran has long been the traditional pathway to male honor and status Men and boys formed military societies to celebrate victories in war to perform community service and to prepare young men for their role as warriors and hunters By preserving cultural forms contained in song dance ritual language kinship economics naming and other semireligious ceremonies these societies have played an important role in maintaining Plains Indian culture from the pre reservation era until today In this book Williams C Meadows presents an in depth ethnohistorical survey of Kiowa Apache and Comanche military societies drawn from extensive interviews with tribal elders and military society members unpublished archival sources and linguistic data He examines their structure functions rituals and martial symbols showing how they fit within larger tribal organizations And he explores how military societies like powwows have become a distinct public format for cultural and ethnic continuity Research with Children Pia

Germans as Victims in the Literary Fiction of the Berlin Republic Stuart Taberner, Karina Berger, 2009 An opening section on the 1950s a decade of intense literary engagement with German victimhood before the focus shifted to German perpetration provides context drawing parallels but also noting differences between the immediate postwar period and today The second section focuses on key texts written since the mid 1990s and examines shifts in perspectives on the Nazi past on perpetration and victimhood on ordinary Germans and on the balance between historical empathy and condemnation BOOK JACKET AF Press Clips, 1967-07 Representation, Subversion, and Eugenics in Günter Grass's *The Tin Drum

Peter O. Arnds, 2004 In structure and content Grass's novel connects the persecution of degenerate art to the persecution and extermination of these asocials for whom the persecuted dwarf protagonist Oskar Matzerath becomes a central metaphor and voice This comparative study reveals that through intertextuality with the European fairy tale tradition the picaresque novels of Rabelais and Grimmelshausen and through an array of carnivalesque figures Grass creates an irrational counterculture opposed to the rationalism of Nazi science and its obsession with racial hygiene while simultaneously exposing the continuity of this destructive rationalism in postwar Germany and the absurdity of a Stunde Null that putative tabula rasa of 1945 BOOK JACKET Final Report Great Britain.
