death in New York Gas Logic ,1908 Tombstones I Have Known Lamar Weaver,Charaman M. Campbell,2001-12
Uncle Tom Allen once told me that every time you speak a name of someone deceased somewhere somehow they feel it and it makes them feel good My mother had a hobby of clipping obituaries out of newspapers which she started before I was ever born She said that they made her laugh and they made her cry They gave her strength during trying times After I was born I too took up the hobby and later in life began to share some of the old epitaphs with friends This book is a collection of those obituaries witty epitaphs and a list of where famous people are buried Later I wrote newspaper articles and shared with my readers some of these old epitaphs They wrote me letters telling me how they enjoyed them Later I sent copies to friends in the hospital and nursing homes They told me it cheered them up So I decided to write this book to prove that there is some wit in death It will make you laugh cry and feel good New York, the Metropolis of the Western World ,1901
