Great American Mysteries:

The Great American Curse Mickey D Glover, 2013-12-07 The book of Revelation clearly tells us that someday there would be an end to this world many have tried to determine this mystery date in our future to no avail But the mystery that the date seekers and many others failed to notice is this WHY Why is so much more important than when There is no question about it this world will definitely come to an end But why is it going to end In an ancient generation of mankind God gave man his law It is called the TEN COMMANDMENTS In today's society these laws are broken every day without much notice To our own ignorance there is always a price to pay when we disobey But life goes on These laws were put into place to protect us from ourselves But there is one sin that brought our world to an end that fell through the cracks virtually unnoticed This great sin has now spread throughout the entire earth Christians and unbelievers are all involved in this sin that has now grown so large that it is actually bringing in the curse of God for the judgment of this sin that will ultimately end our world as we know it Fulfilling the prophecies of the book of Revelation In this day and time knowledge has been much increased So the sin that caused our world to end would have to be put in place in such a way as to be greatly unnoticed Such as an illusionist or magician In this book that you are about to read you will learn the greatest deception ever pulled off in the world's history and at a cost so great that it will cause the end of our world as we know it The time for this judgment has already begun as early as 2007 the count down clock for the end of the world events began to tick off The Holy bible was given to mankind directly from God to tell us how life began and why our world ended 100 of the World's Greatest Mysteries E. Women of Mystery Martha Hailey DuBose, 2000-12-11 In this remarkable book, Martha Hailey DuBose has given those multitudes of readers who love the mystery novel an indispensable addition to their libraries. Unlike other works on the subject, Women of Mystery is not merely a directory of the novelists and their publications with a few biographical details. DuBose combines extensive research into the lives of significant women mystery writers from Anna Katherine Green and Mary Roberts Rinehart with critical essays on their work, anecdotes, contemporary reviews, and opinions, and some of the women's own comments. She takes us through the Golden Age of the British women mystery writers: Christie, Sayers, Marsh, Allingham, and Tey to the leading crime novelists of today, focused on the women who have become legends of the genre. And though she laments so many mysteries go little time, she makes a good effort at mentioning some of the best of the rest. When DuBose writes of the lives of her principal players, she relates them to their times, their families, their personal situations, and above all to their books. She subtly points out that Sayers, whose experience with the men in her life was inevitably disastrous, created in Lord Peter the ideal lover, one who is all that a woman desires and needs. DuBose gives us the curriculum vitae that Dorothy Sayers created to help her bring Peter Wimsey to a virtual actuality. Ngaio Marsh would give up an active presence in the theatrical world she loved but she recreated it for herself as well as her readers in many of her novels. The biographies of these women are as engrossing as the stories they wrote, and Martha DuBose has shined a different, intimate and intriguing light on them, their works, and the lives that informed those works. This book is so full of treasure it's hard to see how any mystery enthusiast will be able to do without it. And what a gift it would make for anyone on your list who has been heard to announce, "I love a mystery." Some of the treats inside:

In the Beginning: The Mothers of Detection: Anna Katherine Green, Mary Roberts Rinehart, A Golden Era: The Genteel Puzzlers: Agatha Christie, Dorothy L. Sayers, Ngaio Marsh, Margery Allingham, Josephine Tey, Modern Motives: Mysteries of the Murderous Mind: Patricia Highsmith, P. D. James, Ruth Rendell, Mary Higgins Clark, Sue Grafton, and more.
