Great American Stories With Connections:

American Stories Helene Barbara Weinberg, Carrie Rebora Barratt, 2009 They also consider the artists responses to foreign prototypes travel and training changing exhibition venues and audience expectations The persistence of certain themes childhood marriage the family and the community the attainment and reinforcement of citizenship attitudes toward race the frontier as reality and myth and the process and meaning of making art underscores evolving styles and standards of storytelling Divided into four chronological sections the book begins with the years surrounding the American Revolution and the birth of the new republic when painters such as Copley Peale and Samuel F B Morse incorporated stories within the expressive bounds of portraiture During the Jacksonian and pre Civil War decades from about 1830 to 1860 Mount Bingham Lilly Martin Spencer and others painted genre scenes featuring lighthearted narratives that growing audiences for art could easily read and understand

Our American Story Joshua A. Claybourn, 2019-06 Over the past few decades the complicated divides of geography class religion and race created deep fractures in the United States each side fighting to advance its own mythology and political interests We lack a central story a common ground we can celebrate and enrich with deeper meaning Unable to agree on first principles we cannot agree on what it means to be American As we dismantle or disregard symbols and themes that previously united us can we replace them with stories and rites that unite our tribes and maintain meaning in our American identity Against this backdrop Our American Story features leading thinkers from across the political spectrum Jim Banks Pulitzer Prize winner David W Blight Spencer P Boyer Eleanor Clift John C Danforth Cody Delistraty Richard A Epstein Nikolas Gvosdev Cherie Harder Jason Kuznicki Gerard N Magliocca Markos Moulitsas Ilya Somin Cass R Sunstein Alan Taylor James V Wertsch Gordon S Wood and Ali Wyne Each draws on expertise within their respective fields of history law politics and public policy to contribute a unique perspective about the American story This collection explores whether a unifying story can be achieved and if so what that story could be

Chuck Hagel Charlyne Berens,2020-02-17 In late August 2004 the Republicans were celebrating the nomination of incumbent George W Bush for another term as president of the United States In the midst of the festivities Chuck Hagel a senator from Nebraska was telling reporters that the Republican Party had come loose of its moorings This was a bold position for someone identified by the New York Times Los Angeles Times and Boston Globe as a prospective 2008 presidential candidate but it was not surprising coming from a Republican senator who had also recently remarked that the occupation of Iraq was poorly planned and that it had encouraged the spread of terror cells throughout the world Who is Chuck Hagel what is his story and is he a genuine player on the national political stage Charlyne Berens sets out to answer these questions in her close and careful look at one of the most interesting and independent figures on the current American political scene Having survived a tour of duty in Vietnam and having made a fortune as a pioneer in the cellular phone industry Chuck Hagel seemingly came out of nowhere to beat a popular sitting governor in a race for the U S Senate in 1996 Berens charts Hagel s quick rise to national recognition and influence and examines the background that has led Hagel to an outspoken internationalism that often puts him at odds with his own party and president This complex plain spoken Nebraskan may be on his way to the White House Charlyne Berens explains why and how

Annual Report Aurora (Ill.). Board of Education,1897 The Dunes Hotel and Casino: The Mob, the connections, the stories Geno Munari,2022-04-07 The intent behind this book is to record classic Las Vegas history that would be lost forever if not memorialized The Dunes operation was a spectrum of information that is intricate and mysterious at times protected by a shroud of secrecy and intrigue that is virtually impossible to decipher It featured different operators and Mob characters who at various times in the history of the hotel were involved in various ventures including gambling bookmaking real estate investment and many other business arrangements There are more than 390 footnotes and an index I have been working on this book for almost four years which included many hours of research and the development of a timeline My research helped bring forth answers to questions regarding notable gambling operators Mafia chiefs U S

Senators Governors and memorable events One such event solves a mystery of a bomb assassination plot and a shooting politicians were compromised Hoffa pulled strings and there are heretofore undisclosed facts that involve President Kennedy's assassination I never dreamed these details would ever be uncovered Great American History Games Lorraine Hopping Egan, Louise Spigarelli, 2000 More than 20 games puzzles and learning activities for American history Story-Based Selling Jeff Bloomfield, 2014-06 As a founder of a successful organization that trains and develops sales professionals Jeff Bloomfield has given a lot of thought to why customers say yes In Story Based Selling Create Connect and Close Mr Bloomfield says it's really no mystery People buy from people they trust They trust people they like and they like people they connect to And he believes that storytelling is the best way for salespeople and all of us to immediately connect to a customer's feelings of trust and liking He thinks teaching sales professionals to close a deal by presenting their product probing its mutual benefits and overcoming the customer's objections and skepticism is a waste of time Instead he urges them to tell a great story Mr Bloomfield calls upon the latest research in neuroscience to explain the process of communication The truth is that during the salesperson's engagement with clients people quickly base their decisions on how they feel not the way they think so trying to persuade someone by first imparting lifeless facts and figures is self-defeating In fact this information goes right to an area of the listener's brain the left brain that drives doubt and skepticism To make a deal we need to connect with the parts of the customer's brain that inspire emotions of trust and empathy By telling a story we can immediately connect to these good gut feelings and drive away the client's fear of being sold Mr Bloomfield tells his own engaging stories while teaching step by step techniques of intentional storytelling to create a fast connection with the listener no matter who is buying or what a person wants to sell Home and Beyond Morris Allen Grubbs, 2002-12-01 Winner of the 2001 Ray and Pat Browne National Book Award for Outstanding Textbook given by the Popular Culture Association From Ken Burns's documentaries to historical dramas such as Roots from A E's Biography series to CNN television has become the primary source for historical information for tens of millions of Americans today Why has television become such a respected authority What falsehoods enter our collective memory as truths How is one to know what is real and what is imagined or ignored by producers directors or writers Gary Edgerton and Peter Rollins have collected a group of essays that answer these and many other questions The contributors examine the full spectrum of historical genres but also institutions such as the History Channel and production histories of such series as The Jack Benny Show which ran for fifteen years The authors explore the tensions between popular history and professional history and the tendency of some academics to declare the past off limits to nonscholars Several of them point to the tendency for television histories to embed current concerns and priorities within the past as in such popular shows as Quantum Leap and Dr Quinn Medicine Woman The result is an insightful portrayal of the power television possesses to influence our culture Connecting Cultures Rebecca L. Thomas, 1996-01-30 A comprehensive guide to multicultural literature for children this valuable resource features more than

The Crisis of Connection Niobe Way, Alisha Ali, Carol Gilligan, Pedro Noguera, 2020-01-07 A collection of essays that examine the causes of and provide solutions to the widespread alienation and disconnection that beset modern society Since the beginning of the 21st century people have become increasingly disconnected from themselves each other and the world around them A crisis of connection stemming from growing alienation social isolation and fragmentation characterizes modern society The signs of this crisis of connection are everywhere from decreasing levels of empathy and trust to burgeoning cases of suicide depression and loneliness The astronomical rise in inequality around the world has contributed to the critical nature of this moment To delve into the heart of the crisis leading researchers and practitioners draw from the science of human connection to tell a five part story about its roots consequences and solutions In doing so they reveal how we in modern society have been captive to a false narrative that takes individualism as a universal truth The new story now emerging from across the human sciences underscores our social and emotional capacities and needs The science also reveals the ways in which the privileging of the self over relationships and of individual success over the common good as well as the perpetuation of dehumanizing stereotypes have led to a crisis of connection that is now widespread Finally the practitioners in the volume present concrete solutions that show ways we can create a more just and humane world This profoundly important book suggests that our innate human determination to bridge differences and live in vulnerable loving relationships is the antidote to rising fear and anxiety Lyn Mikel Brown author of Powered by Girl
