The Postcard Laura V. Hilton, 2015-03-10 Rachel Miller dreams of traveling beyond her mundane existence in Jamesport Missouri To satisfy her wanderlust she sends letters to people she reads about in the Budget the Amish newspaper and asks that they consider mailing her a simple postcard in return Her collection of correspondence from various Amish communities isn't as exciting as traveling but it keeps her occupied One of her regular communicants is David Lapp of Seymour Missouri and she soon feels as if he knows her better than her own beau Obadiah Too bad she is already promised to marry him Originally from Lancaster Pennsylvania David Lapp moved to Seymour Missouri as part of a man swap The transition was going fine until a serious buggy accident landed him in the hospital where he nearly died following surgery on his broken leg After extensive therapy he has lingering mobility problems and is still struggling to find his place in the world When he realizes that his spirited pen pal Rachel Miller lives in a community where closed buggies are used he decides on a whim to move there hopeful for a fresh start Rachel never expected to meet David Lapp in person Even less did she anticipate that his intentions would be to court her As their friendship moves from the written page to in person encounters they discover that the chemistry in their correspondence was real But what will this mean for the future Following their hearts and God's leading will require no small amount of sacrifice and significant life changes Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Picturing the Postcard Monica Cure, 2018-12-18 The first full length study of a once revolutionary visual and linguistic medium Literature has died many times this book tells the story of its death by postcard Picturing the Postcard looks to this unlikely source to shed light on our collective modern day obsession with new media The postcard almost unimaginably now produced at the end of the nineteenth century the same anxieties and hopes that many people think are unique to twenty first century social media such as Facebook or Twitter It promised a newly connected social world accessible to all and threatened the breakdown of authentic social relations and even of language Arguing that new media is as much a discursive object as a material one and that it is always in dialogue with the media that came before it Monica Cure reconstructs the postcard's history through journals legal documents and sources from popular culture analyzing the postcard's representation in fiction by well known writers such as E M Forster and Edith Wharton and by more obscure writers like Anne Sedgwick and Herbert Flowerdew Writers deployed uproar over the new medium of the postcard by Anglo American cultural critics to mirror anxieties about the changing nature of the literary marketplace which included the new role of women in public life the appeal of celebrity and the loss of privacy an increasing dependence on new technologies and the rise of mass media Literature kept open the postcard's possibilities and in the process reimaged what literature could be Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series, 1954 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work copyrighted and data relating to the copyright claim the name of the copyright claimant as given in the application for registration the copyright date the copyright registration number etc The
