Great Britain And The Common Market 1957-69:

Great Britain & the Common Market, 1957-69 William J. Swift, 1970 A Bibliography of British History, 1914-1989 Keith Robbins, American Historical Association, Royal Historical Society (Great Britain), 1996 Containing over 25 000 entries this unique volume will be absolutely indispensable for all those with an interest in Britain in the twentieth century Accessibly arranged by theme with helpful introductions to each chapter a huge range of topics is covered There is a comprehensive index Great Britain and the Common Market 1957-69 William J. Swift, 1970 Britain's Policy Towards the European Community Helen Parr, 2006 This book examines the development of Harold Wilson's ambiguous policy towards the European Community within the context of Britain's shift from a global to a regional power The Diplomatic Service List Great Britain. Diplomatic Service Administration Office, 1969 The State and the Farmer Peter Self, Herbert J. Storing, Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1973

The Republic of de Gaulle 1958-1969 Serge Berstein, 1993-04 The Republic of De Gaulle offers a comprehensive account the fullest yet available in English of the eleven years that followed the establishment of the Fifth Republic in 1958 Serge Berstein analyses the new constitutional and political system that emerged under De Gaulle and shows how France was able to disengage from the ruinous Algerian War He then conducts a detailed analysis of the socio economic changes wrought during this period and discusses the aims of De Gaulle's highly individualistic foreign policy In the final section Professor Berstein traces the decline of De Gaulle's ascendancy up to his eventual resignation in 1969 In conclusion the author assesses the contribution of a remarkable political leader to the not less remarkable changes that took place in France during his presidency This volume lucidly translated by Peter Morris features all those student aids now associated with the series Bibliography of Agriculture, 1958 Economic Research Relevant to the Formulation of National Urban Development Strategies James Douglas McCallum, Lowdon Wingo, Wilbur Thompson, H.W. Richardson, Joel Bergsman, Peter Greenston, Robert Healy, Edwin S. Mills, Alan W. Evans, 2017-09-29 Originally published in 1971 this volume contains papers invited for a conference on economic research relevant to national urban development held in September of the same year The conference pulled together researchers from both the United Kingdom and the United States who were interested in economic research on key issues of both countries management of their urban areas Papers are varied from those in the early stages of research to those whose research has been completed and all provide an insight into the increase of urbanisation present in the first world This title will be of interest to students of environmental studies and economics

Checklist of BFC Publications United States. Bureau of Foreign Commerce, 1959 European Integration Since the 1920s Mark Hewitson, 2024-10-14 Brexit populism and Euroscepticism seem to have challenged old assumptions about European integration and raised the prospect of disintegration This book re-examines why the European Union and its forerunners were created and investigates how and why they have changed It links contemporary events to historical explanation arguing that there were long term sets of conditions dating back to the 1920s which pushed European governments to cooperate economically and to try to resolve their diplomatic differences The failure of the French and German governments to create what Aristide Briand had called a European federal union demonstrated both the precariousness of the enterprise and its connection to the domestic politics of European states After 1945 the unexpected advent of a Cold War and the military diplomatic and economic presence of the United States in Europe facilitated the gradual development of habits of cooperation and institutional integration but they also placed limits on European governments activities as did disagreements between political parties and the expectations of citizens As a consequence supranational bodies such as the European Commission have been accompanied and often overshadowed by intergovernmental institutions such as the European Council with the EU as a whole functioning in important respects as a type of confederation The volume addresses a series of large scale historical questions which are integral to an understanding of the European Union It asks how and why citizens of member states have identified with the EU how matters of security affected the development of the European Community during and after the Cold War whether economic and social convergence have taken place and with what consequences and why European institutions have come to function as they have The study is thematic focusing on the most important aspects of European integration and explaining why member states have decided to carry out or have consented to the unique experiment of the European Union

,1977 Enlarging the European Union M. Geary,2013-06-13 The book presents a new history of the first enlargement of the EU It charts the attempts by the European Commission to influence the outcome of the British and Irish bids to join the Common Market during the 1960s and 1970s The most politically divisive EU enlargement is examined through extensive research in British Irish EU and US archives Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress,1970 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1958 Rowntree and the Marketing Revolution, 1862-1969 Robert Fitzgerald,1995-01-05 Rowntree and the Marketing Revolution 1862 1969 is a major study in the history of marketing in economic development in addition to being a history of a well known international company Marketing history remains a neglected field of study yet Rowntree s commercial success has been the direct result of applied marketing methods and major advances in product development branding and advertising It is surprising that marketing and mass consumption has been so neglected yet Rowntree was a marketing pioneer The company had in addition a prominent role in questioning managerial organization business culture industrial relations restrictive practices and multinational business This book offers a comprehensive account of a company and its industry but pursues themes and seeks to answer areas of debate illuminating the ways in which marketing contributed to the growth of an enterprise "Foundations of an Ever Closer Union" Mark Callanan,2007 Marking the fiftieth anniversary of the Treaty of Rome this publication examines some of the key developments in European integration from an Irish perspective The book explores different aspects of Ireland s relationship with the process of European integration including Ireland's relationship with the six founding members before it joined in 1973 and how European developments formed the backdrop to domestic debates over changing Irish economic policy in the 1950s and 1960s. The increasing importance of the European Union in different policy areas is also analysed as is the impact the Union has had on the work of ministers and the Oireachtas and how EU business is managed within government departments. The publication also reflects on the different amendments to the Treaty of Rome and how Ireland has contributed to the negotiation of new treaties since the 1980s. With contributions from both practitioners and academics the book offers a diverse range of perspectives on how European developments have impacted on Ireland as well as reflections on what Ireland has brought to the European integration project. In these different ways the authors offer interesting new insights into Ireland's involvement in the integration process and illustrate how Ireland's position within the European Union has matured and entered a new phase of development. ,1971 Problems of an Urban Society J.B. Cullingworth, 2012-11-12 This book provides a wide ranging review of urban problems and constitutes a major contribution to the mounting public debate that these problems are attracting. Many of the problems of social and economic decay are not new indeed they are perennial problems of urban societies. As the complexities and interdependencies of modern life have increased so has the resolve to combat the environmental and social ills to which these give rise. The particular focus of this volume is on the framework of urban problems: the changing demographic, social and economic structure, the shortage of land and the transport needs of a highly complex industrial society. A mass of facts and figures are neatly and succinctly marshalled to provide a clear picture of the problems. Stress is laid on the essentially political nature of these problems and the alternative solutions. In essence urban problems are problems of social injustice, of disadvantage and of lack of power. This book was first published in 1973.
