Great Airmen:

Airman ,2005 Airmen and air theory a review of the sources Phillip S. Meilinger,2001 This part of the book reviews the state of American airpower biography and autobiography I have set certain parameters to define the boundaries of my discussion I discuss biographies and autobiographies anthologies and oral histories of military officers who served in senior positions Thus although the stories of great aviators like Eddie Rickenbacker Charles Lindbergh and Chuck Yeager are important those men did not command large forces either in combat or in peace they had only a temporary effect on the development of strategy and doctrine Similarly excluded are civilian political leaders and industrialists like Stuart Symington and Donald Douglas even though they played key roles In their own spheres What follows are the stories some published some not of America s greatest military airmen some told by themselves others by biographers The order of presentation is roughly chronological according to the time during which these men served The fact that a surprising number of air luminaries do not appear here means that much work remains to be done Air Corps News Letter ,1952 The Great War in the Air Edgar Charles Middleton,1920 Air Service News Letter ,1954 The Great War Herbert Wrigley Wilson,Sir John Alexander Hammerton,1916 Department of Defense Appropriations United States. Committee on Armed Services,2010 Air Commanders John Andreas Olsen,2012 This book combines short military biographies and operational analyses to reveal how the personalities attitudes and life experiences of twelve outstanding U S airmen shaped the central air campaigns in American history These case studies illuminate the character of these airmen the challenges they confronted in widely disparate armed conflicts and the solutions that they crafted and implemented Their achievements proved decisive not only in the campaigns they led but also in shaping the U S Air Force and the dominant role of airpower in modern warfare *108-1 Hearings: Military Construction Appropriations For 2004, Part 5, February 26, 2003,  ,2003 Military Construction Appropriations for 2004: Army, Navy, Air Force, quality of life United States.
