Through the Valley of the Shadow Linda Banks, Robert Banks, 2019-10-10. This compelling collection tells five stories of young Australian women who served in times of armed conflict in early twentieth century China. These courageous missionaries lived in the midst of pre-Boxer uprisings, the Republican revolution, clashes between regional warlords, Japanese occupation during World War II, and civil war between Nationalists and Communists. Suffering deprivation and hardship with the Chinese people, they were shot at and bombed, endured capture and imprisonment, and risked their lives to save others. Some were even killed. Working in villages, hospitals, schools, universities, orphanages, and refugee centers, these women helped shape the emergence of modern China. In partnership with local people, they helped raise the status of women and develop educational, medical, and welfare institutions that exist to this day. Based on thorough first-hand research, visits to various sites in China, and including a number of historic

Women in World History Bonnie G. Smith, 2008 The Encyclopedia of Women in World History captures the experiences of women throughout world history in a comprehensive 4 volume work Although there has been extensive research on women in history by region no text or reference work has comprehensively covered the role women have played throughout world history The past thirty years have seen an explosion of research and effort to present the experiences and contributions of women not only in the Western world but across the globe Historians have investigated women's daily lives in virtually every region and have researched the leadership roles women have filled across time and region They have found and demonstrated that there is virtually no historical social or demographic change in which women have not been involved and by which their lives have not been affected The Oxford Encyclopedia of Women in World History benefits greatly from these efforts and experiences and illuminates how women worldwide have influenced and been influenced by these historical social and demographic changes The Encyclopedia contains over 1 250 signed articles arranged in an A Z format for ease of use The entries cover six main areas biographies geography and history comparative culture and society including adoption abortion performing arts organizations and movements such as the Egyptian Uprising and the Paris Commune women's and gender studies and topics in world history that include slave trade globalization and disease With its rich and insightful entries by leading scholars and experts this reference work is sure to be a valued go to resource for scholars college and high school students and general readers alike

From Fear to Hope: Alternative Australian Narratives on War and Peacemaking Pamela Leach, 2018-07-10 This book scrutinises peace and war through Australian lenses It uncovers a deeper understanding of these terms and reflects a desire to bring to light alternative Australian ideas of war and peacemaking Certain stories have eclipsed others that add importantly to Australia's history This Quaker initiative considers a plurality of voices and the truths they purport It unpacks the act of memorialising to discover the marked impact we make in our efforts to hold on to meaning and to our past What have been the effects of our responses to the maxim Lest we forget

Broken Circles Anna Haebich, 2000-11-01 This major work reveals the dark heart of the history of the Stolen Generations in Australia It shows that from the earliest times of European colonization Aboriginal Australians experienced the trauma of loss and separation as their children were abducted enslaved institutionalized and culturally remodeled Providing a moving and comprehensive account of this tragic history this study covers all Australian colonies states and territories The analysis spans 200 years of white occupation and intervention from the earliest seizure of Aboriginal children through their systematic state removal and incarceration and on to the harsh treatment of families under the assimilation policies of the 1950s and 1960s The resistance struggle and achievements of Aboriginal people in defending their communities regaining their rights and mending the broken circles of family life provides a compelling parallel story of determination and courage

Women in Contemporary Politics Wendy Stokes, 2005-05-06 Looking at the representation of women in a wide range of political roles this text traces the development of women's political activism their roles in voting and elections and the specifics of women's partisanship The Spanish Civil War Charles J Esdaile, 2018-10-10 The Spanish Civil War A Military History takes a new military approach to the conflict that tore Spain apart from 1936 to 1939 In many histories the war has been treated as a primarily political event with the military narrative subsumed into a much broader picture of the Spain of 1936-9 in which the chief themes are revolution and counter revolution While remaining conscious of the politics of the struggle this book looks at the war as above all a military event and as one in whose outbreak specifically military issues particularly the split in the armed forces produced by the long struggle in Morocco 1909-27 were fundamental Across nine chapters that consider the war from beginning to endgame Charles J Esdaile revisits traditional themes from a new perspective deconstructs many epics and puts received ideas to the test as well as introducing readers to foreign language historiography that has previously been largely inaccessible to an anglophone audience In taking this new approach The Spanish Civil War A Military History is essential reading for all students of twentieth century Spain The Australian Journal, 1866 Australian Lives Joy W. Hooton, 1998 Joy Hooton an authority on Australian autobiography and co author of The Oxford Companion to Australian Literature has compiled an absorbing anthology of some of the finest autobiographical writings from the convict era to the present day She illustrates the strengths of this literary form which has loomed large in Australian writing since European settlement What's France got to do with it? Juliana de Nooy, 2020-07-30 While only one book length memoir recounting the sojourn of an Australian in France was published in the 1990s well over 40 have been published since 2000 overwhelmingly written by women Although we might expect a focus on travel intercultural adjustment and communication in these texts this is the case only in a minority of accounts More frequently France serves as a backdrop to a project of self renovation in which transplantation to another country is incidental hence the question What's France got to do with it The book delves into what France represents in the various narratives its role in the self transformation and the reasons for the seemingly insatiable demand among readers and publishers for these stories It asks why these memoirs have gained such traction among Australian women at the dawn of the twenty first century and what is at stake in the fascination with France
