Grange Friend Of The Farmer:

The Grange, Friend of the Farmer Charles Milo Gardner, 1949 The Grange, Friend of the Farmer; A Concise Reference History of America's Oldest Farm Organization, and the Only Rural Fraternity in the World, 1867-1947, by Charles M. Gardner Charles Milo Gardner, 1949 The Kansas-Nebraska Cattle Feedlot Industry, 1970 Hearings United States. Congress. House. Committee on Agriculture, 1971 The Big House after Slavery Amy Feely Morsman, 2010-10-13 The Big House after Slavery examines the economic social and political challenges that Virginia planter families faced following Confederate defeat and emancipation Amy Feely Morsman addresses how men and women of the planter class responded to postwar problems and how their adaptations to life without slavery altered their marital relationships and their conceptions of gender roles Unable to afford many servants in the new free labor economy many of Virginia's former masters put themselves to work on their plantations and their wives had to expand their responsibilities as well taking on the tasks of cooking and cleaning in addition to working in the garden the henhouse and the dairy Laboring in these ways and struggling to maintain their standing as elites contributed to an identity crisis among Virginia planters It also led them to practice mutuality within their own marriages and to reconsider what proper Southern womanhood and manhood meant in the new postwar order Using newspapers periodicals organization records and numerous letters from Virginia plantation families Morsman captures how these frustrated elites made sense of embarrassing postwar changes in the private but also in the public spheres they inhabited Morsman suggests that the planters adaptations may have been carried forward by their adult children away from the crumbling plantations and into the urban households of the New South Miscellaneous Publication, 1941 The Struggle for Equality Orville Vernon Burton, Jerald E. Podair, Jennifer L. Weber, 2011 This collection of essays organized around the theme of the struggle for equality in the United States during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries also serves to honor the renowned Civil War historian James McPherson Complete with a brief interview with the celebrated scholar this volume reflects the best aspects of McPherson's work while casting new light on the struggle that has served as the animating force of his lifetime of scholarship With a chronological span from the 1830s to the 1960s the contributions bear witness to the continuing vigor of the argument over equality Contributors Encyclopedia of American Social Movements Immanuel Ness, 2015-07-17 This four volume set examines every social movement in American history from the great struggles for abolition civil rights and women's equality to the more specific quests for prohibition consumer safety unemployment insurance and global justice Gaining Access John Mark Hansen, 1991-11 Through a comprehensive analysis of American agricultural politics in the past half century Gaining Access shows when how and why interest groups gain and lose influence in the policy deliberations of the United States Congress By consulting with policy advocates John Mark Hansen argues lawmakers offset their uncertainty about the policy stands that will bolster or impede their prospects for reelection The advocates provide legislators with electoral intelligence in Washington and supportive propaganda at home earning serious consideration of their policy views in return From among a multitude of such informants representatives must choose those they will most closely consult With evidence from congressional hearings personal interviews oral histories farm and trade journals and newspapers Hansen traces the evolution of farm lobby access in Congress He chronicles the rise and fall of the American Farm Bureau the surge and decline of party politics the incorporation of the commodity lobbies the exclusion of the consumer lobbies and the accommodation of urban interests in food stamps Brilliantly combining insights from rational choice theory with historical data Gaining Access is an essential guide for anyone interested in the dynamics of interest group influence Hearings, Reports and Prints of the House Committee on Agriculture United States. Congress House. Committee on Agriculture,1971 If Not Me, Who? Jacquelyn Ann Lowman,2004 Rural Democracy Marilyn Patricia Watkins,1995 What happens to social movements in rural settings when they do not face the divisive issues of race and class Marilyn Watkins examines the stable political climate built by successive waves of Populism socialism the farmer labor movement and the Grange in turn of the century western Washington She shows how all of these movements drew on the same community base empowered farmers and encouraged them in the belief that democracy independence and prosperity were realizable goals Indeed they were in a setting where agriculture was diversified farmers were debt free and critically women enjoyed equal status as activists in social movements Rural Democracy illuminates the problems that undermined Populism and other forms of rural radicalism in the South and the Midwest by demonstrating the political success of those movements where such problems were notably absent in Lewis county Washington By so doing Watkins convincingly demonstrates the continuing value of local community studies in understanding the large scale transformations that continue to sweep over rural America The Greenback Era Irwin Unger,2015-12-08 The Greenback Era is not a financial history rather it is an attempt to locate the source of political power in the crucial Reconstruction years through a socio economic study of American financial conflict during the years 1865 to 1879 Originally published in 1964 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Ayer Directory, Newspapers, Magazines, Trade Publications ,1885 Ayer Directory of Publications ,1885 First the Seed Jack Ralph Kloppenburg, Jr.,2005-04-26 First the Seed spotlights the history of plant breeding and shows how efforts to control the seed have shaped the emergence of the agricultural biotechnology industry This second edition of a classic work in the political economy of science includes an extensive new chapter updating the analysis to include the most recent developments in the struggle over the direction of crop genetic engineering 1988 Cloth 1990 Paperback Cambridge University Press Winner of the Theodore Saloutos Award of
