Granta Diary 2004:

This Overheating World Ian Jack, 2003 The world we were born into has gone We shall never completely recapture its climate its seasons the way its plants grew and its animals lived This is not a wild eyed prediction a man on the street with a placard THE END IS NIGH Respectable science knows it and says it Nine of the world's ten warmest years since records were kept have occurred in the past fourteen years Some calculations suggest the average English garden moves south climatically by a distance of sixty six feet every day Who is responsible We are our habits Can we prevent it Too late Can we moderate it slow it eventually reverse it Yes if we try This outdoor issue of Granta reports from our present and future world with writings from Edward Burtynsky Marian Botsford Fraser James Hamilton Paterson Thomas Keneally Philip Marsden and Bill McKibben In addition Christopher de Bellaigue James Meek and Nuha al Radi offer insights in the new Iraq along with a new story by Jon McGregor

Debating Orientalism Anna Bernard, David Attwell, 2013-06-13 Edward Said continues to fascinate and stir controversy nowhere more than with his classic work Orientalism Debating Orientalism brings a rare mix of perspectives to an ongoing polemic Contributors from a range of disciplines take stock of the book's impact and appraise its significance in contemporary cultural politics and philosophy

Borrowed Time Dennis Carlyle Darling, 2024-02-16 Honorable Mention The International Photography Awards 2024 Book Category Documentation through photographs and interviews of those who survived the unique Nazi ghetto camp located at Terezín Czech Republic Dennis Carlyle Darling has photographed and interviewed hundreds of Holocaust survivors who spent time at the German transit camp and ghetto at Terezín a former eighteenth century military garrison located north of Prague Many of the prisoners were kept there until they could be transported to Auschwitz or other camps but unlike German captives elsewhere they were allowed to participate in creative activities that the Nazis used for propaganda purposes to show the world how well they were treating Jews Although it was not classified as a death camp more than 33 000 prisoners died at Terezín from hunger disease and mistreatment In Borrowed Time Darling reveals Terezín as a place of painful contradictions through striking and intimate portraits that retrace time and place with his subjects the last remnants of those who survived the experience Returning to sites of painful memories with his interview subjects to photograph them Darling respectfully depicts these survivors and tells their stories

Diaries of Note Shaun Usher, 2025-10-07 Captures moments in time like nothing else RICHARD E GRANT Intimate and rarely predictable MICHAEL PALIN Completely fascinating and inspiring Completely addictive STEPHEN FRY A volume to treasure sigh and snigger over BIDISHA An engrossing collection of the most remarkable diary writing by the famous infamous and everyman alike curated by the creator of the globally bestselling Letters of Note What is more intimate than the diary Across human history people have kept these repositories of their most unvarnished truths poignant hopes hidden desires and deepest fears In Diaries of Note Shaun Usher collects 366 captivating diary entries each with a different author The diary welcomes all to its pages Here we encounter reflections from world leaders artists scientists writers and icons of film and music including Alan Rickman Frederick Douglass Virginia Woolf Louis Theroux and Emma Thompson alongside those who were never illuminated by fame but whose writings reveal them as extraordinary Beautifully illustrated this book is a testament to the power of personal narratives reflecting and encapsulating our deepest and often most secret emotions Landscape and Subjectivity in the Work of Patrick Keiller, W.G. Sebald, and Iain Sinclair David Anderson,2020-08-27 This book situates the film maker Patrick Keiller alongside the writers W G Sebald and Iain Sinclair as the three leading voices in English psychogeography offering new insights to key works including London The Rings of Saturn and Lights Out for the Territory Excavating social and political contexts while also providing plentiful close analysis it examines the cultivation of a distinctive affective mode or sensibility especially attuned to the cultural anxieties of the twentieth century s closing decades Landscape and Subjectivity explores motifs including essayism the reconciliation of creativity with market forces and the foregrounding of an often agonised or melancholic It asks whether the work can collectively be seen to constitute a critical theory of contemporary space and suggests that Keiller Sebald and Sinclair s contributions represent a highly significant moment in English culture s engagement with landscape environment and itself The book s analyses are fuelled by archival and topographical research and are responsive to various interdisciplinary contexts including the tradition of the English Journey the set of ideas associated with the spatial turn critical theory the so called heritage debate and more recent theorisation of the anthropocene Contemporary English-Language Indian Children's Literature Michelle Superle,2011-05-09 Concurrent with increasing scholarly attention toward national children s literatures Contemporary English language Indian Children s Literature explores an emerging body of work that has thus far garnered little serious critical attention Superle critically examines the ways Indian children s writers have represented childhood in relation to the Indian nation Indian cultural identity and Indian girlhood From a framework of postcolonial and feminist theories children s novels published between 1988 and 2008 in India are compared with those from the United Kingdom and North America from the same period considering the differing ideologies and the current textual constructions of childhood at play in each Broadly Superle contends that over the past twenty years an aspirational view of childhood has developed in this literature a view that positions children as powerful participants in the project of enabling positive social transformation Her main argument formed after recognizing several overarching thematic and structural patterns in more than one hundred texts is that the novels comprise an aspirational literature with a transformative agenda they imagine apparently empowered child characters who perform in diverse ways in the process of successfully creating and shaping the ideal Indian nation their own well adjusted bicultural identities in the diaspora and or their own empowered girlhoods Michelle Superle is a Professor in the department of Communications at Okanagan College She has taught children s literature composition and creative writing courses at various Canadian universities and has published articles in Papers and IRCL The Politics of Contested Narratives Ilse Lazaroms,Emily Gioielli,2016-03-17 The twentieth century in Europe was characterized by great moments of rupture such as two world wars ideological conflict and political polarization In these processes as well as in the historical writing that followed in its wake the individual as an historical entity often appeared crushed In line with contemporary theories about the precariousness of historical writing and the self this volume seeks to understand the important developments in modern Europe from the perspective of the single sometimes isolated but always original viewpoint of individuals inhabiting the space at the other side of the traditional grand narratives Including theoretical chapters as well as detailed case studies this volume takes a biographical approach to dystopian events the Holocaust Fascism Communism and collectivization by starting with the voices of unknown historical actors and relating their experiences to larger processes in modern European history such as the emergence of the national collective memory and state formation as well as changes in the understanding of modern identities and the re formulation of the self This book was originally published as a special issue of the European Review of History

Reckonings Mary Fulbrook,2018-09-04 Mary Fulbrook s award winning book uses reckoning in the widest possible sense to reveal the disparity between the extent of inhumanity perpetrated during the Nazi era and post war attempts to interpret and rectify wrongs as the consequences of violence reverberated through time Reckonings exposes the disjuncture between official myths about dealing with the past and the fact that the vast majority of Nazi perpetrators were never held accountable

The quiet contemporary American novel Rachel Sykes,2017-12-01 This book explores the concept of quiet an aesthetic of narrative driven by reflective principles and argues for the term s application to the study of contemporary American fiction In doing so it makes two critical interventions Firstly it maps the neglected history of quiet fictions arguing that from Hester Prynne to Clarissa Dalloway from Bartleby to William Stoner the Western tradition is filled with quiet characters Secondly it asks what it means for a novel to be quiet and how we might read for quiet in an American literary tradition that critics so often describe as noisy Examining recent works by Marilynne Robinson Teju Cole and Ben Lerner among others the book argues that quiet can be a multi faceted state of existence one that is communicative and expressive in as many ways as noise but filled with potential for radical discourse by its marginalisation as a mode of expression Modernity and the Political Fix Andrew Gibson, 2019-04-18 From their decisive emergence in the late eighteenth century modernity and modern politics were long haunted by irony and paradox Ours however is the age of the implosion of modernity Modernity has degenerated into self parody The polarities that an ironic grasp of it could potentially always hold in tension are finally collapsing into each other In Modernity and the Political Fix Andrew Gibson tells the relevant story and asks what aspects of modern politics we might want to salvage and preserve and within what structure we might continue thinking about them His answer is that these questions call for the isolation of a particular set of concepts that rightly positioned in relation to one another the concepts amount to a political theology that the very formulation of political temporality is therefore at stake and that the thinking in question has been and is best represented in modern philosophy and art above all modern literature Ranging through early modern and modern thought from Hobbes Pascal and Leibniz to Rousseau Kant Schopenhauer and Kierkegaard to Foucault Lacan Badiou Jambet and Rancière and in modern literature and art from Wordsworth and Byron to Goya and Wagner Huysmans and Wilde Joyce and Woolf Joseph Roth Vicki Baum Gabriele Tergit and the Weimar novel Evelyn Waugh and George Orwell to R S Thomas and Norman Nicholson Gibson seeks to compile a modern political aide memoire a treasury for a politics to come The Midwife-Mother Relationship Mavis Kirkham, 2010-09-15 The foundation between midwife and mother is the foundation upon which maternity care depends Covering completely new topics areas the new edition of this ground breaking text brings together classic and current research to establish key tenets for maternity care within hospital and home This ground breaking essential text reaffirms the fragility and the power of the relationship between midwife and mother and remains the definitive guide to the complex area of midwife mother relations New to this Edition Fully revised and expanded to reflect key developments in midwifery philosophy over the past decade applying a theoretical approach to emerging concepts such as emotional labour and midwifery partnership Covers completely new topics areas including the effects of emotional labour poverty and health policy Combines new works from the previous edition with new chapters on innovative midwifery practice Brings together classic and current research to establish key tenets for maternity care within hospital and home The Second French Republic 1848-1852 Christopher Guyver, 2016-06-09 This book follows the story of the Second French Republic from its idealistic beginnings in February 1848 to its formal replacement in December 1852 by the Second Empire Based on original archival research The Second French Republic gives a detailed account of the internal tensions that irrevocably weakened France's shortest republic During this short period French political life was buffeted by strong and often contrary forces universal manhood suffrage fear of socialism the President Louis Napoleon Bonaparte and the political ambitions of the military high command for the restoration of the monarchy Directory of Publishing 2004 Continuum International Publishing Group, 2003-11 This definitive guide contains over 3000 publishers in an A Z listing Publisher entries include named contacts how and where to place orders trade terms and returns information and business and product type coding
