A Graphic Odyssey Romare Bearden, 1992 The catalogue for an exhibition of the remarkable prints of African American artist Romare Bearden 1912-1988 who began as a Social Realist and then became a part of the Abstract Expressionists at Kootz Gallery Includes a checklist of all the prints currently known Romare Bearden Sally Price, Richard Price, 2006-11-21 This book relocates Bearden's Caribbean experience to the center of the work he did during the most productive period of his life Produced in full color it includes 130 Bearden paintings almost all Caribbean watercolors and collages few of which have ever been published Encyclopedia of African American Artists dele Jegede, 2009-03-20 African American heritage is rich with stories of family community faith love adaptation and adjustment grief and suffering all captured in a variety of media by artists intimately familiar with them From traditional media of painting and artists such as Horace Pippin and Faith Ringgold to photography of Gordon Parks and new media of Sam Gilliam and Martin Puryear installation art the African American experience is reflected across generations and works Eight pages of color plates and black and white images throughout the book introduce both favorite and new artists to students and adult readers alike African American heritage is rich with stories of family community faith love adaptation and adjustment grief and suffering all captured in a variety of media by artists intimately familiar with them From traditional media of painting and artists such as Horace Pippin and Faith Ringgold to photography of Gordon Parks and new media of Sam Gilliam and Martin Puryear installation art the African American experience is reflected across generations and works. Eight pages of color plates and black and white images throughout the book introduce both favorite and new artists to students and adult readers alike. A sampling of the artists included Romare Bearden, Elizabeth Catlett, Achamyele Debela, and Melvin Edwards. From Process to Print Romare Bearden, Mary Lee Corlett, 2009. From Process to Print Graphic Works by Romare Bearden celebrates the etchings, aquatints, collagraphs, photo projections, lithographs, and screenprints of one of America's most important twentieth-century artists. From Process to Print accompanies the traveling exhibition of the same title organized by the Romare Bearden Foundation, a New York-based nonprofit organization established in 1990 to preserve, perpetuate, and make publicly accessible Bearden's rich artistic and intellectual legacy through its programs. More than seventy-five full-color reproductions demonstrate Bearden's printmaking process as he worked and reworked particular images, themes, and techniques, illuminate how his thinking and approaches were shaped through collaborations with master printmakers, especially Robert Blackburn, and evidence Bearden's extraordinary facility for weaving into every art form a rich tapestry of literary, biblical, mythological, popular culture, and Western and non-Western themes that were informed by his African American cultural experiences. Included are prints based on collages such as the Odysseus series and The Piano Lesson. Also featured are his highly acclaimed works The Family and The Train, which Bearden reworked in several media through photographic processes and changes in technique, scale, and color. The essay by Mary Lee Corlett thoroughly examines Bearden's graphic oeuvre, discussing the artist's methods and revealing him as a fearless experimenter and innovator in various print techniques. Interviews with renowned printmakers Mohammad Omer Khalil and Kathleen Caraccio, both of whom worked with Bearden, offer valuable insights into the artist's methods.

Printmaking in America Trudy V. Hansen, Jane Voorhees Zimmerli Art Museum, 1995-09 The years from 1960 to 1990 witnessed an extraordinary outburst of creative activity among American printmakers A number of important new workshops were founded from such influential studios as Universal Limited Art Editions as Long Island and the Tamarind Lithography Workshop in Los Angeles to small presses throughout the country In contrast to traditional European ateliers where professional printers reproduced artists designs for commercial edition printing the new American workshops stressed collaboration and emphasized radical experimentation with medium and process The work produced in these studios often owed as much to the imaginative gifts of the printer as the conception of the artist
