Graphics And Grafts:

Graphics and Grafts Eva Darias-Beautell, 2001 This study provides a close reading and a critical analysis of four novels by contemporary Canadian women writing in English Joy Kogawa's Obasan 1983 Sky Lee's Disappearing Moon Cafe 1990 Kristjana Gunnars's The Prowler 1989 and Aritha van Herk's No Fixed Address 1987 The analysis draws on a combination of post-structuralist, post-colonial and feminist working concepts and perspectives It is predicated on the assumption of the fundamental interconnectedness of all aspects of human knowledge and partakes of the process of intertextuality affecting our own contemporary experience of the world Recent fiction by women but also feminist and postcolonial theories of meaning and textuality have had an important share in changing our views of the world text from a closed structure to a constant process of cultural textual interaction between two or more cultures texts The novels examined here provide rich sites for the exploration of these changing paradigms and their exegesis will offer alternative ways of dealing with language history gender fiction text and reality in Canada and elsewhere

American Graphic Rebecca B. Clark, 2022-12-06 What do we really mean when we call something graphic In American Graphic Rebecca Clark examines the graphic as a term tellingly at odds with itself On the one hand it seems to evoke the grotesque on the other hand it promises the geometrically streamlined in the form of graphs diagrams and user interfaces Clark's innovation is to ask what happens when the same moment in a work of literature is graphic in both ways at once Her answer suggests the graphic turn in contemporary literature is intimately implicated in the fraught dynamics of identification As Clark reveals this double graphic indexes the unseemliness of a lust in our current culture of information for cool epistemological mastery over the bodies of others Clark analyzes the contemporary graphic along three specific axes the ethnographic the pornographic and the infographic In each chapter Clark's explication of the double graphic reads a canonical author against literary visual and or performance works by Black and or female creators Pairing works by Edgar Allan Poe Vladimir Nabokov and Thomas Pynchon with pieces by Mat Johnson Kara Walker Fran Ross Narcissister and Teju Cole Clark tests the effects and affects of the double graphic across racialized and gendered axes of differences American Graphic forces us to face how closely and uncomfortably yoked together disgust and data have become in our increasingly graph-ick world
