a Crosslinguistic Perspective Mengistu Amberber, 2007 This book offers for the first time a detailed comparative study of how speakers of different languages express memory concepts While there is a robust body of psycholinguistic research that bears on how memory and language are related there is no comparative study of how speakers themselves conceptualize memory as reflected in their use of language to talk about memory This book addresses a key question how do speakers of different languages talk about the experience of having prior experiences coming to mind remembering or failing to come to mind forgetting A complex array of answers is provided through detailed grammatical and semantic investigation of different languages including English German Polish Russian and also a number of non Indo European languages Amharic Cree Dalabon Korean and Mandarin In addition the book calls for a broader interdisciplinary engagement by urging that cognitive semantics be integrated with other sciences of memory

The Art of Writing Badly Richard Chandler Borden, 1999 The art of writing badly is a phrase the Russian writer Valentin Kataev coined to describe the work that came out of the mauvist movement in Russia a style of writing that consciously challenged Soviet dogma In this book Richard Borden discusses the cultural and political context from which these authors emerged and the development of bad writing Beginning with a close examination of the work of Kataev the best known progenitor of bad writing Borden then broadens his study to include the mauvist creations of post Stalinist writers Aksenov Bitov Sokolov Limonov Evgeny Popov and Venedikt Erofeev Borden shows how these writers shared mauvistic characteristics reveal major philosophical and aesthetic tendencies in contemporary Russian culture bring to light facets of their writing that have never been discussed and enrich the readings of the particular texts under discussion

Russian Symbolism in Search of Transcendental Liquescence Anastasia Kostetskaya, 2019-06-24 The book examines Russian symbolist texts and turns the focus from their traditional historic cultural interpretations to analyze the symbolist cognitive aesthetics aesthetics that govern links between poetry art and cinema and the sensory emotional imagery they evoke This aesthetics inextricably map mystical transcendence to a spiritual world a realibus ad realiora through fluid transmutation Anastasia Kostetskaya presents an innovative cross disciplinary analysis of iconicity a relationship of resemblance between the artistic form and its meaning the possibilities of which symbolist artists explored to create sublime emotional experiences for the reader or viewer She challenges the strictly dualistic and hierarchical terms of traditional symbolist concepts This study demonstrates that this counterdualistic tendency cognitively extends from liquescence a perception of fluid continuity between people and water This analysis of interconnected symbolist media shows how symbolists rely on blending in their attempts to engender emotional flux through the pliable form Fusing cognitivist and historic cultural approaches in fluidly connected art modes
