Grave Deeds:

Death, Grief and Poverty in Britain, 1870-1914 Julie-Marie Strange, 2005-07-25 With high mortality rates it has been assumed that the poor in Victorian and Edwardian Britain did not mourn their dead Contesting this approach Julie Marie Strange studies the expression of grief among the working class demonstrating that poverty increased rather than deadened it She illustrates the mourning practices of the working classes through chapters addressing care of the corpse the funeral the cemetery commemoration and high infant mortality rates The book draws on a broad range of sources to analyse the feelings and behaviours of the labouring poor using not only personal testimony but also fiction journalism and official reports It concludes that poor people did not only use spoken or written words to express their grief but also complex symbols actions and significantly silence This book will be an invaluable contribution to an important and neglected area of social and cultural history

Grave History Kami Fletcher, Ashley Towle, 2023-12-15 Grave sites not only offer the contemporary viewer the physical markers of those remembered but also a wealth of information about the era in which the cemeteries were created These markers hold keys to our historical past and allow an entry point of interrogation about who is represented as well as how and why Grave History is the first volume to use southern cemeteries to interrogate and analyze southern society and the construction of racial and gendered hierarchies from the antebellum period through the dismantling of Jim Crow Through an analysis of cemeteries throughout the South including Alabama Florida Georgia Kentucky Maryland Missouri and Virginia from the nineteenth through twenty first centuries this volume demonstrates the importance of using the cemetery as an analytical tool for examining power relations community formation and historical memory Grave History draws together an interdisciplinary group of scholars including historians anthropologists archaeologists and social justice activists to investigate the history of racial segregation in southern cemeteries and what it can tell us about how ideas regarding race class and gender were informed and reinforced in these sacred spaces Each chapter is followed by a learning activity that offers readers an opportunity to do the work of a historian and apply the insights gleaned from this book to their own analysis of cemeteries These activities designed for both the teacher and the student as well as the seasoned and the novice cemetery enthusiast encourage readers to examine cemeteries for their physical organization iconography sociodemographic landscape and identity politics

Ancestral Memory in Early China K.E. Brashier,2020-10-26 Ancestral ritual in early China was an orchestrated dance between what was present the offerings and the living and what was absent the ancestors The interconnections among the tangible elements of the sacrifice were overt and almost mechanical but extending those connections to the invisible guests required a medium that was itself invisible Thus in early China ancestral sacrifice was associated with focused thinking about the ancestors with a structured mental effort by the living to reach out to the absent forebears and to give them shape and existence Thinking about the ancestors about those who had become distant required active deliberation and meditation qualities that had to be nurtured and learned This study is a history of the early Chinese ancestral cult particularly its cognitive aspects Its goals are to excavate the cult s color and vitality and to quell assumptions that it was no more than a simplistic and uninspired exchange of food for longevity of prayers for prosperity Ancestor worship was not the author contends merely mechanical and thoughtless Rather it was an idea system that aroused serious debates about the nature of postmortem existence served as the religious backbone to Confucianism and may even have been the forerunner of Daoist and Buddhist meditation practices

Religion - Politics - Evangelism Purna Chandra Jena,2015-11-24 This book seeks to show how religion is controlled by political ideologies and how evangelism is moulded and manipulated by the demands of the dominant political order of the day Out of his experience as a Christian in India the author challenges churches and congregations to participate in political action as an expression of their commitment to evangelism and to a better society

The Idiot Messiah Shannon DeConinck,2012-12-10 Carlos Delgado suspects that he is dead either that or he s going insane Since recovering from a near fatal accident in Los Angeles he is plagued by supernatural phenomena and long dead relatives It takes a mind bending adventure from the criminal underworld of LA to the sacred shrines of the Himalayas to reveal the astonishing truth Powerful forces work both for and against him in a battle where not only his own redemption but the future of the entire human race is at stake

Death in Dublin During the Era of James Joyce's Ulysses Patrick Callan,2024-09-27

The funeral of Paddy Dignam in James Joyce's Ulysses serves as the pivotal event of the Hades episode. This volume explores how Dignam's interment in Glasnevin Cemetery allowed Joyce the freedom to consider the conventions, rituals, and superstitions associated with death and burial in Dublin. Integrating the words and characters of Ulysses with its figurative locale, the book looks at the presence of Dublin in Ulysses and Ulysses in Dublin. It emphasises the highly visible public role assigned to death in Joyce's world while also appreciating how it is woven into the universe of Ulysses. The study examines the role of Glasnevin Cemetery where the Joyce family plot was opened in 1880 and remained in use for eight decades, as well as the social and medical problems associated with life in Dublin, a city divided by class, status, wealth, and health. Nineteen burials took place in Glasnevin on 16 June 1904, and the analysis of this group illuminates the role of undertakers and insurers along with the importance of memorialisation. This book is an important contribution to Joyce and Irish studies, as well as to international studies related to the treatment of the dead body and the development of garden cemeteries.

The Dustman Family of Trumbull and Mahoning Counties, Ohio Roy C. Ritter III, 2018-09-19 Johan Martin Dostmann was born in 1730 in Nassig, Germany, and today his descendants can be found throughout the United States of America. One of them is Roy C. Ritter III, and he traces his family's origins in this detailed history. Dostmann immigrated to Pennsylvania in 1752 with his sister and several friends and cousins, and so began the story of an enduring German-American family. After some time in Frederick County, Maryland, and Washington County, Pennsylvania, the family, which became known as Dustman, took advantage of the settlement opportunities in the newly formed Connecticut Western Reserve of Ohio, joining the state's earliest pioneers. Johan Martin Dostmann died before that journey, but his surviving children and grandchildren made their mark in Ohio, particularly in Trumbull and Mahoning counties, where they prospered. Covering the first four generations of the Dustman family, this book will be a valuable resource for the descendants of Johan Martin Dostmann.

Ibn al-'Arabī's Barzakh Salman H. Bashier, 2012-02-01 This book explores how Ibn al-Arabi (1165-1240) used the concept of barzakh (the Limit) to deal with the philosophical problem of the relationship between God and the world, a major concept disputed in ancient and medieval Islamic thought. The term barzakh indicates the activity or actor that differentiates between things, and that paradoxically then provides the context of their unity. Author Salman H. Bashier looks at early thinkers and shows how the synthetic solutions they developed provided the groundwork for Ibn al-Arabi's unique concept of barzakh. Bashier discusses Ibn al-Arabi's development of the concept of barzakh ontologically through the notion of the Third Thing, and epistemologically through the notion of the Perfect Man, and compares Ibn al-Arabi's vision with Plato's.
