Great Australian Of Nostalgia:

The Great Australian Book of Nostalgia John Larkins, Bruce Howard, 1975      Composing Australia: Nostalgia and National Identity in the Music of Malcolm Williamson Carolyn Philpott, 2018-11-01 Brilliant provocative compassionate the composer Malcolm Williamson was one of Australia's most famous expatriates As Carolyn Philpott explains his nostalgia for his homeland lasted fifty years from his emigration in 1953 until his death in 2003 In works such as the ballet The Display Symphony no 6 and The Dawn Is at Hand he explored inventive ways of expressing his Australian identity collaborating with Australian artists paying homage to Australian musicians and exposing his sorrow for the treatment of Indigenous peoples As the first book length examination of Williamson's music Composing Australia is a portrait of an intriguing and always imaginative Australian

The Great Australian Loneliness Ernestine Hill, 2018-09-01 This is the story of a journalist's journey round and across Australia It was in July 1930 that I first set out a wandering copy boy with swag and typewriter to find what lay beyond the railway lines Ernestine Hill's classic account of travelling in the Australian outback in a pilgrimage of many years and 100 000 miles The most picturesque account of our outback that has yet been written a vivid and arresting page of Australian history Adelaide Advertiser With zest humour and a warm sympathy Hill brings life to a frontier New York Herald Tribune A travel book that is a pleasure to recommend The Irish Times

The Best Australian Poetry 2007 John Tranter, Martin Duwell, Bronwyn Lea, 2007 A selection of the best poems from Australia's literary journals

Remembering the Great War in the Middle East Hans-Lukas Kieser, Thomas Schmutz, Pearl Nunn, 2021-10-07 This book addresses the conflicts myths and memories that grew out of the Great War in Ottoman Turkey and their legacies in society and politics It is the third volume in a series dedicated to the combined analysis of the Ottoman Great War and the Armenian Genocide In Australia and New Zealand and even more in the post Ottoman Middle East the memory of the First World War still has an immediacy that it has long lost in Europe For the post Ottoman regions the first of the two World Wars which ended Ottoman rule was the formative experience This volume analyses this complex configuration why these entanglements became possible how shared or even contradictory memories have been constructed over the past hundred years and how differing historiographies have developed Remembering the Great War in the Middle East reaches towards a new conceptualization of the long last Ottoman decade 1912-22 one that places this era and its actors more firmly at the center instead of on the periphery of a history of a Greater Europe a history comprising as contemporary maps did Europe Russia and the Ottoman world

Tourism and Cricket Tom Baum, Richard Butler, 2014-08-01 This book is the first to focus on the relationship between tourism and cricket The pattern of cricket as a sport and as a tourist attraction is highly dynamic This volume examines how cricket as a participant and spectator sport generates diverse tourism to both major and peripheral locations It looks at the ways in which cricket's extended duration compared to other sports creates a different dynamic in terms of visitor host interaction It also considers how following cricket as a tourist and a participant causes exposure to unique pressures and results in unique behaviour The book will appeal to researchers students and teachers in tourism sport and leisure

Anthology of Australian Prose Poetry Cassandra Atherton, Paul Hetherington, 2020-09-29 Prose poetry is a resurgent literary form in the English speaking world and has been rapidly gaining popularity in Australia Cassandra Atherton and Paul Hetherington have gathered a broad and representative selection of the best Australian prose poems written over the last fifty years The Anthology of Australian Prose Poetry includes numerous distinguished prose poets Jordie Albiston Joanne burns Gary Catalano Anna Couani Alex Skovron Samuel Wagan Watson Ania Walwicz and many more and documents prose poetry's growing appeal over recent decades from the poetic margins to the mainstream This collection reframes our understanding not only of this dynamic poetic form but of Australian poetry as a whole Text, Theory, Space

Kate Darian-Smith, Liz Gunner, Sarah Nuttall, 2005-08-04 Text Theory Space is a landmark in post colonial criticism and theory Focusing on two white settler societies South Africa and Australia the contributors investigate the meaning of the South as an aesthetic political geographical and cultural space Drawing upon a wide range of disciplines which include literature history urban and cultural geography politics and anthropology the contributors examine crucial issues including defining what the South encompasses investigating ideas of space history land and landscape claiming naming and possessing land national and personal boundaries questions of race gender and nationalism

Art and Politics Josephine Caust, 2023-11-03 Australian governments at all levels have been engaged with arts and culture in many different forms since the beginning of European settlement The way this has occurred is documented and analysed here both from an historical and critical perspective Changing understandings of culture and the significance of Indigenous Culture to Australia receive special attention While the focus is primarily directed to Federal Government engagement there is also consideration paid to both state and local government involvement There is attention paid to the censorship of arts practice by governments as well as the direct interventions by politicians in arts practice Different approaches to the arts by governments are also considered as well as attempts to develop a national cultural policy The impact of the recent pandemic is addressed and various research reports about the arts sector and its relationship with government are also noted There is then a final discussion about some issues that governments could address in the future that might ensure a more sustainable Australian arts sector This book will be of particular interest to scholars of contemporary arts arts management cultural history public policy and cultural policy It may also interest bureaucrats and politicians

Australia and World Crisis, 1914-1923 Neville Meaney, 2009-07-31 Australia and World Crisis 1914 1923 is the second volume in a pioneering two volume history of Australian defence and foreign policy It is based on wide ranging research in collections of personal and official papers in Australia Britain the United States and Canada Linking up with the first volume The Search for Security in the Pacific it offers a new and path breaking understanding of Australia's relations with the world from the outbreak of the First World War to the making of peace in Europe and the Pacific This study explores a number of fundamental issues that shaped

Australia's response to the world in this era such as race and culture geopolitics and security domestic divisions and ideas of loyalty and the philosophies and personalities of the chief policy makers From the outset of this global conflict Australia was involved in a hot war in Europe against Germany and its allies and in a cold war in the Pacific against Japan The British Australians for reasons of sentiment and interest supported the Mother Country but even as they did so they were deeply concerned about Japan's ambitions As a result Japan figured prominently in Australia's approach to the war and the peace Indeed for the Australians the cold war did not come to an end until the Washington Conference of 1921-2 when Japan with the other Pacific powers agreed to limit naval building and to respect existing territories in China and the Pacific In tracing out this story the book throws light on many particular aspects of the hot and cold wars They include the origins of Asian studies in Australia intelligence gathering the secret service and loyalty leagues the fear of Japan in the conscription controversy Irish Catholics and the Anglo Irish War The labour movement and the Bolshevik revolution the ideological clash of the American President and the Australian Prime Minister over peacemaking the visit of the Prince of Wales Britishness and the failure of the idea of Greater Britain all influenced the development of Australia's defence and foreign policy At the end of the book there is an attempt to provide an assessment of Australia's leadership through these testing times and to point out the significance of this experience for a later generation of Australia policy makers

The Politics of War Memory and Commemoration T.G. Ashplant, Graham Dawson, Michael Roper, 2013-01-11 International in scope presents a range of case studies from a diverse range of national contexts War memory and commemoration has had an increasingly high profile in public and academic debates in recent years Commemorating War Timothy G. Ashplant, Graham Dawson, Michael Roper, War memory and commemoration have had increasingly high profiles in public and academic debates in recent years This volume examines some of the social changes that have led to this development among them the passing of the two world wars from survivor into cultural memory Focusing on the politics of war memory and commemoration the book illuminates the struggle to install particular memories at the center of a cultural world and offers an extensive argument about how the politics of commemoration practices should be understood Commemorating War analyzes a range of forms of remembrance from public commemorations orchestrated by nation states to personal testimonies of war survivors and from cultural memories of war represented in films plays and novels to investigations of wartime atrocities in courts of human rights It presents a wide range of international case studies encompassing lesser known national histories and wars beyond the well trodden terrain of Vietnam and the two world wars in Europe Emerging from this book is an important critique of both state centered approaches to war memory and those that regard commemoration primarily as a human response to loss and grief Offering a wealth of empirical research material this book will be important for cultural and oral historians sociologists researchers in international relations and human rights and anybody with an interest in the cultural construction of memory in contemporary society Timothy G Ashplant is a member of the Research Center for Literature and Cultural History at Liverpool John Moores University He has published on psychoanalysis and history and the life writings of working class men and women in Britain Graham Dawson teaches cultural and historical studies at the University of Brighton His publications include Soldier Heroes British Adventure Empire and the Imagining of Masculinities and Trauma and Life Stories with Kim Lacy Rogers and Selma Leydesdorff Michael Roper works as a social and cultural historian in the Department of Sociology at the University of Essex His previous publications include Manful Assertions Masculinities in Britain since 1800 with John Tosh and Masculinity and the British Organization Man since 1945

Supplement Index, 1940 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arab country as well as Arab immigrant writing in many languages around the world Suburban Space, the Novel and Australian Modernity Brigid Rooney, 2018-11-15 Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity investigates the interaction between suburbs and suburbia in a century long series of Australian novels It puts the often trenchantly anti suburban rhetoric of fiction in dialogue with its evocative and imaginative rendering of suburban place and time Suburban Space the Novel and Australian Modernity rethinks existing cultural debates about suburbia in Australia and elsewhere by putting novelistic representations of suburbs suburban interiors homes streets forms and lives over time in dialogue with the often negative idea of suburbia in fiction as an amnesic and conformist cultural wasteland Suburban space the novel and Australian modernity shows in other words how Australian novels dramatize the collision between the sensory terrain of the remembered suburb and the cultural critique of suburbia It is through such contradictions that novels create resonant mental maps of place and time Australian novels are a prism through which suburbs as sites of everyday colonization defined by successive waves of urban development are able to be glimpsed sidelong
