The Satellite Sex Barbara M. Freeman, 2001 In this provocative new book the first one to examine print and broadcast news coverage of women's issues in English Canada Barbara Freeman explores what the media were saying about women and their concerns during an important period in our history and why The Satellite Sex is both a social history and a media case study of the years 1966-1971 when the feminist movement began once more to gather support Women wanted equal treatment under the law and they wanted rights they had not gained when they won the vote many years earlier In response the Canadian government appointed a federal inquiry on the status of women and hundreds of women came forward to talk to the Commission about the injustices they experienced at school at work in public life in their homes and even in their bedrooms The Satellite Sex demonstrates that the print and broadcast media coverage of women's issues at that time were much more complex and fragmented than revealed by research in the United States on the same era This book released thirty years after the Canadian Commission presented its report also raises questions about the lack of strong feminist voices in today's news media

Canadian Literatures in English, Volume One - Second Edition Cynthia Sugars, Laura Moss, 2025-07-28 The long awaited second edition of Canadian Literatures in English has been updated throughout to include recent scholarship and fresh literary works As with the previous edition the anthology reflects the editors commitment to historical contextualization cultural inclusion and a nuanced understanding of critical debates over

Nicol, 2015-10-19 The Fence and the Bridge is about the development of the Canada US border security relationship as an outgrowth of the much lengthier Canada US relationship It suggests that this relationship has been both highly reflexive and hegemonic over time and that such realities are embodied in the metaphorical images and texts that describe the Canada US border over its history Nicol argues that prominent security motifs such as themes of free trade illegal immigration cross border crime terrorism and territorial sovereignty are not new nor are they limited to the post 9 11 era They have developed and evolved at different times and become part of a larger quilt whose patches are stitched together to create a new fabric and design Each of the security motifs that now characterize Canada US border perceptions and relations has a precedent in border management strategies and border relations in earlier periods In some cases these have deep historical roots that date back not just years or decades but centuries They are part of an evolving North American geopolitical logic that inscribes how borders are perceived how they function and what they mean Redefining the Bonds of Commonwealth, 1939-1948 F. McKenzie, 2002-06-06 This work is a path breaking study of the changing attitudes of Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa to Britain and the Commonwealth in the 1940s and the effect of those changes on their individual and collective standing in international affairs The focus is imperial preference the largest discriminatory tariff system in the world and a potent symbol of Commonwealth unity It is based on archival research in Britain Canada Australia New Zealand and the United States The Canadian Crucible Frances Russell, 2003 Located midway between east and west Manitoba has had an impact on Canada that goes far beyond geography Here more than once the proponents of the nation s two official languages have met to determine Canada s future More often than not those meetings have created an atmosphere of conflict and passion Louis Riel The Manitoba Schools Question The Official Languages debate Political journalist Frances Russell examines the way the issues that define Canada have been tested here and the results that changed the nation Illustrated with a century of editorial cartoons this controversial book also contains a bibliography and index Canadian Periodical Index, 2000 Analyse de Politiques, 1998 Exemplars in Historical Thinking Roland Case, Catriona Misfeldt, Mike Bowman, Garfield Gini-Newman, 2008 This resource presents a collection of nine critical challenges to engage students in thinking historically about a wide range of events and people in 20th century Canada The critical challenges build on a conception of historical thinking articulated by Peter Seixas of the University of British Columbia The resource models how teachers and students can use these ideas to raise critical questions and to think more deeply about history The challenges are built around various featured topics in 20th century Canadian history but teachers can adapt the lessons to engage students in thinking about a wide range of historical events and people Disabling Barriers Ravi Malhotra, Benjamin Isitt, 2017-10-15 Disabling Barriers analyzes issues relating to disability at different moments in Canadian and American history In this volume legal scholars historians and disability rights activists demonstrate that disabled people can change their social status by transforming the political and legal discourse surrounding disablement Employing tools from the fields of law and history this original contribution explores how disabled people have been portrayed and treated in a variety of contexts including within the labour market the workers compensation system the immigration process and the legal system both as litigants and as lawyers It deepens our knowledge of the role of people with disabilities within social movements in disability history The contributors encourage us to rethink our understanding of both the systemic barriers disabled people face and the capacity of disabled people to effect positive societal change
