Great Angel Israels Second God:

The Great Angel ,1992-01-01 In this groundbreaking book Barker claims that pre Christian Judaism was not monotheistic and that the roots of Christian Trinitarian theology lie in a pre Christian Palestinian belief about angels derived from the ancient religion of Israel Barker s beliefs are based on canonical and deuterocanonical works and literature from Qumran and rabbinic sources

Luke's Christology of Divine Identity Nina Henrichs-Tarasenkova,2015-11-19 Henrichs Tarasenkova argues against a long tradition of scholars about how best to represent Luke s Christology When read against the backdrop of ancient ways of constructing personal identity key texts in the Lukan narrative demonstrate that Luke indirectly characterizes Jesus as the one God of Israel together with YHWH Henrichs Tarasenkova employs a narrative approach that takes into consideration recent studies of narrative and history and enables her to construct characters of YHWH and Jesus within the Lukan narrative She employs Richard Bauckham s concept of divine identity that she evaluates against her study of how one might speak of personal identity in the Greco Roman world She engages in close reading of key texts to demonstrate how Luke speaks of YHWH as God in order to demonstrate that Luke Acts upholds a traditional Jewish view that only the God of Israel is the one living God and to eliminate false expectations for how Luke should speak of Jesus as God This analysis establishes how Luke binds Jesus identity to the divine identity of YHWH and concludes that the Lukan narrative in fact does portray Jesus as God when it shows that Jesus shares YHWH s divine identity

Breaking the Mormon Code Matthew A. Paulson,2000-09 In Provo Utah there exists the Foundation for Ancient Research and Mormon Studies FARMS renowned as a Mormon think tank FARMS is owned and operated by Brigham Young University BYU and the Mormon Church Their mission seeks to repudiate the opposition applaud its supporters and justify many peculiar Mormon doctrines This book demonstrates that FARMS often twists the truths to justify Mormon doctrines To justify their position they often will utilize inane accusations misquotes and equivocation This collection of deceit from Mormon scholarship is what Matt Paulson has identified as the breaking of the Mormon Code

The Messiah James A. Waddell,2011-09-01 This volume discusses conceptual elements of messianic traditions that are identified in the Parables of Enoch and the Letters of Paul by examining the nature and functions of the divine figure and of the messiah figure Comparative analysis presented here demonstrates that the Parables of Enoch and the Letters of Paul share specific conceptual elements of messianic traditions The combination of shared elements is so striking as to preclude the possibility that the Parables of Enoch and the Letters of Paul constituted independent parallel developments It cannot be claimed however that Paul was familiar with the text of the Parables of Enoch there are no direct quotes of the Parables anywhere in Paul s Letters Waddell does however show that Paul was familiar with the conceptual elements of the Enochic messiah and that Paul developed his concept of the Kyrios out of the Son of Man traditions in the Book of the Parables of Enoch Waddell specifically argues Pauline christology was at the very least heavily influenced by Enochic Son of Man traditions

God and the Goddesses Barbara

Newman, 2016-01-14 Contrary to popular belief the medieval religious imagination did not restrict itself to masculine images of God but envisaged the divine in multiple forms In fact the God of medieval Christendom was the Father of only one Son but many daughters including Lady Philosophy Lady Love Dame Nature and Eternal Wisdom God and the Goddesses is a study in medieval imaginative theology examining the numerous daughters of God who appear in allegorical poems theological fictions and the visions of holy women We have tended to understand these deities as mere personifications and poetic figures but that Barbara Newman contends is a mistake These goddesses are neither pagan survivals nor versions of the Great Goddess constructed in archetypal psychology but distinctive creations of the Christian imagination As emanations of the Divine mediators between God and the cosmos embodied universals and ravishing objects of identification and desire medieval goddesses transformed and deepened Christendom's concept of God introducing religious possibilities beyond the ambit of scholastic theology and bringing them to vibrant imaginative life Building a bridge between secular and religious conceptions of allegorized female power Newman advances such questions as whether medieval writers believed in their goddesses and if so in what manner She investigates whether the personifications encountered in poetic fictions can be distinguished from those that appear in religious visions and questions how medieval writers reconcile their statements about the multiple daughters of God with orthodox devotion to the Son of God Furthermore she examines why forms of feminine God talk that strike many Christians today as subversive or heretical did not threaten medieval churchmen Weaving together such disparate texts as the writings of Latin and vernacular poets medieval schoolmen liturgists and male and female mystics and visionaries God and the Goddesses is a direct challenge to modern theologians to reconsider the role of goddesses in the Christian tradition

The New Mormon Challenge Zondervan, 2010-12-21 Current facts about Mormonism Over 11 million members Over 60 000 full time missionaries more than any other single missionary sending organization in the world More than 310 000 converts annually As many as eighty percent of converts come from Protestant backgrounds In Mormon circles the saying is We baptize a Baptist church every week Within fifteen years the numbers of missionaries and converts will roughly double Within eighty years with adherents exceeding 267 million Mormonism could become the first world religion to arise since Islam You may know the statistics What you probably don't know are the advances the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints LDS is making in apologetics and academic respectability With superb training Mormon scholars outclass many of their opponents Arguments against Mormon claims are increasingly refuted as outdated misinformed or poorly argued The New Mormon Challenge is a response to the burgeoning challenge of scholarly Mormon apologetics Written by a team of respected Christian scholars it is free of caricature sensationalism and diatribe The respectful tone and responsible rigorous yet readable scholarship set this book in a class of its own It offers freshly researched and well documented rebuttals of Mormon truth claims Most of the chapter topics have never been addressed and the criticisms and arguments are almost entirely new But The New Mormon Challenge does not merely challenge

Mormon beliefs it offers the LDS Church and her members ways to move forward The New Mormon Challenge will help you understand the intellectual appeal of Mormonism and it will reveal many of the fundamental weaknesses of the Mormon worldview Whether you are sharing the gospel with Mormons or are investigating Mormonism for yourself this book will help you accurately understand Mormonism and see the superiority of the historic Christian faith Outstanding scholarship and sound methodology make this an ideal textbook The biblical historical scientific philosophical and theological discussions are fascinating and will appeal to Christians and Mormons alike Exemplifying Christian scholarship at its best The New Mormon Challenge pioneers a new genre of literature on Mormonism The Editors Francis J Beckwith Carl Mosser and Paul Owen are respected authorities on the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints and the authors of various books and significant articles on Mormonism With contributors including such respected scholars as Craig L Blomberg William Lane Craig J P Moreland and others The New Mormon Challenge is as Richard Mouw states in his foreword an important event for both Protestant evangelicals and Mormons that models to the evangelical community what it is like to engage in respectful and meaningful exploration of a viewpoint with which we disagree on key points Paul's Divine Christology Chris

Tilling,2015-02-10 Angels in Islam Stephen Burge,2015-12-22 Angels are a basic tenet of belief in Islam appearing in various types and genres of text from eschatology to law and theology to devotional material This book presents the first comprehensive study of angels in Islam through an analysis of a collection of traditions had th compiled by the 15th century polymath Jal l al D n al Suy t d 911 1505 With a focus on the principal angels in Islam the author provides an analysis and critical translation of hadith included in al Suyuti s al Haba ik fi akhbar al mala ik The Arrangement of the Traditions about Angels many of which are translated into English for the first time The book discusses the issues that the had th raise exploring why angels are named in particular ways how angels are described and portrayed in the had th the ways in which angels interact with humans and the theological controversies which feature angels From this it is possible to place al Suy t s collection in its religious and historical milieu building on the study of angels in Judaism and Christianity to explore aspects of comparative religious beliefs about angels as well as relating Muslim beliefs about angels to wider debates in Islamic Studies Broadening the study of Islamic angelology and providing a significant amount of newly translated primary source material this book will be of great interest to scholars of Islam divinity and comparative religion Wrestling with Angels

Kevin Sullivan,2018-12-10 This monograph explores the relationship between angels and humans during the late Second Temple and early Christian period 200BCE 100CE The issue of the similarity of appearance between humans and angels is considered in the first part of the book In the second part three topics are covered humans and angels living together in communities angels as recipients of human hospitality and the possibility of human angel hybrid offspring This study provides insight into how the ancient Jews and Christians defined angel and it argues that a clear distinction was maintained between angels and humans These analyses have implications for our understanding of nascent Christology as well as soteriology and also for our understanding of early Jewish Mysticism Christ is God Over All George Carraway, 2013-10-17 Chapter 3 acknowledges and answers objections from outside the biblical text that Paul as a monotheistic Jew would not identify Jesus as God Similarly chapter 4 answers objections that Paul would not refer to Jesus as God in Romans 9 5 b because he does not so identify Jesus elsewhere Chapter 5 considers the importance of Paul's identification of Christ as the stone of stumbling and the end of the law in Romans 9 30 10 4 especially for how he understood Jesus Chapter 6 argues that in Romans 10 5 13 Paul understood Jesus as the referent of the one on whom all call for salvation assigning to Jesus an Old Testament reference to YHWH as the one who could save Chapter 7 argues there is no separate way of salvation for Israel and that Jesus is YHWH the redeemer from Zion which Israel must join Gentiles in recognizing Fallen Angels and Fallen Women Robin Jarrell, 2013-02-15 The strange and enigmatic title son of man has intrigued biblical scholars for millennia What does it mean and how does it describe Jesus in his role as the Christian messiah Robin Jarrell surveys the mythological roots of the phrase in the ancient Mesopotamian Epic of Gilgamesh and traces its development from the mythology of the Egyptian queen Hatshepsut's birth narrative to the Baal Cycle in Ugaritic literature to the story of Pandora and finally to the story of creation found in the book of Genesis The key to unlocking the mystery of the phrase son of man is embedded in the story of the first son of man Noah with the reference to the sons of God who found wives among the daughters of men and whose offspring brought devastation to the earth and the reason for the flood In the hands of the Christian gospel writers the parallel son of man figure found in the Dead Sea Scrolls reemerges in the identity of the last son of man Jesus of Nazareth Yahoel and Metatron Andrei A. Orlov, 2017-08-17 In this work Andrei A Orlov examines the apocalyptic profile of the angel Yahoel as the mediator of the divine Name demonstrating its formative influence not only on rabbinic and Hekhalot beliefs concerning the supreme angel Metatron but also on the unique aural ideology of early Jewish mystical accounts Back of dust jacket Redescribing Jesus' Divinity Through a Social Science Theory Benjamin Pascut, 2017-07-12 Back cover Is Mark's Jesus included in the divine identity of God In the first research to apply an identity theory from the social sciences to the study of Jesus Benjamin Pascut redescribes Jesus divinity by attending to his authority to forgive Christ the Logos of Creation: An Essay in Analogical Metaphysics John R. Betz, 2023-09-28 The Prologue of the Gospel of John identifies Jesus Christ as the eternal Word or Logos of the Father who became flesh for the salvation of the world Yet the world that Christ saves is his world from the beginning for he is also the Logos of creation the one through whom all things were made John 1 3 This divinely revealed claim has profound implications not only for theology but also for metaphysics whose relation to Christian doctrine was undermined over the course of the twentieth century such that the Christian faith has become an increasingly private affair rather than a credible account of reality and an invitation to participate more fully in it With Christ the Logos of Creation John Betz seeks to recover a Christ centered analogical metaphysics and to establish the indispensability of such metaphysics for Christian theology and the Christian vision of reality In Part I he dispels the fog of confusion about analogical metaphysics and addresses the ecumenical issues posed by Karl Barth's famous rejection of the analogia entis Part II demonstrates how analogical metaphysics helps to explain Christian doctrine and sheds new light on the interrelationship between individual doctrines including Trinitarian theology Christology and soteriology and theological anthropology In Part III Betz explores how this analogical perspective can aid in resolving a number of theological disputes including the metaphysical relationship between nature and grace and the issue of divine humility Finally Part IV outlines further directions toward a fully Christological metaphysics that is proportionate both to the challenges of modern theology and the reality of our life in Christ the Logos Minority Reports Mark

Klitsie, 2016-06-03 The stuff that comes after modernism isn't all bad Postmodernism not needing everything to be buttoned up can leave things dangling it can pay attention to the obscure marginal and particular The postmodern dynamic invites one to revisit biblical texts that do not fit into tidy cherished theological constructs I call these texts the minority reports Popular theology infers that God is just pretending when he changes his mind or gets frustrated saddened and affected by humans this understanding is guided by concepts of God's omni attributes But these wise and well intentioned concepts fail to portray a God who will not be domesticated Certain biblical narratives trace YHWH's hiddenness suffering changeability and hostility this awkward shadow side of YHWH is sometimes selectively overlooked The fear of God is gone Instead we have the ever tolerant universal God who is in danger of evaporating into spirit light and love As a theologian I use Hebrew block logic competing truths in the Bible are kept intact synthesis isn't necessarily sought God chooses us and we choose God God is self sufficient all powerful and all knowing needing no creature Yet he chooses to limit his omni ness in the human arena and makes himself vulnerable to humans He hyphenates his name with Abraham Isaac Jacob and the church at a risk Jesus and the Angels Peter R. Carrell, 1997-07-10 This book first published in 1997 examines the influence of angelology on the christology of the Apocalypse of John In the Apocalypse Jesus appears in glorious form reminiscent of angels in Jewish and Christian literature in the period between 200 BCE and 200 CE Dr Carrell asks what significance this has for the christology of the Apocalypse He concludes that by portraying Jesus in such a way that he has the form and function of an angel and yet is also divine the Apocalypse both upholds monotheism and at the same time provides a means for Jesus to be presented in visible glorious form to his Church Behold, the Angels Came and Served Him' Kristian A. Bendoraitis, 2015-11-19

Angels have been analyzed in Christological research due to their primary function as messengers and mediators between heaven and earth Their role in the Gospel narratives however has been largely unexplored Utilizing the Old Testament and sources from the Second Temple period to illustrate the variety of angel traditions Bendoraitis identifies how these traditions are reflected in Matthew's Gospel and interprets the passages in which angels appear or are represented resulting in a detailed exegesis of those passages which specifically mention angels Each reference is critically analyzed in view of its role in the Gospel's narrative and in light of Matthew's redactional hand In addition each chapter is accompanied by a discussion of relevant traditions of angels in order to illustrate how Matthew's use of angels has facilitated his Gospel's message. The examination concludes by postulating three factors in the inclusion of angel traditions in Matthew's narrative pertaining both to Matthew's Christology and worldview.

Prophetic Culture Federico Campagna, 2021-06-17. Selected as one of The Tablet's Books of the Year 2021. Throughout history, different civilisations have given rise to many alternative worlds. Each of them was the enactment of a unique story about the structure of reality, the rhythm of time, and the range of what it is possible to think and to do in the course of a life. Cosmological stories, however, are fragile things. As soon as they lose their ring of truth and their significance for living the worlds that they brought into existence, they disintegrate. New and alien worlds emerge from their ruins. Federico Campagna explores the twilight of our contemporary notion of reality and the fading of the cosmological story that belonged to the civilisation of Westernised Modernity. How are we to face the challenge of leaving a fertile cultural legacy to those who will come after the end of our future? How can we help the creation of new worlds out of the ruins of our own?

Mysticism in the Gospel of John Jey Kanagaraj, 1998-04-01. This is the first detailed study of Johannine mysticism against a Palestinian Jewish background. It has been previously undertaken. This book investigates whether there was a mystical practice in first-century Palestine and whether John can be better understood in the light of such practice if there was any. In analysis, two strands of Jewish mysticism, the early forms of Ma'aseh Merkabah and of Ma'aseh Bereshit, emerge as existing in first-century Palestine. While the former narrates by means of Ezekiel 1 the experience of seeing God in His kingly glory, the latter describes the same experience by using Genesis 1. This book consists of three parts. Part one analyses Hellenistic mysticism as expressed by the Hermetica and Hellenistic Jewish mysticism as presented by Philo. Part two traces the important elements of Merkabah mysticism from the later Hekhalot literature and the Jewish and Christian writings belonging to 2nd-century BCE to 1st-century CE by defining the term mysticism in terms of the fourteen aspects of Jewish mysticism. An exegetical study of seven themes is undertaken in Part Three. The study shows that the conceptual parallels in John with Hellenistic mysticism and Hellenistic Jewish mysticism are very slender but indicates John's polemical motive against the Merkabah mystics of his time. He calls them to believe in Jesus as the Christ, the Son of God, by proclaiming that the divine glory claimed by them to be revealed in human-like form on the throne is now visible in the historical person Jesus, particularly in his death on the Cross. Thus, Jewish Throne mysticism seems to have been reinterpreted by John as Cross mysticism
