Freedom And Determination In History According To Marx And Engels:

Freedom and Determination Joseph Ferraro, 1992 Reflections on the Marxist theory of history Paul Blackledge, 2013-07-19 A decade after Francis Fukuyama announced the End of History anti capitalist demonstrators at Seattle and elsewhere have helped reinvigorate the Left with the reply another world is possible More than anyone else it was Marx who showed that slogans such as this were no utopian fantasies and that capitalism was just as much a historical mode of production no more natural and certainly no less contradictory than were the feudal and slave modes which proceeded it Paul Blackledge opens this study with a defence of the Marxist approach to the study of history against what he argues as being the naive empiricism of traditional historians and the relativism of the postmodernists He moves on to outline Marx and Engels analyses of concrete historical processes and their critiques of the alternative historiographic methodologies of their contemporaries He then discusses neglected historical works produced by Marxists in the half century or so after Marx and Engels deaths Two central chapters survey recent Marxist debates on first the nature of modes of productions including slave feudal and tributary systems and the revolutionary transitions between them and second the methodological debate over the issue of structure and agency in the movement of history Finally he shows the political relevance of these debates through a concluding survey of competing Marxist attempts to periodise the present postmodern conjuncture This book should be read by historians students of cultural social and political theory and anti capitalist activists

Dialectics of Human Nature in Marx's Philosophy M. The Muse of History and the Science of Culture Robert L. Carneiro, 2007-05-08 Is history more than in Boswell s words a chronological series of remarkable events Does it have a pattern Is it fraught with meaning Can we discern its trends What determines its course In short can a substantial and coherent philosophy of history be devised that offers answers to these questions These issues which have intrigued and bedeviled historians for centuries are explored in this thoughtful book

Freedom and Consumerism Mark Davis, Zygmunt Bauman, 2008 Mark Davis offers a critical enquiry into the sociology of Zygmunt Bauman focusing on his English language writings from the 1960s onwards The book contributes to sociological debates about modern society by offering an interpretation of Bauman's work b How Revolutionary Were the Bourgeois Revolutions? Neil Davidson, 2012-07-24 An impressive contribution both to the history of ideas and to political philosophy Alasdair MacIntyre author of After Virtue Once of central importance to left historians and activists alike recently the concept of the bourgeois revolution has come in for sustained criticism from both Marxists and conservatives In this magisterial work Neil Davidson offers theoretical and historical insights about the nature of revolutions Through extensive research and comprehensive analysis Davidson demonstrates that what's at stake is far from a stale issue for the history books understanding that these struggles of the past offer far reaching lessons for today's radicals A monumental work Neil Davidson has given us what is easily the most comprehensive account yet of the life and times of the concept of bourgeois revolution and has also provided us with a refined set of theoretical tools for understanding the often complex interactions between political revolutions which overturn state institutions and social revolutions which involve a more thoroughgoing transformation of social relations Colin Mooers author of The Making of Bourgeois Europe Davidson's book is one of immense and impressive erudition His knowledge of the history of Marxist theory and historiography is as detailed as it is comprehensive and must be well nigh unrivalled The endless complex debates that characterize the Marxist tradition are distilled with clarity and illumination Times Literary Supplement A brilliant and fascinating book wide ranging and lucidly written Jairus Banaji author of Theory as History

Reinventing Marxism Howard J. Sherman, 1995-12-02 A re-evaluation of Marxism as an alternative to pro capitalist perspectives Progress Unchained Peter J. Bowler, 2021-03-04 Progress Unchained reinterprets the history of the idea of progress using parallels between evolutionary biology and changing views of human history Early concepts of progress in both areas saw it as the ascent of a linear scale of development toward a final goal The chain of being defined a hierarchy of living things with humans at the head while social thinkers interpreted history as a development toward a final paradise or utopia Darwinism reconfigured biological progress as a tree of life with multiple lines of advance not necessarily leading to humans each driven by the rare innovations that generate entirely new functions Popular writers such as H G Wells used a similar model to depict human progress with competing technological innovations producing ever more rapid changes in society Bowler shows that as the idea of progress has become open ended and unpredictable a variety of alternative futures have been imagined Negativity and Democracy Vasilis Grollios, 2017-01-12 The current political climate of uncompromising neoliberalism means that the need to study the logic of our culture that is the logic of the capitalist system is compelling Providing a rich philosophical analysis of democracy from a negative non identity dialectical perspective Vasilis Grollios encourages the reader not to think of democracy as a call for a more effective domination of the people or as a demand for the replacement of the elite that currently holds power In doing so he aspires to fill in a gap in the literature by offering an out of the mainstream overview of the key concepts of totality negativity fetishization contradiction identity thinking dialectics and corporeal materialism as they have been employed by the major thinkers of the critical theory tradition Marx Engels Horkheimer Lukacs Adorno Marcuse Bloch and Holloway Their thinking had the following common keywords contradiction fetishism as a process and the notion of spell and all its implications The author makes an innovative attempt to bring these concepts to light in terms of their practical relevance for contemporary democratic theory As Radical as Reality Itself Matthew Beaumont,2007 This collection of essays by a number of established scholars and artists proposes new directions for Marxist cultural theory and the criticism of modern visual culture It addresses a diverse range of topics including the state and revolution Communist and post Communist aesthetics Situationist thought and the avant garde subjectivity and commodification and the politics and problems of contemporary artistic practice The contributions also consider several other pressing questions in the visual arts from the practice of digital culture to appropriations of critical theory from the relations of art and the spectacle to architecture in the age of global modernity This book on Marxism and art is not offered in a spirit of nostalgia on the contrary it testifies to the continuing vitality and confidence of historical materialist thought in the field of cultural theory and practice in the 21st century A Study of Marx's View of History Xianda Chen,2025-09-30 This book summarizes the process of Marx s foundation of the view of history into two turning points namely from alienation to alienated labor and then from alienated labor to the materialistic view of history Meanwhile this book makes an in depth analysis of the ideas about the materialistic view of history in recent years which is conducive to further clarifying the ideas of Marxist learners and researchers Besides this book on the basis of the human exploration of historical laws analyzes how Marx broke through the limitations of previous historical views and went deep into history that is the process of discovering the laws of history itself thus profoundly revealing the important reference value of Marx s view of history in the transformation of human historical views It is also conducive to building a bridge of communication between Chinese and Western philosophy promoting international exchanges and cooperation and enriching the ideological connotation of contemporary Marxism Marx's Ethics of Freedom George G Brenkert,2013-10-17 This book reveals Marx s moral philosophy and analyzes its nature The author shows that there is an underlying system of ethics which runs the length and breadth of Marx s thought The book begins by discussing the methodological side of Marx s ethics showing how Marx s criticism of conventional morality and his views on historical materialism determinism and ideology are compatible with having an ideological system of his own In the light of contemporary social moral and political philosophy the insights and defects of Marx s major ethical themes are discussed Law, Order and Freedom C.W. Maris,F.C.L.M. Jacobs,2011-09-08 The central question in legal philosophy is the relationship between law and morality The legal systems of many countries around the world have been influenced by the principles of the Enlightenment freedom equality and fraternity The position is similar in relation to the accompanying state ideal of the democratic constitutional state as well as the notion of a welfare state The foundation of these principles lies in the ideal of individual autonomy The law must in this view guarantee a social order which secures the equal freedom of all This freedom is moreover fundamental because in modern pluralistic societies a great diversity of views exist concerning the appropriate way of life This freedom ideal is however also strongly contested In Law Order and Freedom a historical overview is given pertaining to the question of the extent to which the modern Enlightenment values can serve as the universal foundation of law and society Marxism and Morality Nicholas Churchich,2022-01-01 Karl Marx promised in the preface to his Economic and Philosophic Manuscripts of 1844 that he would write an independent pamphlet on ethics Although he never did so in his later writings he discussed morality extensively Later commentators were more concerned with other aspects of Marx's thought and largely neglected this area As a result Nicholas Churchich's exposition of Marx's thoughts on morality has become the standard work on the subject Thoroughly researched well reasoned and balanced in its argument Marxism and Morality presents a comprehensive and critical analysis of Marx's and Engel's ideas on morality and ethics analysing both strengths and weaknesses Churchich examines morality in its bourgeois and proletarian forms the origin and development of moral ideas moral values and standards egoism and altruism He explores the role of religion and science in communist ethics and discusses the ends and means in the struggle for a classless society Praised by those on both sides of the political divide for his objectivity Churchich's approach remains the definitive evaluation of the ethical arguments of Marxism Paulin Hountondji and the Science Question in Africa Zeyad el Nabolsy,2025-07-18 This book offers a systematic reconstruction of Paulin Hountondji's contributions to the debate about the place of modern science on the African continent The book shows that Hountondji develops an account of modern science that is sociologically sensitive to the entanglement between modern science and colonialism on the African continent without falling into epistemic relativism about the claims of modern science It is argued that Hountondji's views on modern science express a strong historical materialist influence and that he develops a theory of science that draws both on the Hessen Grossmann hypothesis and dependency theory Thus this book brings together two strands of historical materialist thought about science that have hitherto been isolated from one another This book is of interest to scholars who specialize in African philosophy history and philosophy of science global philosophy and African studies A Contemporary History of Marx's Capital Paolo Favilli,2025-09-03 Paolo Favilli provides both students and scholars with an original reading of themes and issues found in Karl Marx's Das Kapital and its connections with present day challenges By way of continuous cross referencing between present and past Favilli demonstrates claims that the scientific status of Das Kapital advanced by countless texts since its original publication are themselves deeply imbued by the spirit of the times If in 1963 Jean Paul Sartre could write that Marxism was the unsurpassable philosophical horizon of our times what could make an undergraduate student today consider such a claim plausible Informed by the latest research on Marxist theory and decades teaching the Philosophy of History Favilli employs a didactic approach stimulating student engagement and learning opportunities in the classroom This approach allows for a better understanding of relationship between the present and the multiple temporalities that characterise and periodise the contemporary era What follows is a critique of the contemporary academy for its hangover of post 1989 nuovismo cult of novelty and inability to make the proper distinctions between Marxism as party state the works of Karl Marx and Marxism as an object of history This led to the spectacle where after 1989 those who had spent most of their careers as Marxist hued scholars not only abandoned this identity but also spurned any recognition that Marx and Marxism were worthwhile objects of inquiry This book was first published in Italian as A proposito de Il capitale Il lungo presente e I miei studenti Corso di storia contemporanea Milan FrancoAngeli 2021 This English translation includes a new foreword by the author Sociological Interpretations of Education David Blackledge, Barry Hunt, 2019-08-13 This book first published in 1985 provides a clear readable account of the principal sociological approaches to education It is organised around the three main sociological perspectives on education the Durkheimian and Functionalist the Marxist and the Interpretative It concentrates on the most important and interesting writers within each The Theology of the Cross and Marx's Anthropology Winston D. Persaud, 2005-09-13 This is a fascinating major articulation of a contemporary theology of the cross in response to the soteriological challenge of Karl Marx's anthropological Weltanschauung The author focuses primarily on the much neglected Early Writings 1844 Manuscripts in which Marx himself provides a necessary humanistic critique of official Marxism The theology of the cross which the author articulates is centered in Luther's theologia crucis Moltmann's crucified God and Latin American liberation theology's divine identification and solidarity with the poor and oppressed Specifically the context of the work is the Caribbean and the Americas Marxism and the Interpretation of Culture Cary Nelson, Lawrence Grossberg, 1988 This title provides a picture of the state of Marxist thinking It aims to provoke a debate that will be of interest to those concerned with the status and development of Marxism and also to theorists in all fields of the human sciences
