Freedom And Orthodoxy Islam And Difference In The Post Andalusian Age:

Freedom and Orthodoxy Anouar Majid, 2022 This book argues that the clash of civilizations that is supposed to be a feature of the post Cold War environment is not necessarily caused by the dogma of world religions or cultural incompatibilities but by the inflexible and hegemonic universalisms that have characterized world history since 1492 a cultural outlook that Majid terms post Andalusianism The all encompassing worldviews of Euro American ideologies have resulted in the retreat of Islam and other non European traditions into dangerous orthodoxies and a growing climate of suspicion fear and terror Freedom and Orthodoxy offers an alternative to perennial discord suggesting that the world needs a philosophy of the provincial one that reattaches individuals and societies to their heritages and memories but connects them to the rest of the world in solid non alienating meaningful ways For this to happen Majid contends globalization must be reimagined as a network of human solidarities and rigorous conversations across the world s multiple cultures not as a mechanical process of economic expansionism

Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana, 2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf

Muslims in the Western Imagination Sophia Rose Arjana, 2015-01-02 Through an exhaustive survey of medieval early modern and contemporary literature art and cinema Sophia Rose Arjana examines the dehumanizing ways in which Muslim men have been constructed and represented as monsters

Iberian Moorings Ross Brann, 2021-05-28 To Christians the Iberian Peninsula was Hispania to Muslims al Andalus and to Jews Sefarad As much as these were all names given to the same real place the names also constituted ideas and like all ideas they have histories of their own To some al Andalus and Sefarad were the subjects of conventional expressions of attachment to and pride in homeland of the universal sort displayed in other Islamic lands and Jewish communities but other Muslim and Jewish political literary and religious actors variously developed the notion that al

Andalus or Sefarad its inhabitants and their culture were exceptional and destined to play a central role in the history of their peoples In Iberian Moorings Ross Brann traces how al Andalus and Sefarad were invested with special political cultural and historical significance across the Middle Ages This is the first work to analyze the tropes of Andalus and Sefardi exceptionalism in comparative perspective Brann focuses on the social power of these tropes in Andalus Islamic and Sefardi Jewish cultures from the tenth through the twelfth century and reflects on their enduring influence and its expressions in scholarship literature and film down to the present day

The Afterlife of al-Andalus Christina Civantos, 2017-11-21 The first study to undertake a wide ranging comparison of invocations of al Andalus across the Arab and Hispanic worlds Around the globe concerns about interfaith relations have led to efforts to find earlier models in Muslim Iberia al Andalus This book examines how Muslim Iberia operates as an icon or symbol of identity in twentieth and twenty first century narrative drama television and film from the Arab world Spain and Argentina Christina Civantos demonstrates how cultural agents in the present ascribe importance to the past and how dominant accounts of this importance are contested Civantos s analysis reveals that alongside established narratives that use al Andalus to create exclusionary imperial identities there are alternate discourses about the legacy of al Andalus that rewrite the traditional narratives In the process these discourses critique their imperial and gendered dimensions and pursue intercultural translation

The Dialectics of Orientalism in Early Modern Europe Marcus Keller, Javier Irigoyen-García, 2017-11-09 Uniting twelve original studies by scholars of early modern history literature and the arts this collection is the first that foregrounds the dialectical quality of early modern Orientalism by taking a broad interdisciplinary perspective Dialectics of Orientalism demonstrates how texts and images of the sixteenth and seventeenth century from across Europe and the New World are better understood as part of a dynamic and transformative orientalist discourse rather than a manifestation of the supposed dichotomy between the East and the West The volume s central claim is that early modern orientalist discourses are fundamentally open self critical and creative Analyzing a varied corpus from German and Dutch travelogues to Spanish humanist treatises French essays Flemish paintings and English diaries this collection thus breathes fresh air into the critique of Orientalism and provides productive new perspectives for the study of east west and indeed globalized exchanges in the early modern world

Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Warren Crichlow, 2013-05-13 This stunning new edition retains the book s broad aims intended audience and multidisciplinary approach New chapters take into account the more current backdrop of globalization particularly events such as 9 11 and attendant developments that make a reconsideration of race relations in education quite urgent

Observing the Observer Zahid Bukhari, Sulayman Nyang, 2012-01-01 THE collection of papers in this volume documents the study of Islam in American Universities Over the last few decades the United States has seen significant growth in the study of Islam and Islamic societies in institutions of higher learning fueled primarily by events including economic relations of the U S with Muslim countries migration of Muslims into the country conversion of Americans to Islam U S interests in Arab oil resources involvement of Muslims in the American public square and the tragic events of 9 11 Although there is increasing recognition that the study of Islam and the role of Muslims is strategically essential in a climate of global integration multiculturalism and political turmoil nevertheless the state of Islamic Studies in America is far from satisfactory The issue needs to be addressed particularly as the need for intelligent debate and understanding is continuously stifled by what some have termed an Islam industry run primarily by fly by journalists think tank pundits and cut and paste experts The Star, the Cross, and the Crescent Carine Bourget, 2011-12-19 The Star the Cross and the Crescent analyzes fiction films comics autobiographical narratives and essays by Francophone Arab writers whose Christian Accad Antaki Ch did Maalouf Jewish Albou Cixous El Maleh Memmi Muslim Bachi Bena ssa Benguigui Ben Jelloun Boudjedra Boudjellal Meddeb Mimouni and secular Sebbar backgrounds are emblematic of the diversity of the Francophone Arab world It examines how these writers represent the intertwining of religion and politics against the backdrop of the current international political context and the resurgence of religion Focusing on a series of disputes commonly framed in religious terms with Islam as the common denominator for all the Arab Israeli conflict the Lebanese and the Algerian civil wars the affair of the Muslim headscarf in France and 9 11 this book questions the effectiveness of the Francophone studies model in providing insights into the complexity of the Islamic Revival The study concludes by unpacking the influence of politics on the translation of these works in the U S It brings heightened awareness to the modalities according to which a creative work can serve as a cultural mediator The New Diaspora and the Global Prophetic Susanne Scholz, Santiago Slabodsky, 2021-05-06 For four decades Marc H Ellis has sought to rethink the Jewish tradition in light of the prophetic imperative especially with regard to the need for geopolitical justice in the context of Israel Palestine Here twenty two contributors offer intellectual theological political and journalistic insight into Ellis s work connecting his theological scholarship to the particularities of their own contexts Some contributors reflect specifically on Israel Palestine while others transfer Ellis s theopolitical discussions to other geopolitical cultural or religious concerns Yet all of them rely on Ellis s work to understand the connections of prophetic discourses religious demands social movements and projects of social justice Paying particular attention to global racism sexism ethnocentrism white supremacy and current neocolonial practices the contributors also address minoritized liberation theologies the role of memory exile and forgiveness biblical hermeneutics and political thought In diverse and powerful ways the contributors ground their scholarship with the activist drive to deepen enrich and strengthen intellectual work in meaningful ways Mutual Othering Ahmed Idrissi Alami, 2013-07-01 Explores interactions between Europeans and Moroccans on both sides of the straits in the latter half of the nineteenth century For the first time readings of Moroccan travel writing in Arabic are juxtaposed with French and British writing about Morocco in a critical exploration of nineteenth century concepts of modernity Ahmed Idrissi Alami investigates the complex dynamics concerning colonial expansion military conflict and societal values Mutual Othering sets out to rethink generally accepted concepts of European modernity by critically examining its production and contestation within a subaltern context in which the native other in this case religious scholars or imams accompanying political missions to Paris and London presents aspects of European culture to elite members of the Moroccan imperial court This work also connects the arguments of these texts to the rethinking of tradition and modernity the rhetoric of reform democracy and the Arab state and the compatibility of Islam with the West and secular values in the post 9 11 world The inclusion of citations in the original French and Arabic alongside English translations allows a range of readers to enjoy this critical addition to the fields of literature travel writing North African studies history international relations and philosophy as well as cultural and religious studies
