Levine,2007-04-27 When Black Culture and Black Consciousness first appeared thirty years ago it marked a revolution in our understanding of African American history Contrary to prevailing ideas at the time which held that African culture disappeared quickly under slavery and that black Americans had little group pride history or cohesiveness Levine uncovered a cultural treasure trove illuminating a rich and complex African American oral tradition including songs proverbs jokes folktales and long narrative poems called toasts work that dated from before and after emancipation The fact that these ideas and sources seem so commonplace now is in large part due this book and the scholarship that followed in its wake A landmark work that was part of the cultural turn in American history Black Culture and Black Consciousness profoundly influenced an entire generation of historians and continues to be read and taught For this anniversary reissue Levine wrote a new preface reflecting on the writing of the book and its place within intellectual trends in African American and American cultural history Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture

Helena Feder,2016-04-29 Ecocriticism and the Idea of Culture Biology and the Bildungsroman draws on work by Kinji Imanishi Frans de Waal and other biologists to create an interdisciplinary materialist notion of culture for ecocritical analysis In this timely intervention Feder examines the humanist idea of culture by taking a fresh look at the stories it explicitly tells about itself These stories fall into the genre of the Bildungsroman the tale of individual acculturation that participates in the myth of its complete separation from and opposition to nature which Feder argues is culture s own origin story Moving from Voltaire s Candide to Mary Shelley s Frankenstein and from Virginia Woolf s Orlando to Jamaica Kincaid s Lucy the book dramatizes humanism s own awareness of the fallacy of this foundational binary In the final chapters Feder examines the discourse of animality at work in this narrative as a humanist fantasy about empathy one that paradoxically excludes other animals from the ethical community to justify the continued domination of both human and nonhuman others
