Handbook of Citizenship Studies Engin F Isin,Bryan S Turner,2002 The contributions of Woodiwiss Lister and Sassen are outstanding but not unrepresentative of the many merits of this excellent collection The British Journal of Sociology From women s rights civil rights and sexual rights for gays and lesbians to disability rights and language rights we have experienced in the past few decades a major trend in Western nation states towards new claims for inclusion This trend has echoed around the world from the Zapatistas to Chechen and Kurdish nationalists social and political movements are framing their struggles in the languages of rights and recognition and hence of citizenship Citizenship has thus become an increasingly important axis in the social sciences Social scientists have been rethinking the role of political agent or subject Not only are the rights and obligations of citizens being redefined but also what it means to be a citizen has become an issue of central concern As the process of globalization produces multiple diasporas we can expect increasingly complex relationships between homeland and host societies that will make the traditional idea of national citizenship problematic As societies are forced to manage cultural difference and associated tensions and conflict there will be changes in the processes by which states allocate citizenship and a differentiation of the category of citizen This book constitutes the most authoritative and comprehensive guide to the terrain Drawing on a wealth of interdisciplinary knowledge and including some of the leading commentators of the day it is an essential guide to understanding modern citizenship About the editors Engin F Isin is Associate Professor of Social Science at York University His recent works include Being Political Genealogies of Citizenship Minnesota 2002 and with P K Wood Citizenship and Identity Sage 1999 He is the Managing Editor of Citizenship Studies Bryan S Turner is Professor of Sociology at the University of Cambridge He has written widely on the sociology of citizenship in Citizenship and Capitalism Unwin Hyman 1986 and Citizenship and Social Theory Sage 1993 He is also the author of The Body and Society Sage 1996 and Classical Sociology Sage 1999 and has been editor of Citizenship Studies since 1997 Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print 1988 R. Action S. Hook, W. O'Neill, R. O'Toole, 2012-12-06 Two articles by Lewis Feuer caught my attention in the 40s when I was wondering as a student physicist about the relations of physics to philosophy and to the world in turmoil One was his essay on The Development of Logical Empiricism 1941 and the other his critical review of Philipp Frank's biography of Einstein Philosophy and the Theory of Relativity 1947 How extraordinary it was to find so intelligent independent critical and humane a mind and furthermore he went further as I soon realized when I looked for his name on other publications I recall arguing with myself over his exploration of Indeterminacy and Economic Development 1948 and even more when I read his Dialectical Materialism and Soviet Science 1949 More papers and then the fascinating sometimes irritating always insightful books His monograph on Psychoanalysis and Ethics 1955 the beautiful sociological and humanist study of Spinoza and the Rise of Liberalism 1958 his essays on The Social Roots of Einstein's Theory of Relativity 1971 together with the book on

Einstein and the Generations of Science 1974 the splendid reader from the works of Marx and Engels Basic Writings on Politics and Philosophy 1959 which was a major text of the 60s the stimulating essays on the social formation which seems to have been required for a modern scientific movement to develop set forth most convincingly in The Scientific Intellectual 1963

Reconstructing the Authoritarian State in Africa George Kiehl, Jr., Pita Agbese, 2013-10-01 This work seeks to examine the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa and to suggest ways in which the states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted In 1990 a wave of euphoria greeted the third wave of democratization that swept across the African Continent The repression wearied subalterns were hopeful that the third wave would have set into motion the process of democratically reconstituting the authoritarian state on the continent More than two decades thereafter although some progress has been made by and large the authoritarian state remains the dominant construct in the region Even in some of the countries in which democratic transitions have taken place the process of democratic consolidation remains an elusive quest as these states are sandwiched between authoritarianism and democracy Against this background the purpose of this book is to examine the travails of the authoritarian state in Africa including the Herculean task to democratically reconstruct it In order to do this six of Africa's perennial authoritarian states Cameroon the Democratic Republic of the Congo Egypt Liberia Rwanda and Uganda are used as the case studies The book has two major objectives First the various chapters probe the nature and dynamics of authoritarianism in Africa Second the chapters suggest ways in which the various authoritarian states covered in the book can be democratically reconstituted

On Measuring Democracy Alex Inkeles, 2017-07-05 This book focuses on measuring democratic political systems as such and is concerned more with the consequences and concomitants of political democracy in cross national research It examines the sequences and dynamics of political change between 1800 and 1986
