Breaking the Glass Armor Kristin Thompson, 2020-05-05 Classical works have for us become covered with the glassy armor of familiarity wrote Victor Shklovsky in 1914 Here Kristin Thompson defamiliarizes the reader with eleven different films Developing the technique formulated in her Eisenstein s Ivan the Terrible Princeton 1981 she clearly demonstrates the flexibility of the neoformalist approach She argues that critics often use cut and dried methods and choose films that easily fit those methods Neoformalism on the other hand encourages the critic to deal with each film differently and to modify his or her analytical assumptions continually Thompson s analyses are thus refreshingly varied and revealing ranging from an ordinary Hollywood film Terror by Night to such masterpieces as Late Spring and Lancelot du Lac She proposes a formal historical way of dealing with realism using Bicycle Thieves and The Rules of the Game as examples Stage Fright and Laura provide cases in which the classical cinema defamiliarizes its own conventions by playing with audience expectations Other chapters deal with Tati s Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Play Time and Godard s Tout va bien and Sauve qui peut la vie Although neoformalist analysis is a rigorous distinctive approach it avoids extensive specialized vocabulary and esoteric concepts the essays here can be read separately by those interested in the individual films The book s overall purpose however goes beyond making these particular films more accessible and intriguing to propose new ways of looking at cinema as a whole French Culture, 1900-1975 Catharine Savage Brosman, Tom Conley, 1995 Discusses the history politics art architecture dance music cinema literature theater newspapers places philosophy and popular culture of France from 1900 to 1975 The Films of Jean-Luc Godard Wheeler W. Reframing remembrance Lisa Harper Campbell, 2021-11-09 Reframing remembrance examines films about the Nazi Occupation of France charting how this period has been commemorated and how it has affected the articulation of French national identity The book proposes that 1995 marked the beginning of a new approach to commemoration reflected by socio political acts such as Jacques Chirac's July 1995 V l d Hiv speech and artistic acts most notably films set during the Occupation This is an approach that embraces critical engagement with history and its retelling With relevance to countries beyond France and events far removed from the Second World War Reframing remembrance highlights the need for ongoing honest remembrance and self reflection as cultural representations of history continue to shape contemporary views about nations identities and their global responsibilities

Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 2018-05-18 With a new introduction acclaimed director and screenwriter Paul Schrader revisits and updates his contemplation of slow cinema over the past fifty years Unlike the style of psychological realism which dominates film the transcendental style expresses a spiritual state by means of austere camerawork acting devoid of self consciousness and editing that avoids editorial comment This seminal text analyzes the film style of three great directors Yasujiro Ozu Robert Bresson and Carl Dreyer and posits a common dramatic language used by these artists from divergent cultures The new edition updates Schrader s theoretical framework and extends his theory to the works of Andrei Tarkovsky Russia B la Tarr Hungary Theo Angelopoulos Greece and Nuri Bilge Ceylan Turkey among others This key work by one of our most searching directors and writers is widely cited and used in film and art classes With evocative prose and nimble associations Schrader consistently urges readers and viewers alike to keep exploring the world of the art film The Film Anthologies Index
