French Hegel From Surrealism To Postmodernism:

French Hegel Bruce Baugh, 2014-01-21 This highly original history of ideas considers the impact of Hegel on French philosophy from the 1920s to the present As Baugh's lucid narrative makes clear Hegel's influence on French philosophy has been profound and can be traced through all the major intellectual movements and thinkers in France throughout the 20th Century from Jean Wahl Sartre and Bataille to Foucault Deleuze and Derrida Baugh focuses on Hegel's idea of the unhappy consciousness and provides a bold new account of Hegel's early reception in French intellectual history

The Relevance of Hegel's Concept of Philosophy Luca Illetterati, Giovanna Miolli, 2021-12-16 In a systematic treatment of Hegel's concept of philosophy and all of the different aspects related to it this collection explores how Hegel and his understanding of his discipline can be put into dialogue with current metaphilosophical inquiries and shed light on the philosophical examination of the nature of philosophy itself Taking into account specific aspects of Hegel's elaboration on philosophy such the scientificity of philosophy as a self grounding rational process and his explanation of the relationship between philosophy and the history of philosophy an international line up of contributors consider Hegel's concept of philosophy in general from skepticism idealism history and difference to time politics and religion The relation of Hegel's concept of philosophy to other philosophical traditions and philosophers including Kant Fichte Schelling and Jacobi Hegel's concept of philosophy with reference to philosophy's relation to other forms of rationality and disciplines The relation of Hegel's concept of philosophy to specific issues in present metaphilosophical debates Reflecting the renewed and widespread interest in Hegel seen in Analytic philosophy and Continental thought this volume advances study of Hegel's conceptual tools and provides new readings of traditional philosophical problems

Hegel and Schelling in Early Nineteenth-Century France Kirill Chepurin, Adi Eyal-Lautenschläger, Daniel Whistler, Ayşe Yuva, 2023-11-29 Hegel and Schelling in Early Nineteenth Century France is a two volume work that documents the French reception of G W F Hegel and F W J Schelling from 1801 to 1848 It shows that the story of the French Hegel didn't begin with Wahl and Kojve by giving readers a solid understanding of the various ways in which German Idealism impacted nineteenth century French philosophy as well as providing the first ever English language translations of excerpts from the most important philosophical texts of the era Inside volume one readers will find a number of interpretative frameworks to help them get to grips with this neglected field in the history of ideas In addition to excerpted translations and a narrative of Hegel's and Schelling's fate in France during the early nineteenth century this volume includes an introduction on transnational reception history as well as an analytical catalogue of the translations of their work produced in French at this time of the publications which appropriated or interrogated their philosophical legacy and of the journals institutional structures and other mechanisms of dissemination that brought Hegel's and Schelling's philosophy into France The book thus details the ways in which French philosophers of the period took up the debates and concepts of German Idealism transformed them or rejected them In this way it aims to contribute to a reversal of the serious neglect of early nineteenth century French thought in English language scholarship and in so doing goes beyond a nation based narrative of the history of philosophy Figures covered in the volumes include major philosophers such as Cousin Leroux Proudhon Quinet Ravaisson Renouvier and V ra as well as more neglected figures like Barchou de Penho n B nard L bre Lerminier Pictet and Willm Louis Althusser and the Traditions of French Marxism William Lewis,2005-10-17 Throughout the course of the twentieth century communism has enjoyed direct competition with all other governmental and economic systems Often communist countries produced their own special brand of party intellectual These figures rightly occupied their place within their own national context and within the context of the International Some communist intellectuals through the high level of erudition exhibited in their writing have received a wider reception despite their direct linkage to party politics e g Antonio Gramsci Georg Lukacs and Victor Serge are good examples After 1956 when Krushchev exposed Stalin s atrocities to the Twentieth Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and as a result to the entire world Marxist philosophy was widely discredited It had been assumed that Stalin s excesses were somehow encouraged or supported through Marx s thought When in the mid 1960s Louis Althusser first offered his re readings of Marx s philosophy it and communist political practice were in ruin However Althusser was in a unique cultural and historical position Thinking and writing concomitant with the structuralists and poststructuralists in France and also having access to certain theoretical tools while simultaneously committing himself entirely to Marxist thought Althusser was conceivably the last of his tradition He was a Marxist philosopher who unlike Sartre at the end of his life did not abandon communism to for instance existentialism In Louis Althusser and the Traditions of French Marxism William Lewis gives readers a striking example of intellectual biography and critical theory His approach considering the work and life of Althusser within French Marxism and French intellectual culture fills a void in contemporary scholarship But much more importantly Lewis is able to show how Althusser s thought is the result of and a response to specific French intellectual and political traditions of reading Marx It is through this combination of concerns An Atheism that Is Not Humanist Emerges in French Thought Stefanos Geroulanos,2010-03-08 French philosophy changed dramatically in the second quarter of the twentieth century In the wake of World War I and later the Nazi and Soviet disasters major philosophers such as Koj ve Levinas Heidegger Koyr Sartre Merleau Ponty and Hyppolite argued that man could no longer fill the void left by the death of God without also calling up the worst in human history and denigrating the dignity of the human subject In response they contributed to a new belief that man should no longer be viewed as the basis for existence thought and ethics rather human nature became dependent on other concepts and structures including Being language thought and culture This argument which was to be paramount for existentialism and structuralism came to dominate postwar thought This intellectual history of these developments argues that at their heart lay a new atheism that rejected humanism as insufficient and ultimately violent Deleuze and the Problem of Experience Dror Yinon,2025-07-24 This comprehensive reframing of Gilles Deleuze as a transcendental empiricist delves into his seminal Difference and Repetition to unearth a system that inverts the Kantian worldview. By focusing on Deleuze's theory of the faculties we can see how he builds a transcendental system of thought that defies the predictability of empirical experience. The place of experience in the way we understand our relation to the world to others and to ourselves is a central theme of modern philosophy. Deleuze's transcendental empiricism points to an unexplored direction in this major philosophical preoccupation. It is a road not taken that against the tide of his times rejected the possibility of an immediate contact with being and embraced the possibility of reaching a real that lay beneath many layers of mediation. Unlike many of his contemporaries, Deleuze neither subscribed to a specific philosophical school nor did he try to establish one. This new understanding of him as a transcendental empiricist not only helps to situate his work in the constellation of twentieth-century French philosophers but also helps us to understand a philosopher for whom difference and heterogeneity were central to his own philosophical corpus.

Understanding Hegelianism Robert Sinnerbrink, 2014-12-05 Understanding Hegelianism explores the ways in which Hegelian and anti-Hegelian currents of thought have shaped some of the most significant movements in twentieth-century European philosophy, particularly the traditions of critical theory, existentialism, Marxism, and poststructuralism. The first part of the book examines Kierkegaard's existentialism and Marx's materialism, which present two defining poles of subsequent Hegelian and anti-Hegelian movements. The second part looks at the contrasting critiques of Hegel by Lukács and Heidegger, which set the stage for the appropriation of Hegelian themes in German critical theory and the anti-Hegelian turn in French poststructuralism. The role of Hegelian themes in the work of Adorno, Habermas, and Honneth are explored. In the third part, the rich tradition of Hegelianism in modern French philosophy is considered, with the work of Wahl, Kojève, Hyppolite, Lefebvre, Sartre, and de Beauvoir as well as the radical critique of Hegelianism articulated by Derrida and Deleuze. Although the focus is primarily on German and French appropriations of Hegelian thought, the author also explores some of the recent developments in Anglophone Hegelianism.

The Oxford Handbook of Modern French Philosophy, 2024-06-25 French philosophy is an internationally celebrated national philosophical tradition, and this Oxford Handbook offers a comprehensive approach to its history since 1800. The Handbook features essays written by renowned international specialists illuminating key movements and positions, themes, and thinkers in nineteenth, twentieth, and even twenty-first-century French philosophy. The volume takes into account developments in recent historical scholarship by broadening the notion of Modern French Philosophy in two ways. Whereas recent approaches in the field have often ignored early nineteenth-century developments, this volume offers comprehensive treatment of French thought of this period in order to grasp better later developments. Moreover, the volume extends the canon at the other end of the period of Modern French Philosophy by including work on philosophers who have come to prominence only in the last ten or twenty years. The volume takes French philosophy in a broad sense to include all philosophy carried out in France over the last 200 years, and it illuminates the institutional and cultural background of this national philosophical tradition in such a way as to provide a fuller and more comprehensive understanding of its unity and of its more famous moments in the twentieth century

Women and the Gift Morny Joy, 2013-09-17 Recent inquiries into the concept of the gift have been largely male dominated and thus have ignored important aspects of the gift from a woman's point of view In the light of philosophical work by Mauss, Lévi-Strauss, Derrida and Bataille Women and the Gift reflects how women respond to the notion of the gift and relationships of giving This collection evaluates and critiques previous work on the gift and also responds to how women view care, fidelity, generosity, trust and independence in light of the gift

Existential Monday Benjamin Fondane, 2016-05-17 Benjamin Fondane who was born and educated in Romania, moved as an adult to Paris, lived for a time in Buenos Aires where he was close to Victoria Ocampo, Jorge Luis Borges's friend and publisher and died in Auschwitz was an artist and thinker who found in every limit, in every border, a torture and a spur Poet, critic, man of the theater, movie director, Fondane was the most daring of the existentialists, a metaphysical anarchist affirming individual against those great abstractions that limit human freedom: the State, History, the Law, the Idea. Existential Monday, the first selection of his philosophical work to appear in English, includes four of Fondane's most thought-provoking and important texts: Existential Monday and the Sunday of History, Preface for the Present Moment, Man Before History, co-translated by Andrew Rubens and Boredom Here. Fondane, until now little known except to specialists, emerges as one of the enduring French philosophers of the twentieth century

Brill's Companion to Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry, 2022-12-28 Brill's Companion to Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry explores the relations between antiquity and modernity from the angle of the reception of Graeco-Roman antiquity in modern world poetry In an innovative combination of the fields of Classical Reception and World Literature, it tackles ever-challenging questions which are central to both fields, such as the questions of literature and identity, specificity and universality, Eurocentrism, poetics and translation Leading experts from both Classics and Modern Languages contribute 11 chapters on modern poetry and poets from different linguistic and cultural traditions from around the world

The Sartrean Mind Matthew C. Eshleman, Constance L. Mui, 2020-01-24 Jean-Paul Sartre was one of the most important philosophers of the twentieth century His influence extends beyond academic philosophy to areas as diverse as anti-colonial movements, youth culture, literary criticism and artistic developments around the world Beginning with an introduction and biography of Jean-Paul Sartre by Matthew C. Eshleman, 42 chapters by a team of international contributors cover all the major aspects of Sartre's thought in the following key areas: Sartre's philosophical and historical context; Sartre and phenomenology; Sartre, existentialism and ontology; Sartre and ethics; Sartre and political theory; Aesthetics, literature and biography; Sartre's engagements with other thinkers The Sartrean Mind is the most comprehensive collection on Sartre published to date It is essential reading for students and researchers in philosophy as well as for those in related disciplines where Sartre's work has continuing importance, such as literature, French studies and politics

Beauvoir in Time Meryl Altman, 2020-11-23 Beauvoir in Time situates Simone de Beauvoir's The Second Sex in the historical context of its writing and in later contexts of its international reception from then till now The book takes up three aspects of Beauvoir's work more recent feminists find embarrassing bad sex dated views about lesbians and intersections with race and class Through close reading of Beauvoir's writing in many genres alongside contemporaneous discourses good and bad novels in French and English outmoded psychoanalytic and sexological authorities ethnographic surrealism the writing of Richard Wright and Franz Fanon and in light of her travels to the U S and China the author uncovers insights more recent feminist methodologies obscure showing that Beauvoir is still good to think with today Understanding Badiou, Understanding Modernism Arka Chattopadhyay, Arthur Rose, 2024-05-16 In his philosophical project aesthetic orientation and political leanings Alain Badiou is a product of and a leading advocate for European modernism From the milieu of May 1968 to the contemporary postmodern ethos Badiou returns time and again to avant garde modernist texts aesthetic political philosophical and scientific as inspiration for his response to present situations Drawing upon disciplines as varied as architecture cinema theatre music history mathematics poetry and philosophy Understanding Badiou Understanding Modernism shows how Badiou's contribution to philosophy must be understood within the context of his decades long conversation with modernist thinking As with other volumes in the series Understanding Badiou Understanding Modernism follows a three part structure The first section explores Badiou's readings of aesthetic political and scientific modernities both introducing his system and pointing to how Badiou offers manifold readings of modernism The middle portion of the book connects Badiou's thought with the various strands of aesthetic philosophical amorous and political modernisms in relation to which it can be extended The final section is a glossary of key concepts and categories that Badiou uses in his interface with modernism Deleuze and the Passions Ceciel Meiborg (Ed.), Sjoerd van Tuinen, 2016 In recent years the humanities social sciences and neuroscience have witnessed an affective turn especially in discourses around post Fordist labor economic and ecological crises populism and identity politics mental health and political struggle This new awareness would be unthinkable without the pioneering work of Gilles Deleuze who replaced judgment with affect as the very material movement of thought every concept is an affective experience a becoming Besides entirely active affects the highest practice of thought there is no thought without passive affects or passions Instead of a calm and rational philosophy of passions Deleuzian thought is therefore inseparable from isolated and passionate cries that deny what everybody knows and what nobody can deny every true thought is an aggression This inseparability of reason and passion is by no means an anti intellectualist or irrationalist stance Rather it is critical since it protects reason from its self imposed stupidity by relating it to the unthought forces that condition it And it is clinical because thought becomes possessed by a power of selection The purely active i.e. free floating unrecorded desire is never enough to produce a consistent relation to the future which is why we need the passions to give us an initial orientation to force and enable us to think Passions are the beliefs perceptions representations and opinions that attach us to the world they make up the very material of which our lives and thoughts are composed Instead of truth as the ultimate criterion of judgment the only principle according to which affective becomings can be selected and evaluated is the extent to which they proliferate joy Spinoza and Marx show how the recruitment of desire traditionally takes place through the tyrants and priests who inspire sad passions in us Similarly the work of Deleuze and Guattari on capitalism and schizophrenia can be read as an encyclopedia of the passions that constitute the affective infrastructure of the socius of contemporary capitalism If it takes a lot of inventiveness or imagination to be able to diagnose our present becomings this is because becomings are always composites of joyful and sad passions Capitalism could not exist if it did not also inspire happiness love courage and perhaps even beatitude That is why today we witness the spectacle of the happily dominated Frédéric Lordon of the self entrepreneur the managerial class the flex worker the citizen consumer the bean roasting hipster and the self managed team It is within this field of contradictory and heterogeneous passions that the authors of this volume pursue the diagnosis of our past and present becomings Their contributions add up to a systematic taxonomy of the passions and indicate their importance for a thinking that reaches beyond itself
