French Painting:

A Concise History of French Painting Edward Lucie-Smith, 1978      Canvases and Careers Harrison C.

White, Cynthia A. White, 1965 In the nineteenth century the Académie des Beaux Arts and institution of central importance to the artistic life of France for over two hundred years yielded much of its power to the present system of art distribution which is dependent upon critics, dealers and small exhibitions. In Canvases and Careers Harrison and Cynthia White examine in scrupulous and fascinating detail how and why this shift occurred. Assimilating a wide range of historical and sociological data, the authors argue convincingly that the Academy, by neglecting to address the social and economic conditions of its time, undermined its own ability to maintain authority and control. Originally published in 1965, this ground-breaking work is a classic piece of empirical research in the sociology of art. In this edition, Harrison C. White's new Foreword compares the marketing approaches of two contemporary painters, while Cynthia A. White's new Afterword reviews recent scholarship in the field.

French Painting in the Seventeenth Century Alain Mérot, 1995-01-01 Recent studies and exhibitions combined with the discovery of work by hitherto little-known artists have enabled Mérot to take a fresh look at the period and to suggest a new configuration. The great names of the period—Poussin, Vouet, Le Sueur, de La Tour, Mignard—are located in relation to other developments. Mérot includes discussion of the impact of contemporary literature and political, philosophical and social influences. The foundation of the Royal Academy of Painting in 1648 and the influence of Mazarin on artistic developments are considered with other issues of status, patronage and connoisseurship. The book provides a panorama of the period; the text is profusely illustrated in colour and accompanied by a comprehensive bibliography.

French Painting Sergei Mikhaïlovich Daniël', 1996 The Russians have loved and admired French art since its first flowering after the Renaissance. This selection represents the most representative works of the French masters in the 500 years during which French painting dominated the art world.

France in the Golden Age Pierre Rosenberg, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 1982      French Paintings in The Metropolitan Museum of Art from the Early Eighteenth Century through the Revolution Katharine Baetjer, 2019-04-15 This publication catalogues The Met's remarkable collection of eighteenth-century French paintings in the context of the powerful institutions that governed the visual arts of the time: the Académie Royale de Peinture et de Sculpture, the Académie de France à Rome and the Paris Salon. At the height of their authority during the eighteenth century, these institutions nurtured the talents of artists in all genres. The Met's collection encompasses stunning examples of work by leading artists of the period, including Antoine Watteau, Mezzetin, Jean-Siméon Chardin, The Silver Tureen, François Boucher, The Toilette of Venus, Joseph Siffred Duplessis, Benjamin Franklin, Jean-Baptiste Greuze, Broken Eggs, Hubert Robert, the Bagatelle decorations, Jacques-Louis David, The Death of Socrates, the Van Blarenberghes, The Outer Port of Brest and François Gérard, Charles-Maurice de Talleyrand-Périgord. In the book's introduction, author Katharine Baetjer provides a history of the Académie, its establishment, principles and regulations, along with a discussion of the beginnings of public art discourse in France taking us through the reforms unleashed by the Revolution The consequent democratizing of the Salon brought about by radicals under the leadership of Jacques Louis David encouraged the formation of new publics with new tastes in subject matter and genres The catalogue features 126 paintings by 50 artists Each section includes a short biography of the artist and in depth discussions of individual paintings incorporating the most up to date scholarship
