Henry James OM 15 April 1843 28 February 1916 was an American writer who spent most of his writing career in Britain He is regarded as one of the key figures of 19th century literary realism He was the son of Henry James Sr and the brother of philosopher and psychologist William James and diarist Alice James He is best known for a number of novels showing Americans encountering Europe and Europeans His method of writing from a character s point of view allowed him to explore issues related to consciousness and perception and his style in later works has been compared to impressionist painting His imaginative use of point of view interior monologue and unreliable narrators brought a new depth to narrative fiction James contributed significantly to literary criticism particularly in his insistence that writers be allowed the greatest possible freedom in presenting their view of the world James claimed that a text must first and foremost be realistic and contain a representation of life that is recognisable to its readers Good novels to James show life in action and are most importantly interesting In addition to his voluminous works of fiction he published articles and books of travel biography autobiography and criticism and wrote plays James alternated between America and Europe for the first twenty years of his life eventually he settled in England becoming a British subject in 1915 one year before his death James was nominated for the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1911 1912 and 1916 French Poets and Novelists. With an Introduction by Leon Edel Henry James,Leon Edel,1964 The French Writers' War, 1940-1953 Gisèle Sapiro,2014-04-23

The French Writers War 1940 1953 is a remarkably thorough account of French writers and literary institutions from the beginning of the German Occupation through France s passage of amnesty laws in the early 1950s To understand how the Occupation affected French literary production as a whole Gis le Sapiro uses Pierre Bourdieu s notion of the literary field Sapiro surveyed the career trajectories and literary and political positions of 185 writers She found that writers stances in relation to the Vichy regime are best explained in terms of institutional and structural factors rather than ideology Examining four major French literary institutions from the conservative French Academy to the Comit national des crivains a group formed in 1941 to resist the Occupation she chronicles the institutions histories before turning to the ways that they influenced writers political positions Sapiro shows how significant institutions and individuals within France s literary field exacerbated their loss of independence or found ways of resisting during the war and Occupation as well as how they were perceived after Liberation French Poets and Novelists /cby Henry James, Jr Henry James,1878 French Poets and Novelists - Primary Source Edition Henry James,2013-12
