The Frenchman Philippe Halsman, 2005 Making faces a highly original visual Q A with France's most beloved comic actor In New York in 1948 photographer Philippe Halsman had a chance meeting with Fernandel a French movie star from the vaudeville tradition and asked the actor to participate in a completely original photographic experiment Halsman would ask Fernandel questions about America to which he would respond using only facial expressions With his wide lovable horse face Fernandel mimicked the answers to such questions as Does the average Frenchman still pinch pretty girls in a crowd silly grin and What was your reaction to the great American game of baseball perplexed Fernandel's reactions are laugh out loud funny and the book that resulted from this unusual collaboration is nothing short of wonderful The Frenchman has been out of print for over fifty years but TASCHEN's reprint thankfully brings it back to life The Frenchman Philippe Halsman, Fernandel, 1949

Theorising the Artist Interview Lucia Farinati, Jennifer Thatcher, 2024-08-29 Reflecting on the relationship between artists and their audiences this book examines how artists have presented themselves publicly through interviews and sought to establish a critical voice for themselves Considering the interview as a form of cultural production contributors explore the criteria for determining the artist interview as a distinct field of research in relation to other cultural fields Structured in four parts History and Historiography Subverting the Biographical Model Interviews as Practice and Materiality and Technology the book takes an interdisciplinary approach that encompasses the fields of art history fine art oral history curating media studies and museum conservation By theorising the artist interview as a form of cultural production and embracing it as a co constructed critical practice this volume aims to show and encourage an approach to art history which dismantles old hierarchies in favour of valuing dialogue and collaboration The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history museum studies oral history and historiography The Frenchman Philippe Halsman, 1949 Philippe Halsman. the Frenchman, 2015 When photographer Philippe Halsman met French movie star Fernandel he struck upon a genius idea If Fernandel spoke no English but possessed one of the most expressive faces he had encountered why not run an interview with him in which faces not words determined every answer Through furrowed brows and twinkling eyes stony stares and Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series, 1949 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work copyrighted and data relating to the copyright claim the name of the copyright claimant as given in the application for registration the copyright date the copyright registration number etc LIFE, 1950-02-13 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century It now lives on at LIFE.com the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet Users can browse search and view photos of today's people and events They have free access to share print and post images for personal use

Becoming Elizabeth Arden Stacy A. Cordery, 2024-09-03 A sweeping biography of one of the most influential and successful business women in American history BECOMING ELIZABETH ARDEN opens the Red Door to a world of wealth

glamor and the profitable business of beauty Elizabeth Arden was a household name on six continents and a millionaire several times over before her death in 1966 Arden counted British royalty and social elites from the overlapping worlds of New York Hollywood London and Paris among her clients She revolutionized skin care and cosmetics making it acceptable for all women to embrace glamour and wear makeup not just actresses and prostitutes She created a successful international business empire before women gained the vote and at a time when virtually no woman owned or ran a national company She developed the first luxury spa and insisted on a holistic understanding of health and beauty Unconventional and driven Arden fervently believed that every woman could be beautiful Acclaimed biographer Stacy Cordery does full justice to one of America's greatest entrepreneurs Canadian born Florence Nightingale Graham turned herself into Elizabeth Arden using her uncanny sense of the possible to take full advantage of everything New York City offered building her company and becoming one with her brand In an astounding rags to riches tale Elizabeth Arden came to personify sophistication and refinement Her hard work and innovation made makeup fitness and style not only acceptable but de rigueur Arden prospered throughout the Depression reimagined women's needs during two World Wars and by pioneering new approaches to marketing and advertising ushered beauty into the modern era Cordery delivers a compelling picture of a modern CEO whose career provides a model for aspiring businesses to this day

Schwartz, 2020-09-08 Powerful and often controversial news pictures promise to make the world at once immediate and knowable Yet while many great writers and thinkers have evaluated photographs of atrocity and crisis few have sought to set these images in a broader context by defining the rich and diverse history of news pictures in their many forms For the first time this volume defines what counts as a news picture how pictures are selected and distributed where they are seen and how we critique and value them Presenting the best new thinking on this fascinating topic this book considers the news picture over time from the dawn of the illustrated press in the nineteenth century through photojournalism's heyday and the rise of broadcast news and newsreels in the twentieth century and into today's digital platforms It examines the many kinds of images sport fashion society celebrity war catastrophe and exoticism and many mediums including photography painting wood engraving film and video Packed with the best research and full colour illustrations throughout this book will appeal to students and readers interested in how news and history are key sources of our rich visual culture
