Fric Frac:

The Representation of Parisian Speech in the Cinema of the 1930s Michaël Abecassis, 2005 This study is based on an analysis of videos and transcripts of five films Fric frac Circonstances atténuantes Le Jour se lève La Règle du jeu and Hôtel du Nord These films are examples of planned and artificial language The book looks at the evidential value of these data and assesses the extent to which stereotyped and scripted language can contribute to an understanding of spoken Parisian usage by looking at phonetics syntax discourse lexis and pragmatics By comparing traditional research carried out by scholars in the nineteenth century and earlier with Parisian data collected and analysed by twentieth century researchers the work attempts to identify the salient features that both script writers and actors in these films considered to be characteristic of social group differences at that time French Film History, 1895-1946 Richard Neupert, 2022-07-19 French Film History 1895-1946 addresses the creative and often unexpected trajectory of French cinema which continues to be one of the most provocative and engaging cinemas in the world Tracing French film and its developments from the earliest days when France dominated world cinema up through the Occupation and Liberation Neupert outlines major players and films that made it so influential Paris held a privileged position as one of the world's hubs of scientific social and cultural experimentation it is no wonder that the cinema as we know it was born there in the nineteenth century This book presents French cinema's most significant creative filmmakers and movies but also details the intricate relations between technology economics and government that helped shape the unique conditions for cinematic experimentation in the country Neupert explains the contexts behind the rise of cinema in France including groundbreaking work by the Lumière family Georges Méliès and Alice Guy the powerhouse studios of Pathé and Gaumont directors such as René Clair Germaine Dulac Marcel Pagnol and Jean Renoir and an array of stars including Max Linder Jean Gabin Josephine Baker and Michèle Morgan The first fifty years of French film practice established cinema's cultural and artistic potential setting the stage for the global post World War II explosion in commercial movies and art cinema alike French film and its rich history remain at the heart of cinematic storytelling and our moviegoing pleasure Les Contes D'Hoffmann Jacques Offenbach, 1882 The Tiger Claw Shauna Singh Baldwin, 2011-07-27 From the author of What the Body Remembers an extraordinary story of love and espionage cultural tension and displacement inspired by the life of Noor Inayat Khan code name Madeleine who worked against the Occupation after the Nazi invasion of France When Noor Khan's father a teacher of mystical Sufism dies Noor is forced to bow along with her mother sister and brother to her uncle's religious literalism and ideas on feminine propriety While at the Sorbonne Noor falls in love with Armand a Jewish musician Though her uncle forbids her to see him they continue meeting in secret When the Germans invade in 1940 Armand persuades Noor to leave him for her own safety She flees with her family to England but volunteers to serve in a special intelligence agency She is trained as a radio operator for the group that in Churchill's words will set Europe ablaze with acts of sabotage She is then sent back to Occupied France Unwavering courage is what Noor requires for her assignment and her deeply personal mission to reunite with Armand. As her talisman, she carries her grandmother's gift, an heirloom tiger claw encased in gold. The novel opens in December 1943. Noor has been imprisoned. She begins writing in secret, tracing the events that led to her capture. When Germany surrenders in 1945, her brother Kabir begins his search through the chaos of Europe's Displaced Persons camps to find her. In its portrayal of intolerance, The Tiger Claw eerily mirrors our own times and progresses with moments of great beauty and white-knuckle tension towards a moving and astonishing denouement.

The Riviera Puzzle: A Chief Inspector Damiot Mystery

Vincent McConnor, 2017-03-24. The second in the classic series featuring Chief Inspector Damiot of the Paris police. STARLIGHT CHAMPAGNE AND MURDER. A sweet-scented breeze greets Chief Inspector Damiot's arrival on the sunny Cote d'Azur, and so does trouble. His secret mission is to assist the local prefecture in recovering a stolen Cézanne. His private plan is to sip his favorite whiskey and search for the perfect bouillabaisse. But more than a painting is missing: a promising young artist has disappeared, and a gallery owner has been murdered. Damiot has no leads, no prints, no suspects, only a cryptic clue left in the still-wet paint of an unfinished portrait. And when a taste for romance surpasses the Inspector's appetite for three-star cuisine, he discovers cherchez la femme is the special ingredient in this deliciously fast and exciting mystery set on the shores of the blue Mediterranean.

The Provence Puzzle

And there are also rumors of a monster seen at the supposedly empty Chateau De Mohrt. Intrigued, Damiot soon discovers that the last of the De Mohrts, a severely crippled genius, is indeed in residence with a scientific lab in full swing.

Marked Women Russell Campbell, 2006-04-05

Julia Roberts played a prostitute famously in Pretty Woman. So did Jodie Foster in Taxi Driver. Jane Fonda in Klute. Anna Karina in Vivre sa vie. Greta Garbo in Anna Christie and Charlize Theron who won an Academy Award for Monster. This engaging and generously illustrated study explores the depiction of female prostitute characters and prostitution in world cinema from the silent era to the present day industry. From the woman with control over her own destiny to the woman who cannot get away from her

pimp Russell Campbell shows the diverse representations of prostitutes in film Marked Women classifies fifteen recurrent character types and three common narratives many of them with their roots in male fantasy The Happy Hooker for example is the liberated woman whose only goal is to give as much pleasure as she receives while the Avenger a nightmare of the male imagination represents the threat of women taking retribution for all the oppression they have suffered at the hands of men The Love Story a common narrative represents the prostitute as both heroine and anti heroine while Condemned to Death allows men to manifest in imagination only their hostility toward women by killing off the troubled prostitute in an act of cathartic violence The figure of the woman whose body is available at a price has fascinated and intrigued filmmakers and filmgoers since the very beginning of cinema but the manner of representation has also been highly conflicted and fiercely contested Campbell explores the cinematic prostitute as a figure shaped by both reactionary thought and feminist challenges to the norm demonstrating how the film industry itself is split by fascinating contradictions Alex Sean Wilder,2011 This story of an initiation begins with the white middle class teen age narrator meeting charismatic black ageless Alex who speaks in enigmas and conundrums and lives as a vagrant in San Francisco s Beat Generation bohemia Convinced that Alex possesses the key to superior awareness the boy seeks his guidance Come with me kid I ll take care of you Alex replies Accepting this fatherly invitation intent on learning from Alex the boy drops out The hardships of hunger tobacco and cheap wine soon make themselves felt Having become a stranger to his former self he experiences ecstatic revelation So this is what Alex is all about Ecstasy Perfect awareness cannot be retained The boy seeks in vain to reconnect Despairing he repeatedly leaves Alex but discontent with a life become meaningless irresistibly draws him back until increasing signs of Alex s mental alienation overwhelm him and he finally abandons Alex haunted by a sense of loss Genre, Myth, and Convention in the French Cinema, 1929-1939 C. G. Crisp,2002 This work identifies patterns in the fields of character narrative and setting in the French cinema of the early sound period French Comedy on Screen R. Lanzoni,2014-10-30 French comedy films occupy a specific cultural space and are influenced by national traditions and shared cultural references but at the same time they have always been difficult to classify This book investigates the different methods in which these comedies textually inscribed and exemplified a variety of cultural and historical landmarks 1939 Thomas S. Hischak,2017-06-16 What do Babes in Arms Beau Geste Gunga Din The Hunchback of Notre Dame Only Angels Have Wings and Young Mr Lincoln all have in common They are all classic films released in the same year but none of them received Academy Award nominations for best picture Why In that same year Hollywood produced Dark Victory Goodbye Mr Chips Mr Smith Goes to Washington and Ninotchka as well as two of the most beloved films of all time Gone with the Wind and The Wizard of Oz In 1939 Hollywood created an unprecedented number of great films a year that has yet to be surpassed in cinematic achievement In 1939 Hollywood s Greatest Year Thomas S Hischak looks at the most remarkable 365 days in film history Arranged chronologically from January 1 to December 31 1939 each entry covers one day and features major news events national and international as well as minor curiosities or news items that would prove to be more important in the future The activities on Broadway radio the music business literature and other arts are included as are noteworthy sporting events Most significantly this book provides a full description and commentary on the Hollywood movies that were released on that day All 510 feature films from all the Hollywood studios are included in the book along with notable shorts cartoons newsreels and foreign releases While others have looked at the movie highlights of this momentous year Hirsch evaluates Hollywood's entire screen output of 1939 from B pictures and serial installments to the international blockbusters and every film in between 1939 Hollywood's Greatest Year is a captivating look at this phenomenon and will fascinate any film aficionado

The Real Tales of Hoffmann Vincent Giroud, Michael Kaye, 2017-06-08 Of all operas in the standard repertory none has had a more complicated genesis and textual history than Offenbach's Tales of Hoffmann Based on a highly successful 1851 play inspired by the short stories by the German Romantic writer E T A Hoffmann the work occupied the last decade of Offenbach's life When he died in October 1880 the work was being rehearsed at the Op ra Comique At once cut and rearranged the work was performed from the start in versions that ignored the composer's final intentions. Only a few decades ago when previously unavailable manuscripts came to light it became possible to reconstitute the score in its real form. Vincent Giroud and Michael Kaye's The Real Tales of Hoffmann tells the full story for the first time in English. After discussing how the work of Hoffmann became known and influential in France, the book includes little-known sources for the opera, especially the complete Barbier and Carré play in French and English. It describes the genesis of the opera. The annotated libretto is published in full with the variants for the two versions of the opera with spoken dialogue or recitatives. Essays explain what was done to the opera after Offenbach's death from the 1881 Opéra Comique production to more recent restoration attempts. There is also a survey of Les contes d'Hoffmann in performance from the 1970s to the present and supplementary information including discography, filmography, and videography. The Real Tales of Hoffmann is intended to appeal to anyone interested in the work: specialists or non-specialists. Audiences, musicologists, and students of French opera and opéra comique will find it of particular interest, as will opera houses, conductors, singers, directors, and dramaturgs involved in performances of the opera.
