Freedom Of God And Human Liberation:

The Freedom of God and Human Liberation Alexander J. McKelway, 1990 Freedom's Distant Shores R. Drew Smith, 2006 This volume examines relations between U S Protestants and Africa since the end of colonial rule It draws attention to shifting ecclesiastical and socio political priorities especially the decreased momentum of social justice advocacy and the growing missionary influence of churches emphasizing spiritual revival and personal prosperity The book provides a thought provoking assessment of U S Protestant involvements with Africa and it proposes forms of engagement that build upon ecclesiastical dynamism within American and African contexts Black Theology--Essays on Global Perspectives Dwight N. Hopkins, 2017-06-15 Since its start in 1966 black liberation theology in the United States has continually engaged international developments with Africa and the entire world But after Nelson Mandela was released from prison in February 1990 there has been an almost twenty year break in books on black theology and international affairs Black Theology Essays on Global Perspectives bridges that post 1990 gap and makes a vital contact with Africa again This book conceptualizes black theology to take on the global reconfigurations and opportunities brought about by the rapidly shrinking earth of fast paced worldwide contacts In other words in the specificity of the genealogy of black theology we need to reforge ties with Africa This claim is based on tradition And in the generality of the larger worldwide intertwining of technologies and economics we need a new type of black theological leadership for the twenty first century This claim is based on today s international challenges The essays in this book draw on tradition and point forward in the midst of today s worldwide challenges and favorable possibilities given the closeness of all nations and the varieties of cultures Mormonism in Dialogue with Contemporary Christian Theologies David Lamont Paulsen, Donald W. Musser, 2007 This volume brings together for the first time a broad range of scholars from Mormon and other Christian traditions Replacing polemics and apologetics with dialogue these exchanges show how the full spectrum of contemporary theologies can be informed by uniquely Mormon ideas and correlatively how Mormon thought can be illuminated through the study of key ideas of the foremost theologians of the twentieth and twenty first centuries The Theological Paradox Gert Hummel, 1995 Keine ausführliche Beschreibung für The Theological Paradox Das theologische Paradox verfgbar God and the Crisis of Freedom Richard Bauckham, 2002-01-01 This book outlines a biblical understanding of freedom and the particular ways in which Christians choose to exercise that freedom in response to major issues confronting the world today Specifically Bauckham constructs a Christian understanding of freedom explores the authority of Scripture in modern and postmodern contexts and also examines themes of tradition ethics oppression and ecology as they relate to issues of freedom and authority Theology in the Mode of Monk: An Aesthetics of Barth and Cone on Revelation and Freedom, Volume 1 Raymond Carr, 2024-11-07 This captivating study engages two of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century Karl Barth the Swiss Protestant theologian who constructed his theology from above and engaged the powers in the background of Nazi Germany and James H Cone the father of Black Theology in America who constructed his theology from below and confronted white racism the most intractable issue in America's history In this three volume project Carr employs the aesthetic thinking of the jazz legend Thelonious Monk to reconceptualize restructure and advance the theologies of Barth and Cone This first volume appeals to the Bebop tune Epistrophy as the analogical framework for reconceptualizing the historical form and hermeneutical backgrounds of Karl Barth and James H Cone Monk's mode of musical thinking establishes the aesthetic theological architecture Carr uses to reiterate and reimagine the revolutionary theological contributions of Barth and Cone The Concept of Freedom in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Georges Tamer, Ursula Männle, 2019-08-19

The third volume of the series Key Concepts of Interreligious Discourses investigates the roots of the concept of freedom in Judaism Christianity and Islam and its relevance for the present time The idea of freedom in terms of personal freedoms which include freedom of conscience freedom of speech and bodily integrity is a relatively new one and can in some aspects get into conflict with religious convictions At the same time freedom as an emancipatory power from outer oppression as well as from inner dependencies is deeply rooted in Judaism Christianity and Islam It is still a vital concept in religious and non religious communities and movements The volume presents the concept of freedom in its different aspects as anchored in the traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam It unfolds commonalities and differences between the three monotheistic religions as well as the manifold discourses about freedom within these three traditions The book offers fundamental knowledge about the specific understanding of freedom in each one of these traditions their interdependencies and their relationship to secular interpretations Freedom and Flourishing Robert Leigh, 2017-11-09 Freedom is vital both to Karl Barth's theology and to modern religion politics and culture Leigh describes how Barth's lifelong fascination by freedom culminated in a fresh daring engagement with it in his last completed book volume IV 3 of the massive Church Dogmatics which is probably the most important work of Christian theology in the twentieth century That volume builds on Barth's earlier work but also goes beyond it in ways that have not yet been appreciated Leigh shows how this mature theology of Barth not only responds profoundly to key questions about freedom both in philosophy and theology but also opens up a rich habitable understanding of Jesus Christ and of life in relationship with him that is prophetic for the twenty first century This involves a dynamic integration of knowing with being being with action truth with witness individual with community and divine initiative with human flourishing At the heart of this life with God is participation in the asymmetrical yet utterly reciprocal interaction between human beings and the God who loves them in freedom Leigh succeeds both in describing this participation convincingly and in demonstrating its provocative attractiveness Conceptions of God, Freedom, and Ethics in African American and Jewish Theology K. Buhring, 2008-05-12 This book is a consideration of major contemporary Black and Jewish understanding of God examining how profound faith in a just God is sustained and even strengthened in the face of particularly horrific and long standing evil and suffering in a community Reformed Reader George Stroup, 2002-02-01

This volume demonstrates a central conviction of the Reformed tradition that theology must honor the historic witness of the church as catholic while being faithful to the new tasks of the present day church. It offers selections from Reformed theology creeds, confessions, and church documents of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Theology in the Mode of Monk: An Aesthetics of Barth and Cone on Revelation and Freedom, Volume 2 Raymond Carr, 2024-11-15. This captivating study engages two of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century: Karl Barth, the Swiss Protestant theologian who constructed his theology from above and engaged the powers in the background of Nazi Germany; and James H. Cone, the father of Black Theology in America who constructed his theology from below and confronted white racism, the most intractable issue in America's history. In this three-volume project, Carr employs the aesthetic thinking of the jazz legend Thelonious Monk to reconceptualize, restructure, and advance the theologies of Barth and Cone. In this second volume, Carr appeals to Monk's tune "Round Midnight" as the analogical framework for articulating the meaning between Christ, the cantus firmus, and the sociopolitical histories of Karl Barth and James Cone. Monk's encouragement to improvise on the melody is heard as the melodic foundation for a new form of christological reflection. Walter Kasper's Response to Modern Atheism Ralph N. McMichael, 2006. The development and pervasiveness of modern atheism, as well as secularization, poses an acute challenge to Christian theology. Theologians have either ignored this challenge or have sought to meet it in a variety of ways. Throughout his theological career, Walter Kasper (1933-) has maintained that theology has the mutual tasks of exposition of the Christian faith and of responding to contemporary challenges to this faith. In his seminal work The God of Jesus Christ (1982), he argues that the proper Christian response to modern atheism is the confession of the Trinity. In making this response, Kasper begins to chart a course for all future Christian apologetics for all efforts to give an account of Christian hope. 1 Peter 3:15. Toward the Future of Reformed Theology David Willis-Watkins, Michael Welker, 1999. This is a print-on-demand book and is therefore non-returnable. Toward the Future of Reformed Theology brings together the voices of leading contemporary Reformed theologians from around the world, providing a unique summary of the range and wealth of Reformed theology today and exploring its potential for the future. These thirty-one essays consider the task of Reformed theology in the modern world, give Reformed perspectives on key theological themes, and suggest fruitful present-day trajectories of Reformed thought from the past. Contributors: Brian Gerrish, M. Janos Pasztor, Nobuo Watanabe, Choan Seng Song, Edmund Za-Bik Wafiq Wahba, John de Gruchy, Jürgen Moltmann, Michael Welker, Beatriz Melano, Thomas Torrance, David Willis, William Placher, Alexander McKelway, Leanne Van Dyk, Christian Link, Lukas Vischer, Walter Herrenbrück, Nancy Duff, Hans Joachim Kraus, John Leith, Willem Balke, Hans-Helmut Esser, Dawn DeVries, Jan Milic Lochman, John Hesselink, Sang-Hyun Lee, Amy Plantinga Pauw, Bruce McCormack, Daniel Migliore, Eberhard Busch. A Theological Odyssey John W. De Gruchy, 2014-09-01. John de Gruchy is one of the greatest and most respected South African theologians of the past five decades. His work has left an indelible mark on both the South African and international theological landscapes. In this book he describes his theological journey revisiting core themes periods and sources This is an enriching read as De Gruchy engages with some of the greatest theologians in the history of the church notably John Calvin Karl Barth Karl Rahner Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Reinhold Niebuhr as well as with a wide selection of his fellow South African theologians Cas Wepener The Collected Works of Edward Schillebeeckx Volume 6 Edward Schillebeeckx,2014-09-25 The existence of the historical Jesus cannot be doubted But who was Jesus of Nazareth And who is he for us today In this controversial work Schillebeeckx offers his experiment an informative and sustained hermeneutical reflection on the story of Jesus It became a bestseller and would become the first volume of Schillebeeckx trilogy on Jesus Christ He presents a Christology from below rooted in the synoptic gospels but especially in Mark and in the Q tradition At the same time he is clearly interested in portraying the historical Jesus as both Proclaimer and Proclaimed In this major work Schillebeeckx tries to answer questions such as Is the promise of salvation only to be found in Jesus Christ because he was a gift from God as the Gospels tell us What can we say about the inspiration of so many who do not attend church or adhere to any believe they find in Jesus Christ Schillebeeckx takes us into his promising quest that leads to the ultimate question of what religious truth actually is Quests for Freedom, Second Edition Michael Welker,2019-04-02 This book is the result of intensive multiyear international and interdisciplinary cooperation From many perspectives the book s contributors address themes of freedom and slavery self determination and concepts of freedom God given and imprinted freedom freedom as an ethos of belonging and solidarity and relations between freedom human rights and theological orientation With contributions from Elisabeth Schussler Fiorenza Ron Soodalter Manfred Oeming Katharina von Kellenbach Rudiger Bittner Peter Lampe Cyril Hovorun Risto Saarinen Friederike Nussel Larry W Hurtado Patrick D Miller Beverly Roberts Gaventa Hans Joachim Eckstein Dirk J Smit Jan Christian Gertz Jurgen van Oorschot Jind ich Halama Carver T Yu Susan Abraham Trinity, Freedom and Love Piotr Malysz,2012-08-02 By critically engaging Eberhard J ngel s doctrine of the Trinity this volume makes a broader constructive contribution to contemporary trinitarian thought The argument centers on the question posed by the inconsistencies uncovered in J ngel s doctrine of God of how one can assert both divine freedom and the inter subjectivity of God s trinitarian self determination Can one maintain God s freedom in the interest of divine spontaneity and creativity while remaining committed to inter subjective vulnerability which the Cross entails as an event of divine love Malysz suggests that a resolution to this problem lies in a logic of divine freedom which next to the trinitarian logic of love constitutes a different and simultaneous mode of trinitarian relationality To develop this logic Malysz draws on J ngel s understanding of human freedom as rooted in the elemental interruption of the self securing subject Malysz thus not only brings J ngel s view of divine freedom into correspondence with the anthropological effects that J ngel ascribes to it but above all offers an imaginative new way of closely integrating the doctrine of God and theological anthropology The Theology of the Cross and Marx's Anthropology Winston D. Persaud,2005-09-13 This is a fascinating major articulation of a contemporary theology of the cross in response to the soteriological challenge of Karl Marx's anthropological Weltanschauung. The author focuses primarily on the much neglected Early Writings 1844 Manuscripts in which Marx himself provides a necessary humanistic critique of official Marxism. The theology of the cross which the author articulates is centered in Luther's theologia crucis, Moltmann's crucified God, and Latin American liberation theology's divine identification and solidarity with the poor and oppressed. Specifically, the context of the work is the Caribbean and the Americas.

Missiology Reimagined Kent Michael Shaw, 2024-03-11

In this compelling research, Kent Michael Shaw reveals a concise and comprehensive work on the development of Missions Theology informed by the perspectives from early African American missionaries. Missiology Reimagined unveils the hidden and ignored missions history of enslaved and free African Americans during the antebellum period of the United States. This book helps the student of missiology decipher how the events of the 1800s shaped the missions theology of Black Americans. The enslaved of that day constructed a hermeneutic and interpreted the sacred text through a lens that contradicted their enslaver's version of Christianity. Through these constructs, they critically engaged in scripture and formulated a theology of mission contextualized for their lived experience. This insight compelled them to risk death and re-enslavement to pursue a global mandate from God. These pioneering missionaries would emerge as experts in the field of global evangelism, heralding them as both missionaries and missiologists. Since they were practitioners and students of Scripture, an applied mission's theology would materialize. The reader will observe how this theological formation influenced the black church in the nineteenth century and their missiology reimagined. These men and women held two titles: missionary and missiologist. These pioneer missionaries would emerge as early experts in the field of global evangelism. As practitioners and students of scripture, an applied mission's theology evolved. The reader will observe how this theological formation would shape the black church in the nineteenth century and a reimagined missiology.
