Freedom Song Three Novels:

Freedom Song Amit Chaudhuri, 2024-05-14 Winner of the Los Angeles Times Book Prize for Fiction a graceful depiction of middle class Calcutta seen through the lives of two interlinked families living in the city during the 1990s Freedom Song is a novel about family life and city life at an uneasy moment in time Set in Calcutta in 1993 the book begins by introducing us to Khuku whose husband Shib is a retired executive and whose son has gone to live in America Khuku's old friend Mini a teacher suffering from a bad case of arthritis is paying a visit which gives the two women a chance to gossip and reminisce and see the town Khuku's brother Bhola lives nearby with his wife and two grown children Everyone is concerned about his son Bhaskar who has recently joined the Communist Party He sells the party newspaper on the streets He engages in street theater and while no longer in his first youth he remains unmarried Freedom Song circles around this small upper middle class world with its customs memories pleasures and worries but also ventures out into the wider world in which the destruction of the venerable Babri Masjid by Hindu fundamentalists has started a cycle of sectarian violence A novel of ordinary life of work and love shadowed by larger uncertainty Freedom Song is a transfixing performance deeply humane and winningly humorous by one of the subtlest and sharpest writers of our time A world of insight and feeling emerges from Amit Chaudhuri's wonderfully expansive sentences and style is revealed as nothing less than a form of knowledge

South Asian Novelists in English Jaina C. Sanga, 2003-03-30 With the publication of Salman Rushdie's Booker Prize winning novel Midnight's Children in 1981 followed by the unprecedented popularity of his subsequent works the cinematic adaptation of Michael Ondaatje's The English Patient many other best sellers written by South Asian novelists writing in English have gained a tremendous following This reference is a guide to their lives and writings The volume focuses on novelists born in South Asia who have written and continue to write about issues concerning that region Some of the novelists have published widely while others are only beginning their literary careers The volume includes alphabetically arranged entries on more than 50 South Asian novelists Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography a discussion of major works and themes a summary of the novelist's critical reception and primary and secondary bibliographies Since many of the contributors are personally acquainted with the novelists they are able to offer significant insights The volume closes with a selected bibliography of studies of the South Asian novel in English along with a list of anthologies and periodicals

Prose of the World Saikat Majumdar, 2013-01-15 Prose of the World explores the global life of the banality of Empire From late colonial modernism to the present day he looks at writers from all over the world to expose the everyday life of those abroad

Freedom Amnesty International, 2011-03-04 Inspired by the Universal Declaration of Human Rights UDHR which starts memorably with Article 1 we are all born free and equal Freedom is an enthralling anthology of short stories by some of the world's top writers Most of the stories have been written especially for this anthology by a renowned array of internationally acclaimed writers including Paulo Coelho Yann Martel AL Kennedy Ali Smith Amit Chaudhuri Ariel Dorfman Helen Dunmore

Marina Lewycka Walter Mosley Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie James Meek Kate Atkinson David Mitchell Hector Aguilar Camin Ishmael Beah Boris Akunin Alice Pung and Banana Yoshimoto Each acclaimed contributor has chosen one of the thirty UDHR rights as the basic inspiration for his or her story and the result is an anthology that contains a complete mix of thoughtful serious funny and thrilling stories that provide some completely unexpected takes on the issue of human rights Published in association with Amnesty International Freedom is an eclectic collection that will prompt readers to engage imaginatively with what human rights mean for all of us

Uncommon Wealths in Postcolonial Fiction Helga Ramsey-Kurz, Melissa Kennedy, 2017-11-01 Uncommon Wealths in Postcolonial Fiction engages urgently with wealth testing current assumptions of inequality in order to push beyond reductive contemporary readings of the gaping abyss between rich and poor Shifting away from longstanding debates in postcolonial criticism focused on poverty and abjection the book marshals fresh perspectives on material spiritual and cultural prosperity as found in the literatures of formerly colonized spaces The chapters follow the money to illuminate postcolonial fiction's awareness of the ambiguities of wealth acquired under colonial capitalism and transmuted in contemporary neoliberalism They weigh idealistic projections of individual and collective wellbeing against the stark realities of capital accumulation and excessive consumption They remain alert to the polysemy suggested by Uncommon Wealths both registering the imperial economic urge to ensure common wealth and referencing the unconventional or non Western the unusual even fictitious and contrasting privately coveted and exclusively owned wealth with visions of a shared good Arranged into four sections centred on aesthetics injustice indigeneity and cultural location the individual chapters show how writers of postcolonial fiction including Aravind Adiga Amit Chaudhuri Anita Desai Patricia Grace Mohsin Hamid Stanley Gazemba Tomson Highway Lebogang Matseke Zakes Mda Michael Ondaatje Kim Scott and Alexis Wright employ prosperity and affluence as a lens through which to re-examine issues of race ethnicity gender and family the cultural value of heritage land and social cohesion and such conflicting imperatives as economic growth individual fulfilment social and environmental responsibility and just distribution

The Thought of Nirad C. Chaudhuri Ian Almond, 2015-09-03 In this critical examination of the famous South Asian thinker Nirad C Chaudhuri 1897 1999 a notorious Anglophile and defender of Empire Ian Almond analyses the factors that played a role in the evolution of his thought Almond explores how Empire creates native informants enabling local subjects to alienate themselves from and even abhor their own cultures Through analysis of Chaudhuri s views on Islam his use of the archive moments of melancholy and loss in his writing and his opinions on empire Almond dissects the constitution of an Indian writer and locates the precise ways in which Chaudhuri was able to produce the kind of discourses he did exploring how conservative pro Western intellectuals are formed in postcolonial environments A strong comparative element places Chaudhuri s views in the context of conservative intellectuals from Latin America the Middle East and South Asia concluding with a consideration of present day native informants from these regions

Epic And Other Higher Narratives: Essays In Intercultural Studies Shankman Steven, 2010-09

Fate and Freedom in the Novels of David Adams Richards Sara MacDonald, Barry Craig, 2017-05-04 This book explores the understanding of freedom developed in the later novels of celebrated Canadian author David Adams Richards Many reviewers highlight two interconnected features in Richards novels a seemingly rigid determinism of setting and sociodemographics and a resulting hopelessness In contrast Richards describes the quest of human life and the purpose of his novels as a search for freedom This book explores the account of freedom that is developed through the course of four of Richards s works The Friends of Meager Fortune Mercy Among the Children The Lost Highway and Crimes Against My Brother Following the Augustinian thread that informs Richards s writing we argue that rather than presenting an understanding of human life that is bleak or hopeless Richards instead reveals an argument wherein one s happiness and freedom is found in the midst of love

Music and Identity in Postcolonial British South-Asian Literature Christin Hoene, 2014-08-27 This book examines the role of music in British South Asian postcolonial literature asking how music relates to the construction of postcolonial identity It focuses on novels that explore the postcolonial condition in India Pakistan and the United Kingdom Vikram Seth s A Suitable Boy Amit Chaudhuri s Afternoon Raag Suhayl Saadi s Psychoraag Hanif Kureishi s The Buddha of Suburbia and The Black Album and Salman Rushdie s The Ground Beneath Her Feet with reference to other texts such as E M Forster s A Passage to India and Vikram Seth s An Equal Music The analyzed novels feature different kinds of music from Indian classical to non classical traditions and from Western classical music to pop music and rock n roll Music is depicted as a cultural artifact and as a purely aestheticized art form at the same time As a cultural artifact music derives meaning from its socio cultural context of production and serves as a frame of reference to explore postcolonial identities on their own terms As purely aesthetic art music escapes its contextual meaning The transgressive qualities of music render it capable of expressing identities irrespective of origin and politics of location Thereby music in the novels marks a very productive space to imagine the postcolonial nation and to rewrite imperial history to express the cultural hybridity of characters in between nations to analyze the state of the nation and life in the multicultural diaspora of contemporary Great Britain and to explore the ramifications of cultural globalization versus cultural imperialism It will be a useful research and teaching tool for those interested in postcolonial literature music studies cultural studies contemporary literature and South Asian literature Amit Chaudhuri Novelist and Musician Dr. Laxmikant Govindrao Bahegavankar, 2021-06-05 Indian English Literature today has its own place in the world literature Begun as an imitation of British literature it has now its own identity and a large number of readers all over the world Indian English Novel to be more specific has reached to a height where it is seen on the same line of world novels It has gone through many evolutions such as style subject matter point of view color language etc Indian English novel today boasts its newness through the hands of Amit Chaudhary He is one of the contemporary Indian English novelists whose work leaves an impression of being new in its presentation in style and in subject matter The present research is an attempt to explore Amit Chaudhary s novels as new novels This study undertakes five novels by him in order to see in what sense or the extent to which they are new novels Black British Literature Mark Stein, 2004 In this fascinating book Mark Stein examines black British literature centering on a body of work created by British based writers with African South Asian or Caribbean cultural backgrounds Linking black British literature to the bildungsroman genre this study examines the transformative potential inscribed in and induced by a heterogeneous body of texts Capitalizing on their plural cultural attachments these texts portray and purvey the transformation of post imperial Britain Stein locates his wide ranging analysis in both a historical and a literary context He argues that a cross cultural and interdisciplinary approach is essential to understanding post colonial culture and society The book relates black British literature to ongoing debates about cultural diversity and thereby offers a way of reading a highly popular but as yet relatively uncharted field of cultural production With the collapse of its empire with large scale immigration from former colonies and with ever increasing cultural diversity Britain underwent a fundamental makeover in the second half of the twentieth century This volume cogently argues that black British literature is not only a commentator on and a reflector of this makeover but that it is simultaneously an agent that is integral to the processes of cultural and social change Conceptualizing the novel of transformation this comprehensive study of British black literature provides a compelling analytic framework for charting these processes Acta philologica , 2010 Hymns and spiritual songs. Srinivasan, 2025-06-17 Why is it so difficult to account for the role of identity in literary studies Why do both writers and scholars of Indian English literature express resistance to India and Indianness What does this reveal about how non Western literatures are read taught and understood Drawing on years of experiences in classrooms and on U S university campuses Ragini Tharoor Srinivasan explores how writers critics teachers and students of Indian English literatures negotiate and resist the categories through which the field is defined ethnic postcolonial and Anglophone Overdetermined considers major contemporary authors who disavow identity even as their works and public personas respond in varied ways to the imperatives of being Indian Chapters examine Bharati Mukherjee s rejection of ethnic Americanness Chetan Bhagat s bad English Amit Chaudhuri s autofictional literary project and Jhumpa Lahiri s decision to write in Italian interspersed with meditations on the iconicity of the theorists Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Homi Bhabha and Edward Said Through an innovative method of accented reading and sharing stories and syllabi from her teaching Srinivasan relates the burdens of representation faced by ethnic and postcolonial writers to the institutional and disciplinary pressures that affect the scholars who study their works Engaging and self reflexive Overdetermined offers new insight into the dynamics that shape contemporary Indian English literature the politics of identity in literary studies and the complexities of teaching minoritized literatures in the West Cultural Allotropy Vinay Bharat, 2015-08-26 This research work spins around the issue of cultural allotropy which we all have experienced at different levels however a conscious realization regarding it might be missing to some extent Centuries of political intervention and subjugation by foreign countries results in the presence of a mixed culture and this side by side flourishing of two cultures seems now an accepted fact a part of mans consciousness But the presence of two contradictory sets of values one not fully accepted and the other not totally rejected gives rise to a difficult situation in the face of the conflicting claims of the two This gives rise to a mixing of cultures a blend which in other words may be called cultural allotropy that is existence of the culture of a particular region in two or more forms having different and mixed properties at the emotional or intellectual level at a given point of time Going beyond the political subjugation in the era of globalization it has now become a matter of economic and cultural subjugation Undoubtedly our cultural allotropy is a byproduct of modern economic compulsions also Through different Indian English novelists I have tried to intrigue the issues via different portrayals and characters and finally posed a question What is it to be an Indian
