Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom Dorothy Littlejohn Guthrie,2011-09-14 In this book African American literature is illuminated through a project based curriculum that incorporates national curriculum standards It is important that the school curriculae be representative of the diversity of the American student population Integrating African American Literature in the Library and Classroom is designed to help teachers and librarians achieve that goal The book recommends and annotates more than 200 titles that touch on African American life from slavery through the present time most of them by black authors and many of them winners of the Coretta Scott King Caldecott and or Newbery awards This guide offers cross curricular lesson plans for grades K 12 Each chapter identifies areas in which instructional attention is most needed to help students develop a greater appreciation for diversity perseverance and ethnicity Examples and ideas for activities are offered to reinforce related concepts With this book teachers and librarians will be better able to motivate and inform helping students discover the richness of African American culture now and through time

Black Outlaws Carlyle Van Thompson, 2010 In this provocative and original exploration of Black males and the legal establishment Carlyle Van Thompson illuminates the critical issues defining Black male subjectivity Since the days of Black people's enslavement and the days of Jim Crow segregation Black males have been at odds with the legal and extra legal restrictions that would maintain white supremacy and white male privilege Grounded in the voices of Frederick Douglass and David Walker who challenged hegemonic systems designed to socio economically disenfranchise Black people Black Outlaws examines legal aspects with regard to Black males during the period of segregation By critically looking at Richard Wright's The Outsider Chester Bomar Himes The Third Generation Walter Mosley's Devil in a Blue Dress and Ernest J Gaines A Lesson Before Dying all of which examine Black males during the Jim Crow period Thompson investigates the challenges that Black males confront and surmount in their journeys to establish their individual and collective agency Black Outlaws helps decipher critical legal and racial issues in the works of four of the most important Black male writers and is suitable for readers in literary studies cultural studies and history

Reform, Red Scare, and Ruin James Smallwood, 2008-03-06 Virginia Durr of Alabama was a major reformer whose public career spanned almost fifty years She fought against the Poll Tax and other restrictions of the franchise that stopped millions of whites and blacks from voting a development favoring only the South's aristocracy She became a leader of the Southern Conference on Human Welfare and the Southern Conference Education Fund Most notably she directed the National Committee to Abolish the Poll Tax As well she actively participated in the Civil Rights Movement by working with people like Martin Luther King Jr and Mary McLeod Bethune Because of her reform activism Durr became a target of J Edgar Hoover's FBI America's secret police and the House Committee on Un-American Activities She along with her husband was hounded by reactionaries from 1938 through the early 1960s In the United States in the modern era suppression did not begin with President George Bush rather suppression began much earlier Virginia Durr's career is a case in point

No Small Lives Susan Imel, Gretchen T. Bersch, 2014-12-01 No Small Lives Handbook of North American Early Women Adult Educators 1925-1950 contains the stories of 26 North American women who were active in the field of adult education sometime between the years of 1925 and 1950 Generally women's contributions have been omitted from the field's histories No Small Lives is designed to address this gap and restore women to their rightful place in the history of adult education in North America The primary audience for this book is adult education professors and their graduate students This book can be used in courses including history and sociology of adult education the adult learner courses specific to exploring women's contributions and activities The secondary audience is the broader fields of women's studies feminist history sociology and psychology or those fields that include an examination of women in the early twentieth century It could also be useful to those focusing on more specific topics such as gender and race studies prejudice marginalization power how women were sometimes portrayed as invisible or as central figures and
