God Hides Ned Wisnepske, 2010-02-18 GOD HIDES is a critique of contemporary Christian faith It argues that faith should not be understood as the result of spiritual seeking but rather as rooted in moral living Starting with the challenge of Bonhoeffer's religionless Christianity it argues for a common morality and then shows how that morality leads to Christian faith The thesis is that in order for us to serve our neighbor whom we see and not seek God whom we cannot see God hides Drawing upon the rich tradition of religious thought from Luther Kant Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer this book offers a way past the religious battles in the current culture war Wisnepske points to the emptiness of the Christian promise of salvation in a time when virtually no one believes there is a hell to be saved from Instead he shows that it makes sense today in view of our nuclear arsenals and environmental crisis to claim that life is threatened by death Our present circumstances provide new understanding into the biblical view that primeval chaos threatens creation A distinctive feature of the book is that it develops the traditional understanding that sin and death are powers threatening creation Christian faith accordingly is best understood as the living hope that creation will be saved from the violence and destruction that threaten to return it to chaos
