of essays explores the phenomenon of antiurbanism the antipathy fear and hatred of the city Antiurbanism has been a pervasive counter discourse to modernity and urbanization especially since the beginning of industrialism and the dawning of modern life Most of the attention on modernity has been focused on urbanization and its consequences But as the essays collected here demonstrate antiurbanism is an equally important reality as it can be seen as playing a crucial role in cultural identity in the formation of the self within the context of modernity as well as in the root of many forms of conservative politics and cultural movements Imaginative Structure of the City Alan Blum, 2003-05-07 Blum's distinctive form of speak for it What is its symbolic nature In what way does the city function as a focus of attempts to resolve social problems

Seeking the Welfare of the City Naomi Noguchi Reese,2025-01-27 In the history of public theology the Holy Spirit s role in creation has been underexplored If the Holy Spirit is the agent of transformation in creation why have so many theologians neglected the Spirit s activity in the context of public theology One of the causes of such neglect derives from a long held belief in dualism or its assumption As a result generally speaking theologians have neglected the eschatological aspect of the Spirit s work over creation and instead have devoted much of their attention to the immanent spiritual aspect of the Spirit s work Hence a theology is needed that recaptures the eschatological aspect of the Spirit s work over creation and Colin E Gunton s pneumatology that is trinitarianly formulated and eschatologically conceived brings a fresh approach to public theology and moves us toward a full bodied holistic and trinitarian public theology that takes into account the triune God This study attempts to draw upon the resources uncovered in Gunton s pneumatology to outline applications for Christian engagement of the public square for the twenty first century The book concludes with criteria for discerning the Spirit s work in the public square to give us practical ways to see how the Spirit may be working in the public square for transformation
