French Cinema In The 1980s Nostalgia And The Crisis Of Masculinity:

French Cinema in the 1980s Phil Powrie, 1997 French film in the 1980s might have lacked the invention of the New Wave but gritty police thrillers and nostalgic costume dramas such as Jean de Florette and Manon des Sources brought French cinema to a wider audience than ever before This landmark study is not merely a history of French film in the 1980s but offers a set of critical essays on the crisis of masculinity in contemporary French culture and its interrelationship with nostalgia After a brief overview both of the crisis in the French film industry during the 1980s and of the socio political crisis of masculinity in the wake of 1970s feminism the book is divided into three sections the retro nostalgic film the Polar or police thriller and the comic film Films studied in detail include Diva Subway Coup de foudre Vivement dimanche La Vie est un long fleuve tranquille and Tenue de soir e while the volume covers actors from G rard Depardieu Daniel Auteuil and Yves Montand to Isabelle Adjani Isabelle Huppert and Emmanuelle B art French Film Susan Hayward, Ginette Vincendeau, 2014-04-23 The second edition of this innovative textbook brings together leading scholars to provide detailed analyses of twenty two key films within the canon of French cinema from the 1920s to the 1990s Films discussed include masterpieces such as Renoir's La Bete Humaine and Carne s Les Enfants du Paradis popular classics such as Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot and Ma Nuit chez Maud landmarks of the New Wave such as Les 400 Coups and A bout de souffle important films of the 1990s such as Nikita and La Haine The films are considered in relation to such issues as the history of French cinema the social and cultural contexts of their production and reception the relationship with Hollywood cinema gender politics authorship and genre Each article is accompanied with a guide to further reading and a filmography of the director and the new edition also includes a fully revised introduction and a bibliography on French cinema The French Cinema Book Michael Temple, Michael Witt, 2019-07-25 This thoroughly revised and expanded edition of a key textbook offers an innovative and accessible account of the richness and diversity of French film history and culture from the 1890s to the present day The contributors who include leading historians and film scholars provide an indispensable introduction to key topics and debates in French film history Each chronological section addresses seven key themes people business technology forms representations spectators and debates providing an essential overview of the cinema industry the people who worked in it including technicians and actors as well as directors and the culture of cinema going in France from the beginnings of cinema to the contemporary period Consuming History Jerome de Groot, 2016-02-08 Consuming History examines how history works in contemporary popular culture Analysing a wide range of cultural entities from computer games to daytime television it investigates the ways in which society consumes history and how a reading of this consumption can help us understand popular culture and issues of representation In this second edition Jerome de Groot probes how museums have responded to the heritage debate and how new technologies from online game playing to internet genealogy have brought about a shift in access to history discussing the often conflicted relationship between public and academic history and raising important questions about the theory and practice of history as a discipline Fully revised throughout with up to date examples from sources such as Wolf Hall Game of Thrones and 12 Years a Slave this edition also includes new sections on the historical novel gaming social media and genealogy It considers new ground breaking texts and media such as YouTube in addition to entities and practices such as re enactment that have been underrepresented in historical discussion thus far Engaging with a broad spectrum of source material and comparing the experiences of the UK the USA France and Germany as well as exploring more global trends Consuming History offers an essential path through the debates for readers interested in history cultural studies and the media

European Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2019-01-04 European Film Noir is the first book to bring together specialist discussions of film noir in specific European national cinemas Written by leading scholars this groundbreaking study provides an authoritative understanding of an important aspect of European cinema and of film noir itself for too long considered as a solely American form The Introduction reviews the problems of defining film noir its key characteristics and discusses its significance to the development of European film the relationship of specific national films noirs to each other to American noir and to historical and social change Eight chapters then discuss film noir in France Germany Britain and Spain analysing both earlier developments and the evolution of neo noir through to the present A further chapter explores film noir in Italian cinema where its presence is not so well defined Each piece provides a critical overview of the most significant films in relation to their industrial and social contexts European Film Noir is an important contribution to the study of European cinema that will have a broad appeal to undergraduates cin astes film teachers and researchers

The Trouble with Men Phil Powrie, Ann Davies, Bruce Babington, 2004 A collection of original essays focusing on masculinity and film particularly the representation of European masculinity Spilt into four sections stars class and race fathers and bodies areas covered include the Carmen films Yiddish cinema romantic comedy and beur cinema

French Comedy on Screen R. Lanzoni, 2014-10-30 French comedy films occupy a specific cultural space and are influenced by national traditions and shared cultural references but at the same time they have always been difficult to classify This book investigates the different methods in which these comedies textually inscribed and exemplified a variety of cultural and historical landmarks

Composing for the Screen in Germany and the USSR Robynn J. Stilwell, Phil Powrie, 2007-12-26 Despite the long history of music in film its serious academic study is still a relatively recent development and therefore comprises a limited body of work The contributors to this book drawn from both film studies and musicology attempt to rectify this oversight by investigating film music from the vibrant productive politically charged period before World War II They apply a variety of methodologies including archival work close readings political histories and style comparison to this under explored field

The Cinema of France Phil Powrie, 2006 An in depth look at some of the best and most influential French films of all time The Cinema of France contains 24 essays each on an individual film The book features works from the silent period and poetic realism through the stylistic developments of the New Wave and up to more contemporary challenging films from directors such as Abel Gance Jean Renoir Marcel Carné François Truffaut Jean-Luc Godard Alain Resnais Agnès Varda and Luc Besson Set in chronological order The Cinema of France provides an illuminating history of this essential national cinema and includes in depth studies of films such as Un Chien Andalou 1929 Les Vacances de Monsieur Hulot 1953 Le Samouraï 1967 Shoah 1985 Jean de Florette 1986 Les Visiteurs 1993 and La Haine 1995

French B Movies David A. Pettersen, 2023-03-07 In the impoverished outskirts of French cities known as the banlieues minority communities are turning to American culture history and theory to make their own voices cultures and histories visible Filmmakers have followed suit turning to Hollywood genre conventions to challenge notions of identity belonging and marginalization in mainstream French film French B Movies proposes that French banlieue films far from being a fringe genre offer a privileged site from which to understand the current state of the French film industry in an age of globalization This gritty style appears in popular arthouse films such as Mathieu Kassovitz's La Haine and Bande de filles Girlhood along with the major Netflix hit series Lupin David Pettersen traces how in these works and others directors fuse features of banlieue cinema with genre formulas associated with both Hollywood and Black cultural models as well as how transnational genre hybridizations such as B movies have become part of the ecosystem of the French film industry By combining film analysis cultural history critical theory and industry studies French B Movies reveals how featuring banlieues is as much about trying to imagine new identities and production models for French cinema as it is about representation

Changing Tunes: The Use of Pre-existing Music in Film Robynn Stilwell, 2017-09-08 The study of pre-existing film music is now a well established part of Film Studies covering classical music and popular music Generally these broad musical types are studied in isolation This anthology brings them together in twelve focused case studies by a range of scholars including Claudia Gorbman Jeongwon Joe Raymond Knapp and Timothy Warner The first section explores art music both instrumental and operatic it revolves around the debate on the relation between the aural and visual tracks and whether pre-existing music has an integrative function or not The second section is devoted to popular music in film and shows how very similar the functions of popular music in film are to the supposedly more elite classical music and opera Case studies in part 1 Eyes Wide Shut Raging Bull Brief Encounter Detective The Godfather Part III three versions of the Carmen story DeMille's Preminger's and Rosi's Amadeus The Birth of a Nation M Eine Stadt sucht einen Mörder Needful Things Rat Race Case studies in part 2 various films by Almodóvar Young Frankenstein Pulp Fiction Trainspotting Amelie High Fidelity Ghost World Heavenly Creatures The Virgin Suicides and the video Timber by Coldcut

The A to Z of French Cinema Dayna Oscherwitz, MaryEllen Higgins, 2009-09-02 It can be argued that cinema was created in France by Louis Lumière in 1895 with the invention of the cinématographe the first true motion picture camera and projector While there were other cameras and devices invented earlier that were capable of projecting intermittent motion of images the cinématographe was the first device capable of recording and externally projecting images in such a way as to convey motion Early films such as Lumière's La Sortie de l'usine a minute long film of workers leaving the Lumière factory captured the imagination of the nation and quickly inspired the likes of Georges Méliès Alice Guy and Charles Pathé Through the years French cinema has been responsible for producing some of the world's best directors Jean Renoir Jean-Luc Godard François Truffaut and Louis Malle and actors Charles Boyer Catherine Deneuve Gérard Philipe and Audrey Tautou The A to Z of French Cinema covers the history of French film from the silent era to the present in a concise and up to date volume detailing the development of French cinema and major theoretical and cultural issues related to it This is done through a chronology an introduction photographs a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on many of the major actors directors films movements producers and studios associated with French cinema Going beyond mere biographical information entries also discuss the impact and significance of each individual film movement or studio included This detailed scholarly analysis of the development of film in France is useful to both the novice and the expert alike

French and American Noir Alistair Rolls, Deborah Walker, 2009-08-21 A longstanding misconception surrounding the term French noir suggests that the post war French thriller and film noir were a development of or response to a pre-existing American tradition This book challenges this misconception examining the complexity of this trans Atlantic exchange and refocusing debate to include a Franco-French lineage

The American Father Onscreen Toby Reynolds, 2021-12-21 The American father is constantly depicted by contemporary Hollywood as being under pressure and forever struggling but why By utilising an analytical psychological approach this fascinating book reveals the depths complexities and nuances of the depictions of the American father and his struggles with contemporary contextual challenges and offers a fresh and intellectually exciting set of perspectives and interpretations of this key masculine figure and his effect on cinematic masculinities Using a post Jungian methodology and close textual analysis the book seeks to explore the presence and impact of the American filmic father and the effect his Shadow has on himself his children and US society It does this by examining the concept of father hunger a term popularised by the mythopoetic men's movement that holds fathers to be an essential link to the masculine continuum and masculinity in general. Analysing the role that Hollywood plays in depicting fathers and their relationships with their children and American society, The American Father Onscreen concludes that Hollywood presents the American paternal as crucial to the construction of US society and consequently American cultural myths such as the American Dream. Providing an alternative perspective into the fascinating complex and under-researched figure of the American father, this book will be of great interest to academics and students of film, gender studies, American studies and post-Jungian psychology.

European Film Music Miguel Mera, David Burnand, 2006 Miguel Mera and David Burnand present a volume that explores specific European filmic texts, composers and approaches to film scoring that have hitherto been neglected. Films involving British, French, German, Greek, Irish, Italian, Polish and Spanish composers are considered in detail. Important issues that permeate all the essays involve the working relationship of composer and director, the dialectic between the diegetic and non-diegetic uses of music in films, the music image synergism and the levels of realism that are created by the audio-visual mix.

Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg, 2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power. The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox, the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general. Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films: Korczak (Poland, 1990), The Quarrel (Canada, 1990), Entre Nous (France, 1983) and Balagan (Germany, 1994), this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today's global arena.

The French Road Movie Neil Archer, 2012-11-01 The traditionally American genre of the road movie has been explored and reconfigured in the French context since the later 1960s. Comparative in its approach, this book studies the inter-relationship between American and French culture and cinemas and, in the process, considers and challenges histories of the road movie. It combines film history with film theory methodologies, analysing transformations in social, political and film industrial contexts alongside changing perspectives on the meaning and possibilities of film. At once chronological and thematic in structure, The French Road Movie provides in each chapter a comprehensive introduction to key themes emerging from the genre in the French context: liberty, identity and citizenship, masculinity, femininity, border crossing, followed by detailed, innovative and often revisionist readings of the chosen films. Through these readings, the author justifies the place of the road genre within French cinema histories and reinvigorates this often neglected and misunderstood area of study.

When Music Takes Over in Film Anna K. Windisch, Claus Tieber, Phil Powrie, 2023-05-02 This open access collection deals with musical moments in film as one of the most pivotal and compelling issues of current film music research.

Musical moments as defined by Amy Herzog occur when a musical number inverts the normal relationship between the image track and the soundtrack in a film in such a way that what we see is determined by what we hear. As one potential approach, this definition provokes a variety of perspectives to investigate the disruptive potential of these moments and numbers as a creative device in the production of audiovisual narratives. In this sense, the book responds to a need for an anthology that introduces students as well as scholars of cinema, musicology, media studies, and cultural studies more broadly to recent discourses in film music scholarship. The volume includes contributions by early career researchers as well as by established experts in the fields of musicology, film studies, media studies, and cultural studies, promoting cross-disciplinary collaboration in film music research.
