French Feminisms Gender And Violence In Contemporary Theory:

French Feminisms Gill Allwood, 2012-09-10 In this text Gill Allwood explores theories of masculinity emerging from French feminist theories of gender and from French feminist practice concerning violence towards women highlighting both the commonalities and the specificities of the French case She discusses the particular concern of French theorists with seduction their rejection of the term gender and the centrality of the difference debate In the first part of the book Allwood separately examines feminist theories of gender and sexual difference and the problem of male violence She goes on to consider the developments which are taking place on the borderline between the two examining the way in which these developments have contributed to an understanding of masculinity Readdressing problems and debates that will be familiar to English speaking readers the text exposes cultural differences and similarities in the ways in which these problems are approached and it provides a detailed account of the changes in both feminist action and theory in France in recent years This analysis of feminism in France should be of interest to student and scholars in French studies European studies gender studies and cultural studies

French Feminisms Gill Allwood, 1998 The Risky Business of French Feminism Jennifer L. Sweatman, 2014-08-26 The Risky Business of French Feminism Publishing Politics and Artistry examines the institutional history of the publishing house Editions des Femmes as well as its relationship to the French Women's Liberation Movement MLF from 1972 to the present The founding and subsequent success of Editions des Femmes in the publishing milieu intensified the ideological divisions within the MLF and highlighted the extent to which that movement failed to adequately reflect on the power inherent in its recourse to print culture as an agent of change In particular Editions des Femmes produced several periodical publications and pioneered a woman centered subculture that attached militant political meanings to the practice of buying and publishing books While the MLF succeeded in changing legislation detrimental to women it was not able to create unified cultural politics or construct a long term media strategy that could preserve the movement's original ideals and unity Jennifer L Sweatman explores the long term dissipation of the MLF as a unified force not only as an outcome of ideological disagreement but also due to conflicting views on culture women's creativity as a strategy for empowerment and the utility of media for creating change As the MLF fragmented unable to fully come to terms with its various consumer identities its need for capital to support creative projects and its difficult experience with collective decision making the Editions des Femmes project was seen as incredibly controversial However Editions des Femmes embodied a broader strategy for cultural transformation that privileged women's creative works rather than feminism situating it as a successful forerunner of the revitalization of the publishing industry from below as small independent houses challenged the large media conglomerate control of the industry

Hamley,2019-01-30 The story of the raped and murdered woman of Judges 19 and the civil war and mass marriage that ensue in chapters 20 21 are hardly favorite tales of the Hebrew Bible The chapters have often been dismissed as little more than an anachronistic epilogue an awkward amalgamation of earlier stories or a text of terror proof of patriarchal oppression This book argues that far from being a clumsy collage Judges 19 21 is a carefully narrated tale that chronicles the descent of a nation into extreme individualism and fragmentation In dialogue with continental philosopher Luce Irigaray it will uncover the dynamics of identity formation and how differential constructions of identity of the One and the Other yield patterns of victimization and justification of violence This literary philosophical reading will bring out silences and missed possibilities for the subjectivity of women whilst also shedding light on the victimization of men within the logic of totalitarian identity constructions The end of Judges therefore offers a theological conclusion to the book as a whole and opens up avenues for thought on theological anthropology understandings of identity and gender and a theological commentary on violence

Luce Irigaray and the Philosophy of Sexual Difference Alison Stone,2006-05-15 Alison Stone offers a feminist defence of the idea that sexual difference is natural providing a novel interpretation of the later philosophy of Luce Irigaray She defends Irigaray s unique form of essentialism and her rethinking of the relationship between nature and culture showing how Irigaray s ideas can be reconciled with Judith Butler s performative conception of gender through rethinking sexual difference in relation to German Romantic philosophies of nature This is a sustained attempt to connect feminist conceptions of embodiment to German idealist and Romantic accounts of nature Not merely an interpretation of Irigaray this book also presents an original feminist perspective on nature and the body It will encourage debate on the relations between sexual difference essentialism and embodiment Michel Houellebecq and the Literature of Despair Carole

Sweeney,2013-11-21 Widely acknowledged as an important if highly controversial figure in contemporary literature French novelist and poet Michel Houellebecq has elicited diverse critical responses In this book Carole Sweeney examines his novels as a response to the advance of neoliberalism into all areas of affective human life This historicizing study argues that le monde houellebecquien is an atomised society of banal quotidian alienation populated by quietly resentful men who are the botched subjects of late capitalism Addressing Houellebecq s handling of the failure of the radical thought of 68 Sweeney looks at the ways in which his fiction treats feminism the decline of religion and the family as well as the obsolescence of

French theory and the Sartrean notion of engaged literature Reading the world with the disappointed idealism of a contemporary moralist Houellebecq's novels Sweeney argues fluctuate between despair for the world as it is and a limp utopian hope for a post humanity Between Marx and Coca-Cola Axel Schildt, Detlef Siegfried, 2006 In the 1960s and 70s a new youth consciousness emerged in Western Europe which gave this period its distinct character This volume demonstrates how international developments fused with national traditions producing specific youth cultures that became leading trendsetters of emergent post industrial Western societies French Feminists on Religion Morny Joy, Kathleen O'Grady, Judith L. Forgotten Engagements Angela Kershaw,2007-01-01 This study is the first to examine the contribution made by women writers to politically committed literature in 1930s France Its purpose is to bring to light the work of female authors of left wing fiction whose novels are comparable to those of well known male practitioners of litt rature engag e such as Paul Nizan and Louis Aragon It analyses the work of Madeleine Pelletier Simone T ry Edith Thomas Henriette Valet and Louise Weiss in the context of the inter war models of committed literature in relation to which they were produced Consideration of this body of fictional texts not previously brought together by literary historians shows how women were able to relate to fiction and to politics in inter war France Situating the novels within their social historical literary and political environment the book contributes to the literary and cultural history of twentieth century France The analysis of inter war political writing by women calls into question the criteria against which women s writing has been evaluated by feminist scholarship Women, Ideology and Violence Cheryl Anderson,2006-01-01 Cheryl Anderson examines the laws relating to women that are found in the Book of the Covenant and the Deuteronomic law She argues that the laws can be divided into those that treat women similarly to men defined as inclusive laws and those that treat women differently exclusive laws She then suggests that the exclusive laws which construct gender as male dominance female subordination do not just describe violence against women but are inherently violent toward women As a non historical critique of ideology critical theory is used to offer analytical insights that have significant implications for understanding gender constructions in both ancient and contemporary settings
