The Cinema Book Bloomsbury Publishing,2019-07-25 The Cinema Book is widely recognised as the ultimate guide to cinema Authoritative and comprehensive the third edition has been extensively revised updated and expanded in response to developments in cinema and cinema studies Lavishly illustrated in colour this edition features a wealth of exciting new sections and in depth case studies Sections address Hollywood and other World cinema histories key genres in both fiction and non-fiction film issues such as stars technology and authorship and major theoretical approaches to understanding film

The Cinema of Catherine Breillat Sophie Bélot,2017-08-28 In The Cinema of Catherine Breillat B. lot offers a detailed analysis of Breillat's past and recent films Breillat is one of the most internationally renowned French women filmmakers whose notoriety is built on her explicit representation of women's sexuality Most of her films rely on a female protagonist's personal and intimate search of her self characterised by her sexual journey Facing censorship and controversy Breillat's films do not easily fit classification and place the viewer into an uncomfortable position This study looks at Breillat as an independent cinema auteur entertaining a close relation with her films by exploring and positing women from adolescence to adulthood as sexual beings reflecting her films identity emanating from Breillat's personal or intimate scenes

Queer Movie Medievalisms Tison Pugh, 2016-12-05 How is history even possible since it involves recapturing a past already lost It is through this urge to understand feel and experience that films based on medieval history are made They attempt to re create the past but can only do so through a queer re visioning that inevitably replicates modernity In these mediations between past and present history becomes misty and so too do constructions of gender and sexuality leading to the impossibility of heterosexuality or of any sexuality predicated upon cinematic medievalism Queer Movie Medievalisms is the first book of its kind to grapple with the ways in which mediations between past and present as registered on the silver screen queerly undercut assumptions about sexuality throughout time It will be of great interest to scholars of Gender and Sexuality Cultural and Media Studies Film Studies and Medieval History

Contexts in Translating Eugene A. Nida, 2002-11-29 Contexts in Translating is designed to help translators understand the varieties of contexts and their importance for understanding a text and reproducing the meaning in another language The contexts include the historical setting of writing a text the cultural components that make a text unique the types of audiences for which the translation is intended and the most efficient and effective ways of producing a satisfactory representation of the source language text The structural levels of language are described and the principal features of text organization are also explained In addition the main features of various books on translation are outlined and a chapter on basic theories of translation is followed by a selective bibliography

A Companion to Jean Renoir Alastair Phillips, Ginette Vincendeau, 2013-04-11 A Companion to Jean Renoir An extraordinary collection of essays that more than fulfills the aims of its editors Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau The essays offer exciting original work from younger scholars as well as long established authorities all of which offer invaluable insights into the films writings and life of Jean Renoir Receiving particular attention are questions about the singularity or multiplicity of what the editors call the many Renoirs French American Indian even transnational especially from the early 1930s through the early 1960s Whether mining relatively unexplored archive materials deploying newly current methodological approaches interrogating one of a wide range of topics and issues or engaging in close textual analysis the contributors construct a tantalizing series of innovative road maps for future researchers to pursue Richard Abel University of Michigan Alastair Phillips and Ginette Vincendeau have brought together essays that bring new perspectives to both the best known and the lesser known of Renoir's films Both French cinema specialists and viewers new to Renoir's work will find much of interest in this outstanding collection Judith Mayne Ohio State University Dubbed simply the best director by François Truffaut Jean Renoir is a towering figure in world film history This exhaustive survey of his work and life features a comprehensive analysis of his films from the multiple critical perspectives of the world's leading Renoir scholars Renoir's career spanned four decades and four countries and included an extraordinary body of films some of which La Grande illusion 1937 and La Règle du jeu 1939 are universally recognized masterpieces Fathered by the celebrated painter Pierre Auguste Renoir the filmmaker lived through much of the twentieth century beginning his career in the silent era and ending it in full Technicolor His films are notable for their paradoxical combination of strong internal coherence and thematic breadth and diversity and they provide a rich source for today's scholars of film history and French culture This handbook the largest volume on Renoir ever produced in the English language ranges in scope from extreme close up analysis of individual films to long shot explorations of his aesthetics and the social and cultural contexts in which he worked The most ambitious critical study of Renoir to date this book will appeal to film enthusiasts as much as scholars and specialists

Cinema in a Transnational Context Ewa Mazierska, Michael Goddard, 2014 The opening up of Poland economically and politically to global influences after the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989 coupled with the rise of transnational approaches to the study of film presents ideal conditions for examining Polish cinema from a transnational vantage point Yet not only have studies of Polish cinema remained largely within a national framework but Polish cinema as well as many other Eastern European cinemas has been virtually excluded from new research in transnational cinema Polish cinema in a transnational context addresses this lacuna in film studies offering extended analysis of this national cinema's global influence Contributors assess the reception of Polish films in Europe and North America Polish international coproductions the presence of Polish performers in foreign films and the works of subversive migr auteurs like Andrzej u awski and Walerian
