French Flea Bites:

French Flea Bites George East, 2000-06-01 For fifteen years humourist writer raconteur and generally funny man George East and his wife Donella lived in the remnants of an old water mill in the heart of Normandy's Cherbourg peninsula. The former night club bouncer, radio presenter, seamstress and professional bed tester's accounts of the couple's life and times in and around the tiny village of Nehou have been enjoyed by millions. This is the FOURTH book in the best selling Mill of the Flea series, continuing the often farcical and always entertaining adventures of the author and his wife as they attempt to make a new life in rural France. In FRENCH FLEA BITES new characters and bizarre situations encountered by our innocents abroad include a man who believes he died in 1979, a cat who becomes a werewolf at full moon and a plan to turn a farmyard compost heap into Nehou's answer to the Millennium Dome. Totally unlike any other book in the genre, FRENCH FLEA BITES covers another eventful year for our hero and his wife as they stumble knee deep through the rice pudding of their lives in darkest rural Normandy and at the Mill of the Flea. This episode introduces another galaxy of weird characters and situations and a number of distinctly distinctive recipes such as the favourite dishes of an alleged Ancient Egyptian god and his travelling companion EVERY TYPE and age of reader from the confirmed Francophile or Francophobe to the armchair adventurer or anyone in search of a rattling good and very funny read will LOVE this book. Funny, clever, often poignant and always hugely entertaining. Above all, so true about life and people anywhere on the planet. As usual, George has given us his beautifully idiosyncratic view of life in rural France. As ever, it is very, very funny and achingly true throughout. For those with the ability to understand that observation is much more important than actuality, this is another masterclass in humanity.

French Kisses George East, 2003-06-01 In FRENCH KISSES, George East, our world famous raconteur, funny man and the ultimate innocent abroad, encounters another array of weird characters and situations as the notorious Fox of Cotentin nobbles the local chicken show and a fishing boat disguised as a carrot runs aground in a village square. Elsewhere, a Parisian clock repairer poses as the Prince of Darkness while a synchronised drinking team clashes with the baton dropping champions of all Normandy. There's also the descendant of Nostradamus who makes his predictions after rather than before the event. If you like to laugh at life and the foibles and follies of human nature anywhere, just relax, pucker up and enjoy some affectionate embraces from a master story teller. George East is the present day guru of French Living and Life with the French countryside. French Lessons George East, 2007-06-01 He's back and this time it's really serious. Failed rock legend, pickled onion manufacturer, air hostess and euro entrepreneur, George East takes us through another eventful year of his doomed attempts to make a living out of living in rural France. Fleeing from the Mill of the Flea with creditors in hot pursuit, our hero and his long suffering wife arrive at a rambling manor house on the vast and brooding stretches of the Normandy marshlands. The cunning plan is to set up a fox sanctuary, chicken farm and arts & crafts commune for the creatively challenged, but the Easts' new home soon reveals its grim secrets. A lifeline is offered by a stranger with a scheme to bring the delights of the Great British Pub to homesick expatriates The George Inn Sometimes will be the first of a chain of hugely successful anglo pubs stretching from Normandy to Nice and beyond At least thats the idea As the clock ticks towards opening time and final financial meltdown for the ultimate innocent abroad we encounter another host of improbable and frankly sometimes unbelievable characters and situations The amazing thing is that any of it is true Will George find fame fortune and contentment or has this modern Micawber taken his final drink in the Last Chance Saloon

A Jovial Crew Richard Brome, 2014-02-27 A Jovial Crew or the Merry Beggars is a comedy about four noble lovers who join the beggar community for a pastoral life of dance and song Or is it Whilst maintaining its unremitting good humour A Jovial Crew shows that the literary depiction of beggar life and real beggar life are profoundly different Daily aspects of life in the beggar world poverty dirt licentiousness come as a surprise to the well born who are ultimately led to question their own values The last production mounted before theatres were closed for the English Civil War A Jovial Crew's exploration of class commonwealth kinship and kingship shows an intense engagement with contemporary politics This edition with dedicated sections on music and language in the play argues that A Jovial Crew also offers a nostalgic farewell to English theatre It explores Brome's attitude to performance and print and follows A Jovial Crew from its first Caroline staging to its later manifestations as a Restoration comedy an eighteenth century opera and a twentieth century proto Marxist tragicomedy

French's Index of Differential Diagnosis Arthur H. Douthwaite, 2014-06-05 AFTER the appearance of the sixth edition Herbert French had resolved to take no active part in any future production I decided that it was not only desirable but necessary to undertake considerable reconstruction in the next edition Although the basic principles of diagnosis must be static for all time the considerably increased scope of investigation by accessory aids demanded the inclusion of much new material and in many instances the production of entirely re-written rather than revised articles especially as many of the earlier contributors have died or retired By a more logical division and allocation among new contributors considerable overlapping or repetition evident in earlier editions has been avoided and has resulted it is hoped in a more compact and generally useful work It will be noticed that the title has been altered to conform to the actual contents By judicious pruning the index has been simplified and abbreviated whilst retaining all essential references This has been carried out by the publishers Messrs John Wright Sons of Bristol with an accuracy ensured from their wide experience The highest standard of format and printing confidently expected has been maintained For many of the illustrations I am indebted to Professor J Whillis who is in charge of the Department of Medical Illustration Guy's Hospital and to Dr T H Hills Director of the Department of Diagnostic Radiology Guy's Hospital In other cases acknowledgment of the source is appended to the picture To the deletion of obsolete material and the inclusion of much that is new must be added the editorial complication of extensive cross references when several independent contributors have to be correlated a difficulty enhanced by the long interval that has been unavoidable between the submitting of manuscripts and publication I have been exceptionally fortunate in having as counsellor collaborator and contributor Sir Adolphe Abrahams He has spared no pains in respect of writing proof reading and general advice to help me to carry on the work of my old teacher To him I offer my warmest thanks

French Head Quarters 1915-1918 Jean de Pierrefeu, 2014-06-13 A Journalist in charge of the daily military communiques at French headquarters gives his view of the events as he saw them under the changing French war leadership Although information on the early years of Jean de Pierrefeu is sketchy even in his native France however it is known that he started his journalistic career in 1905 and by 1908 was working for the political weekly L'Opinion His career continued leaning toward nationalist sympathies until he was mobilized as part of the French Army reserves Swiftly wounded and invalided out of the line he began working for the Grand Quartier Général in 1915 as part of the staff dealing with the evening new bulletins He would have to use all of his journalistic skill to be as economical with the brutal truth of the losses and reverses at the front suffered by the French during 1915-1918 During this period he met with all of the senior officers of the French High Command of whom he had varied opinions of their skill it was during this time that he began to become disillusioned with the French leadership After the First World War ended Pierrefeu sharpened his criticisms and published his damning criticism of the French Army as French Headquarters 1915-1918 He is frequently critical of his superiors and the elegant lifestyle at headquarters and holds back nothing in his vivid depiction of army life The writer of this amusing book had the task of drawing up each evening the communiqué of French General Headquarters What he writes is military gossip rather than military history but he gives an interesting insight into the life of the headquarters under Joffre Nivelle and Pétain p 67 Cyril Falls War Books London 1930
