French Impressions:

French Impressions: John S. Littell, 2000-09-01 In 1950 as many families were establishing lives in suburbia Mary and Frank Littell decided to uproot their young family from the comfort of their home in the United States and move to France for a year. Now decades later their son John S. Littell who was four years old at the time of their French exploration brings his mother's journals to life and tells the story of living in the working class town of Montpellier from her perspective. French Impressions: The Adventures of an American Family chronicles one family's adventures abroad as Mary struggles to maintain a home in a new culture and to cook the local cuisine while Frank traverses to various bars and nightly reads Great Expectations to his toddlers. These often comedic and heartening familial struggles will at once seem familiar and lost to the times gone by.

French Lessons George East, 2007-06-01 He's back and this time it's really serious. Failed rock legend pickled onion manufacturer air hostess and euro entrepreneur George East takes us through another eventful year of his doomed attempts to make a living out of living in rural France. Fleeing from the Mill of the Flea with creditors in hot pursuit our hero and his long suffering wife arrive at a rambling manor house on the vast and brooding stretches of the Normandy marshlands. The cunning plan is to set up a fox sanctuary chicken farm and arts crafts commune for the creatively challenged but the East's new home soon reveals its grim secrets. A lifeline is offered by a stranger with a scheme to bring the delights of the Great British Pub to homesick expatriates. The George Inn. Sometimes will be the first of a chain of hugely successful anglo pubs stretching from Normandy to Nice and beyond. At least that's the idea. As the clock ticks towards opening time and final financial meltdown for the ultimate innocent abroad we encounter another host of improbable and frankly sometimes unbelievable characters and situations. The amazing thing is that any of it is true. Will George find fame fortune and contentment or has this modern Micawber taken his final drink in the Last Chance Saloon.

French Flea Bites George East, 2000-06-01 For fifteen years humourist writer raconteur and generally funny man George East and his wife Donella lived in the remnants of an old water mill in the heart of Normandy's Cherbourg peninsula The former night club bouncer radio presenter seamstress and professional bed tester's accounts of the couple's life and times in and around the tiny village of Nehou have been enjoyed by millions This is the FOURTH book in the best selling Mill of the Flea series continuing the often farcical and always entertaining adventures of the author and his wife as they attempt to make a new life in rural France In FRENCH FLEA BITES new characters and bizarre situations encountered by our innocents abroad include a man who believes he died in 1979 a cat who becomes a werewolf at full moon and a plan to turn a farmyard compost heap into Nehou's answer to the Millennium Dome Totally unlike any other book in the genre FRENCH FLEA BITES covers another eventful year for our hero and his wife as they stumble knee deep through the rice pudding of their lives in darkest rural Normandy and at the Mill of the Flea This episode introduces another galaxy of weird characters and situations and a number of distinctly distinctive recipes such as the favourite dishes of an alleged Ancient Egyptian god and his travelling companion EVERY TYPE and age of reader from the confirmed Francophile or Francophobe to the armchair adventurer or anyone in search of a rattling good and very funny read will LOVE this book Funny clever often poignant and always hugely entertaining Above all so true about life and people anywhere on the planet As usual George has given us his beautifully idiosyncratic view of life in rural France As ever it is very very funny and achingly true throughout For those with the ability to understand that observation is much more important than actuality this is another masterclass in humanity

Queer Impressions Elaine Pigeon, 2013-11-05

Beginning with The Portrait of a Lady this book shows how in developing his unique form of realism James highlights the tragic consequences of his American heroine's Romantic imagination in particular her Emersonian idealism In order to expose Emerson's blind spot a lacuna at the very centre of his New England Transcendentalism James draws on the Gothic effects of Nathaniel Hawthorne and Edgar Allan Poe thereby producing an intensification of Isabel Archer's psychological state and precipitating her awakening to a fuller heightened consciousness Thus Romanticism takes an aesthetic turn becoming distinctly Paterian and unleashing queer possibilities that are further developed in James's subsequent fiction This book follows the Paterian thread leading to The Author of Beltraffio and Thophile Gauthier and thereby establishing an important connection with French culture Drawing on James's famous analogy between the art of fiction and the art of the painter the book explores a possible link to the Impressionist painters associated with the literary circle mile Zola dominated It then turns to A New England Winter a tale about an American Impressionist painter and finds traces leading back to James's initiation pr miere The book closes with an exploration of the possible sources of Kate Croy's unspeakable father in The Wings of the Dove and proposes a possible intertext one that provides direct insight into the Victorian closet

French Kisses George East, 2003-06-01 In FRENCH KISSES George East our world famous raconteur funny man and the ultimate innocent abroad encounters another array of weird characters and situations as the notorious Fox of Cotentin nobbles the local chicken show and a fishing boat disguised as a carrot runs aground in a village square Elsewhere a Parisian clock repairer poses as the Prince of Darkness while a synchronised drinking team clashes with the baton dropping champions of all Normandy There s also the descendant of Nostradamus who makes his predictions after rather than before the event If you like to laugh at life and the foibles and follies of human nature anywhere just relax pucker up and enjoy some affectionate embraces from a master story teller George East is the present day guru of French Living and Life with the French countryside 150 Fabulous Foolproof French Regional Recipes Donella East,2012-05-31 1st in series of French Regional Foolproof cookbooks Billboard ,1960-02-15 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends French Letters George East,1999-06-01 George East is by far one of the funniest story tellers and raconteurs on the planet today and the third book in the best selling MILL OF THE FLEA series continuing the often farcical and always entertaining adventures of the author and his wife as they attempt to make a new life in rural France Totally unlike any other book in the genre FRENCH LETTERS takes the reader on another visit to a remote area of Normandy where time is of little value and reluctant tractors and their drivers are kick started on frosty mornings with a tot of moonshine apple brandy During another eventful year at the Mill of the Flea the author and his wife once again encounter a host of improbable characters and situations like the vegetarian couple who set up home next to a veal farm and an elderly post mistress who grows highly illegal pot plants while enticing a colony of hornets to set up home in her attic ReviewsGeorge s tremendous love of life shows in all the couple s exploits as does Donella s affection for George and her animals shared fifty fifty one surmises There s a lot of wisdom in this book or a lot of sound sense if you prefer it I just wish he could write them a bit quicker R Roller JCBJust read French Letters what fun George East s first book Home and Dry in France was my first encounter with this hilarious author His second book Rene and Me confirmed his genius and I didn t think he could pull off a hat trick but he has French Letters is so funny from a bingo game in Nehou to the Tour de France all the familiar characters are there you must meet the Miserables what a scream I laughed all the way through Encore s il vous plait J Bean NY Whistler Lasting Impressions Jesse Matz,2017-01-31 Impressionism captured the world s imagination in the late nineteenth century and remains with us today Portraying the dynamic effects of modernity impressionist artists revolutionized the arts and the wider culture Impressionism transformed the very pattern of reality introducing new ways to look at and think about the world and our experience of it Its legacy has been felt in many major contributions to popular and high culture from cubism and early cinema to the works of Zadie Smith and W G Sebald from advertisements for Pepsi to the observations of Oliver Sacks and Malcolm Gladwell Yet impressionism s persistence has also been a problem a matter of inauthenticity superficiality and complicity in what is merely impressionistic about culture today Jesse Matz considers these two legacies the positive and the negative to explain impressionism s true contemporary significance As Lasting Impressions moves through contemporary literature painting and popular culture Matz explains how the perceptual role cultural effects and social implications of impressionism continue to generate meaning and foster new forms of creativity understanding and public engagement

The Image in French Philosophy Temenuga Trifonova, 2007 The Image in French Philosophy challenges dominant interpretations of Bergson Sartre Lyotard Baudrillard and Deleuze by arguing that their philosophy was not a critique but a revival of metaphysics as a thinking pertaining to impersonal forces and distinguished by an aversion to subjectivity and an aversion of the philosophical gaze away from the discourse of vision and thus away from the image Insofar as the image was part of the discourse of subjectivity representation getting rid of the subject involved smuggling the concept of the image out of the discourse of subjectivity representation into a newly revived and ethically flavored metaphysical discourse a metaphysics of immanence which was more interested in consciousness rather than subjectivity in the inhuman rather than the human in the virtual rather than the real in Time rather than temporalization in Memory rather than memory images in Imagination rather than images in sum in impersonal forces de personalizing experiences states of dis embodiment characterized by the breaking down of sensory motor schemata Bergson's pure memory Sartre's image consciousness Deleuze's time image or more generally in that which remains beyond representation i.e. beyond subjectivity Lyotard's sublime Baudrillard's fatal object The book would be of interest to scholars and students of philosophy aesthetics and film theory
