French Style/Postcards Suzanne Slesin, Stafford Cliff, Jacques Dirand, 1990-10-01 French Fashion Plate Postcards Florence Leniston, 1989 New York City's Financial District in Vintage Postcards Randall Gabrielan, 2000 The early decades of the twentieth century were among the most vibrant for both New York City and the world of postcards The 1898 consolidation of the city's five boroughs sparked a building boom that inspired a heightened awareness of the city's changing landscape In response to this new appreciation the postcard industry began a colorful pictorial record that was especially rich for New York The Edwardian Picture Postcard as a Communications Revolution Julia Gillen, 2023-07-13 This monograph offers a novel investigation of the Edwardian picture postcard as an innovative form of multimodal communication revealing much about the creativity concerns and lives of those who used postcards as an almost instantaneous form of communication In the early twentieth century the picture postcard was a revolutionary way of combining short messages with an image making use of technologies in a way impossible in the decades since until the advent of the digital revolution This book offers original insights into the historical and social context in which the Edwardian picture postcard emerged and became a craze It also expands the field of Literacy Studies by illustrating the combined use of posthuman multimodal historic and linguistic methodologies to conduct an in depth analysis of the communicative sociolinguistic and relational functions of the postcard Particular attention is paid to how study of the picture postcard can reveal details of the lives and literacy practices of often overlooked sectors of the population such as working class women The Edwardian era in the United Kingdom was one of extreme inequalities and rapid social change and picture postcards embodied the dynamism of the times Grounded in an analysis of a unique open access digitized collection of 3 000 picture postcards this monograph will be of interest to researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of Literacy Studies sociolinguistics history of communications and UK social history Teddy Bear All-Occasion Postcards Crystal Collins-Sterling, 1990-09-01 Charming portraits of teddy bears celebrating holidays like Valentine's Day Christmas and the Fourth of July as well as special occasions such as birthdays and weddings Marbelized Design Lauren Clark, 1992-11-01 Distinctive postcards feature fanciful peacock motifs depicted in subtle hues of gold green and rose dramatic comb and snail creations in complementary earth tones tumbling waves in a profusion of blues grays and magentas and exotic free form stone designs in airy pastels deep lavenders and aquamarines 24 full color cards Postcards from the Chihuahua Border Daniel D. Arreola, 2019-11-22 Just a trolley ride from El Paso Ciudad Ju rez was a popular destination in the early 1900s Enticing and exciting tourists descended on this and other Mexican border towns to browse curio shops dine and dance attend bullfights and perhaps escape Prohibition America In Postcards from the Chihuahua Border Daniel D Arreola captures the exhilaration of places in time taking us back to Mexico's northern border towns of Ciudad Ju rez Ojinaga and Palomas in the early twentieth century Drawing on more than three decades of archival work Arreola uses postcards and maps to unveil the history of these towns along west Texas's and New Mexico's southern borders. Postcards offer a special kind of visual evidence. Arreola's collection of imagery and commentary about them shows us singular places enriching our understandings of history and the history of change in Chihuahua. No one postcard tells the entire story. But image after image offers a collected view and insight into changing perceptions. Arreola's geography of place looks both inward and outward. We see what tourists see while at the same time gaining insight about what postcard photographers and postcard publishers wanted to be seen and perceived about these border communities. Postcards from the Chihuahua Border is a colorful and dynamic visual history. It invites the reader to time travel to revisit another era, the first half of the last century when these border towns were framed and made popular through picture postcards. Hatemail Salo Aizenberg, 2013-11-01

Published by the University of Nebraska Press as a Jewish Publication Society book The Postcard's Radical Openness Mariluz Restrepo, 2024-04-05. The Postcard's Radical Openness offers a groundbreaking exploration of what this multifaceted double-sided open card entails and how it has affected our being in the world. With a holistic approach, it focuses on studying the postcard's specific way of being and performing a particular ontology that opens up what is constitutively implicated in such an apparently trivial artifact. The book organized into four parts meticulously unveils the postcard's political, technological, aesthetic, and ethical dimensions, ending with a coda correlating the postcard's radical openness to G. Klimt's painting Nuda Veritas 1899 in reference to the scope of truth. By examining the postcard's complex worldwide history, its socio-cultural significance, and its global effect, the book reveals hidden stories, shedding light on its impact on photography, printing, marketing, trade, and business practices, and exposes the aesthetic, communicative, and ethical qualities that lie behind the enormous success of postcards at the turn of the 20th century. This comprehensive study is positioned as a thought-provoking invitation to scholars and students interested in material culture, media studies, and human interactions, as well as to history enthusiasts, art lovers, and postcard collectors. Offering a distinctive contribution, the book not only fills a void in the literature but also encourages readers to question and reflect on the transformative power inherent in the postcard's radical openness, presenting a novel and unparalleled analysis of this seemingly trivial yet culturally significant object. Indochina Now and Then George Fetherling, 2012-03-03. Follow George Fetherling as he travels through Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia looking for any remaining traces of the Indochina that was. In Indochina Now and Then George Fetherling recounts multiple journeys through Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia, keeping an eye peeled and an ear cocked for whatever faint traces of French rule might remain. While doing so, he searches diligently in village markets, curio shops, and rubbish bins, not to mention bookstalls along the Seine in Paris for early picture postcards of Southeast Asia, the sort that native Frenchmen and Frenchwomen sent home to Europe. The book is illustrated with 60 such images, most of them taken before the First World War. They evoke vanished ways of life in these exotic lands of charm and cruelty that have survived the wars and turmoil of the late 20th century to emerge smiling enigmatically as the friendly face of free market socialism. In its prose and pictures Indochina Now and Then is a travel narrative that will leave an indelible impression in the reader's imagination

60 Postcards Rachael Chadwick, 2015-02-26 The heartfelt and uplifting story of how a project to scatter 60 Postcards in memory of her mother helped a young girl come to terms with her loss On 11 February 2012 Rachael Chadwick lost her Mother to cancer just sixteen days after first being diagnosed and her world shattered right in front of her Utterly fed up of the milestones and reminders in December of that year she decided she would do something different and created a project based around her Mum's approaching 60th Birthday Desperate to spread the word about the wonderful person she had lost Rachael had the brainwave of leaving notes around a city in her memory Deciding she would take it a step further she wondered what would happen if she could ask people to respond to her Full of hope and energy she hand wrote sixty postcards each with her email address at the bottom asking the finder to get in touch But one question remained where should she go Knowing how much she longed to visit Paris the last gift that Rachael's mum had given her was Eurostar vouchers and so it seemed fitting that this would be her chosen city So off she went with a group of friends to celebrate discover and to scatter her memories Filling their time in Paris with sight seeing food and drink laughter and of course postcards
