

COMMUNICATION

FRANCE

01 FRIENDSHIP

Friendship is a very important part of life. It is a relationship between two people who like each other and want to spend time together. Friends help each other and make life more fun. In France, people value friendship very much. They often spend time with their friends, going to the park, playing sports, or just talking. Friends are like family in France.

02 TABLE MANNERS

Table manners are the rules for how to behave at a table. In France, table manners are very important. People are expected to eat slowly and talk to each other. It is not polite to talk with your mouth full or to use your hands to eat. People often use cutlery (forks, knives, and spoons) to eat. It is also polite to say 'bon appétit' before eating and 'merci' after a meal.

03 ARTS

Arts are a very important part of French culture. There are many different types of arts, including painting, music, dance, and theater. In France, people love to go to museums, galleries, and theaters. They also enjoy listening to music and watching dance performances. Arts are a way for people to express their creativity and share their ideas with others.

04 LA BISE

La bise is a traditional French greeting. It is a kiss on the cheek. In France, people often greet each other with a bise. It is a sign of friendship and affection. The number of bises varies by region. In some places, people give one bise, while in others, they give two or even three. It is important to know the local custom when visiting France.

French For Communication 1979-1990:

French for Communication, 1979-1990 Roy Dunning, 1994 This book sets out the background to the communicative language teaching project pioneered in Leicestershire bringing together LEAs examination boards advisers teachers and researchers The author contrasts the integrated language approach of the project with the discrete skills basis of the National Criteria and the GCSE 1979-1990 Henryk Sawoniak, 2012-02-14 No detailed description available for 1979 1990

Ethnicity in Eastern Europe Sue Wright, Helen Kelly, 1994 This book examines the dynamic role that language plays as a unifying factor in maintaining and reinforcing national identity in Central and Eastern Europe in the post communist period when new nation states were formed It covers linguistic identity linguistic exclusion or inclusion languages in contact and languages in conflict Cric Crac! Roy Dunning, 1997 Discussing story telling in the French classroom this text consists of 5 texts each for learners with 2 3 4 5 and 6 7 years experience respectively A picture version accompanies the stories of level one Levels one and two offer an unpunctuated version of the stories for language sequencing purposes In addition there is a range of activities for teaching the language and the process of storytelling for each level Resources in Education , 1994

Distance Education for Language Teachers Ron Howard, Ian McGrath, 1995 Distance learning was associated for many years with the endeavour of a correspondence course Based on a symposium this book presents current research and practice in the field "Francophonie" in the 1990's D. E. Ager, 1996 Makes accessible to English speakers the current status of the development and distribution of the French language the international movement for using it through nearly 50 countries and regions and the cultural and political values it offers to the rest of the world Outlines the development and distribution of Francophonie problems of culture and identity the last colonies economics and organization and prospects in Africa Asia and the Pacific and Europe For North Americans places the otherwise sometimes perplexing concerns of Quebec into a historical and international perspective Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Language

Reclamation Hubisi Nwenmely, 1996 Nwenmely community studies U of Reading first attended then taught London classes in Kweyol an Afro French creole She draws on her experience and other sources to describe the origins and development of classes there and in the eastern Caribbean She also discusses the linguistic and social reasons people study the language the written support such as dictionaries and grammars the role of standardization and questions of assessment and accreditation No index Distributed in the US by Taylor and Francis Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Validation in Language Testing Alister H. Cumming, Richard Berwick, 1996 The validation of language tests is widely discussed and expected but only in recent years have researchers adopted a variety of innovative techniques for developing assessing and validating specific tests of second or foreign language proficiency and their impact on education and society Indeed as the present volume clearly demonstrates many different techniques for empirical analysis and types of evidence may be used to assess and interpret the validity of diverse aspects of language tests as well as the consequences they may have for language

Teacher Education for Languages for Specific Purposes Ron Howard, Gillian Brown, 1997 This work summarizes and synthesizes the substantial crime prevention literature to provide an approachable and comprehensive text for students It sets out a critical analysis in the context of the politics of criminal justice policy

The Good Language Learner Neil Naiman, 1996 This book is one of the most influential research studies on Second Language Learning ever undertaken The Good Language Learner addresses key problems for teachers about the strategies that successful learners use the attitudes they show to the language they are learning the nature of their most successful experiences and similar issues It is based on the direct experience of a wide range of learners It enables us to recognise the combined roles of fluency activity and natural communication on the one hand and accuracy activity with formal understanding of the language system and the mistakes that one is liable to make as a learner on the other hand Few works of empirical analysis in language teaching have had so much influence and this edition should be an essential component of any teacher's library in local authority centres schools teacher education institutions and the home library of language teachers

Le Ou La? Marie Surridge, 1995 A practical manual designed to help students of French to conquer the problem of genders The author simplifies the task by dividing words into lexical categories simple versus complex nouns and day to day versus learned vocabulary The activities aim to facilitate learning by encouraging the use of adjectives and structures which mark genders clearly

Second Language Practice Georges Duquette, 1995 Language teachers present theories for sharpening students communication skills in a second language and describe examples of their application in actual classrooms They explain strategies for beginning listening comprehension interaction skills with idiomatic expressions integrating social skills and group work at intermediate levels and refining literacy skills for advanced students Provides a springboard of ideas and approaches for teachers and administrators to tailor to their specific needs Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Teaching and Assessing Intercultural Communicative Competence Michael Byram, 1997-01-01 Foreign and second language teaching should prepare learners to use a language with fluency and accuracy and also to speak with people who have different cultural identities social values and behaviours This text aims to define precisely what competencies are required how these can be included in teachers objectives and methods and how the ability to communicate across cultural differences can be assessed

Current Issues in Language & Society, 1994 Francophonie, 1994 Geolinguistics, 1996 Books in Print, 2005 Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts, 1996 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 1994-02
