Lauren Gardner

French Kiss Or A Pang's Progress:

French Kiss, Or, A Pang's Progress Nicole Brossard, 1986 The author attempts to map the city of Montreal in an act of literary creation she says was inspired by the likes of Joyce's Dublin or Borges Buenos Aires onto the process of writing reading the sensual body and the act of a kiss Goodreads The Blue Books Nicole Brossard, Larry Shouldice, Patricia Claxton, Alana Wilcox, 2003 A book translated by Larry Shouldice Turn of a pang and French kiss translated by Patricia Claxton French Kiss: Or A Pang's Progress Nicole Brossard, 1986-01-01 Transgressing Boundaries in Jeanette

Winterson's Fiction Sonia Front, 2009 The subsequent chapters of the book deal with selected questions from Jeanette Winterson's fiction such as gender issues love and eroticism language and time constituting areas within which Winterson's characters seek their identity As they contest and repudiate cliché's stereotypes and patterns their journey of self discovery is accomplished through transgression The book analyzes how the subversion of phallogocentric narrative and scenarios entails the reenvisioning of relations between the genders and reconceptualization of female desire The author attempts to determine the consequences of Winterson's manipulations with gender sexuality and time and her disruption of the binary system Trans/acting Culture, Writing, and Memory Eva C. Karpinski, Jennifer Henderson, Ian Sowton, Ray

Ellenwood, 2013-10-30 Trans acting Culture Writing and Memory is a collection of essays written in honour of Barbara Godard one of the most original and wide ranging literary critics theorists teachers translators and public intellectuals Canada has ever produced The contributors both established and emerging scholars extend Godard's work through engagements with her published texts in the spirit of creative interchange and intergenerational relay of ideas Their essays resonate with Godard's innovative scholarship situated at the intersection of such fields as literary studies cultural studies translation studies feminist theory arts criticism social activism institutional analysis and public memory In pursuit of unexpected linkages and connections the essays venture beyond generic and disciplinary borders zeroing in on Godard's transdisciplinary practice that has been extremely influential in the way that it framed questions and modeled interventions for the study of Canadian Québécois and Acadian literatures and cultures The authors work with the archives ranging from Canadian government policies and documents to publications concerning white supremacist organizations in Southern Ontario online materials from a Toronto based transgender arts festival a photographic mural installation commemorating the Montreal Massacre and the works of such writers and artists as Marie Clements Nicole Brossard France Daigle Nancy Huston Yvette Nolan Gail Scott Denise Desautels Louise Warren Rebecca Belmore Vera Frenkel Robert Lepage and Janet Cardiff Minds of Our Own Wendy Robbins, 2008-05-30 This book of personal essays by over forty women and men who founded women's studies in Canada and Québec explores feminist activism on campus in the pivotal decade of 1966-76 The essays document the emergence of women's studies as a new way of understanding women men and society and they challenge some current preconceptions about second wave feminist academics The contributors explain how the intellectual and political revolution begun by small groups of academics often young untenured women at universities across Canada contributed to social progress and profoundly affected the way we think speak behave understand equality and conceptualize the academy and an academic career A contextualizing essay documents the social economic political and educational climate of the time and a concluding chapter highlights the essays recurring themes and assesses the intellectual and social transformation that their authors helped set in motion The essays document the appalling sexism and racism some women encounter in seeking admission to doctoral studies in hiring in pay and in establishing the legitimacy of feminist perspectives in the academy They reveal sources of resistance too not only from colleagues and administrators but from family members and from within the self In so doing they provide inspiring examples of sisterly support and lifelong friendship Writing Between the Lines Agnes Whitfield, 2006 The essays in Writing between the Lines explore the lives of twelve of Canada's most eminent anglophone literary translators and delve into how these individuals have contributed to the valuable process of literary exchange between francophone and anglophone literatures in Canada Containing original detailed biographical and bibliographical material Writing between the Lines offers many new insights into the literary translation process and the diverse roles of the translator as social agent The first text on Canadian anglophone translators it makes a major contribution in the areas of literary translation comparative literature Canadian literature and cultural studies Nicole Brossard Nicole Brossard, 2005 This collection offers unpublished poems by Nicole Brossard extensive fragments of a conversation with her and essays that critically appreciate many of her more than twenty collections of poetry nine novels and countless works of theory and commentary BOOK JACKET Francophone Literature as World Literature Christian Moraru, Nicole Simek, Bertrand Westphal, 2020-06-25 Francophone Literature as World Literature examines French language works from a range of global traditions and shows how these literary practices draw individuals communities and their cultures and idioms into a planetary web of tension and cross fertilization The Francophone corpus under scrutiny here comes about in the evolving markedly relational context provided by these processes and their developments during and after the French empire The 15 chapters of this collection delve into key aspects moments and sites of the literature flourishing throughout the francosphere after World War II and especially since the 1980s from the French Hexagon to the Caribbean and India and from Quebec to the Maghreb and Romania Understood and practiced as World Literature Francophone literature claims with particular force in the wake of the literature monde debate its place in a more democratic world republic of letters where writers critics publishers and audiences are no longer beholden to traditional centers of cultural authority RE: Reading the Postmodern Robert David Stacey, 2011-01-14 It would be difficult to exaggerate the worldwide impact of postmodernism on the fields of cultural production and the social sciences over the last quarter century even if the concept has been understood in various even contradictory ways An interest in postmodernism and postmodernity has been especially strong in Canada in part thanks to the country's non monolithic approach to history and its multicultural understanding of nationalism which seems to align with the decentralized plural and open ended pursuit of truth as a multiple possibility as outlined by Jean Fran ois Lyotard In fact long before Lyotard published his influential work The Postmodern Condition in 1979 Canadian writers and critics were employing the term to describe a new kind of writing RE Reading the Postmodern marks a first cautious step toward a history of Canadian postmodernism exploring the development of the idea of the postmodern and debates about its meaning and its applicability to various genres of Canadian writing and charting its decline in recent years as a favoured critical trope Published in English Mobility of Light Louise H. Forsyth, 2009 On strands of light I am hanging poetry like garlands These first words of poetry from Nicole Brossard anticipate the vast body of work she has published in the last four decades The poems in Mobility of Light were chosen by Louise H Forsyth to elicit a sense of these whirling garlands and convey the intense energy physical creative spiritual erotic imaginative playful ethical and political that has carried Brossard to a uniquely significant vision of the human spirit Poems are presented in French and English on facing pages underscoring the density of meaning in each word and line and highlighting the unusual rhythms in Brossard s originals and the extraordinary sonorities with which they beat Some of the translations in this volume have been previously published while others are new In her afterword Brossard talks about travelling back in time to discover how our most vivid sensations emotions and thoughts are nourished and transformed by our enigmatic relation to language Mindscapes of Montreal Ceri Morgan, 2012-10-15 This innovative study of the Montreal novel in French looks at how imaginary and material landscapes come together to produce a city of neighbourhoods

Goblin Market Christina Georgina Rossetti, 1879 Goblin Market, The Prince's Progress, and Other Poems. With Four Designs by D. G. Rossetti. New Edition Christina Georgina Rossetti, 1875 Maternal Pasts, Feminist Futures Lynne Huffer, 1998 This book examines the relations among nostalgia gender and foundational philosophies through a critique of the lost mother as a ground for thinking about sexual difference More specifically the author critiques the nostalgic tendencies of feminist theory arguing that an emancipatory system of thought must move beyond a maternally oriented structure Through close readings of works by Maurice Blanchot Luce Irigaray Julia Kristeva and Nicole Brossard the book elucidates the many dimensions of nostalgic paradigms literary psychoanalytic epistemological ontological and sociopolitical This critique ultimately confronts postmodernism and especially the burgeoning field of performative theory as an intellectual paradigm that claims to subvert systems of meaning Analyzing the writings of J L Austin Judith Butler and Irigaray the author argues that despite its antinostalgic structure performative theory provides an inadequate model for understanding the connections among language identity and the social bonds that constitute the ethical and political sphere Asserting through the example of performative theory that a critique is not enough the book examines the possibility of a constructive model that is both non nostalgic and informed by ethical constraints One such model is offered through a reading of the Quebecois writer Nicole Brossard which explores her work in relation to the question of lesbian writing

Demystifying nostalgia Brossard not only uncovers and subverts the structures through which a concept of origins is produced but also provides a different visionary way of thinking about the relationship between subjectivity and language Finally the book argues for further feminist work on the relationship between narrative and ethics a field whose future lies in the elaboration of a bridge between the moral commitments of ethical theory and the fractured realities that find their expression in literary forms

The Routledge Companion to Literary Urban Studies Lieven Ameel,2022-08-10 Over the past decades the growing interest in the study of literature of the city has led to the development of literary urban studies as a discipline in its own right The Routledge Companion to Literary Urban Studies provides a methodical overview of the fundamentals of this developing discipline and a detailed outline of new directions in the field It consists of 33 newly commissioned chapters that provide an outline of contemporary literary urban studies The Companion covers all of the main theoretical approaches as well as key literary genres with case studies covering a range of different geographical cultural and historical settings The final chapters provide a window into new debates in the field The three focal issues are key concepts and genres of literary urban studies a reassessment and critique of classical urban studies theories and the canon of literary capitals and methods for the analysis of cities in literature The Routledge Companion to Literary Urban Studies provides the reader with practical insights into the methods and approaches that can be applied to the city in literature and serves as an important reference work for upper level students and researchers working on city literature Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com>

Avant Desire: A Nicole Brossard Reader Nicole Brossard,2020-10-06 The definitive survey of an essential feminist poet In June 2019 Nicole Brossard was awarded the Lifetime Recognition Award from the Griffin Poetry Trust Rarely has a prize been so richly deserved For five decades she has writing ground breaking poetry fiction and criticism in French that has always been steadfastly and unashamedly feminist and lesbian Avant Desire moves through Brossard's body of work with a playful attentiveness to its ongoing lines of inquiry Like her work this reader moves beyond conventional textual material to include ephemera interviews marginalia lectures and more Just as Brossard foregrounds collaboration this book includes new translations alongside canonical ones and intertextual and responsive work from a variety of artist translators at various stages of their careers Through their selections the editors trace Brossard's fusion of lesbian feminist desire with innovation experimentation and activism emphasizing the more overtly political nature of her early work and its transition into performative thinking Devotees of Brossard will be invigorated by the range of previously unavailable materials included here while new readings will find a thread of inquiry that is more than a mere introduction to her complex body of work Avant Desire situates Brossard's thinking across her oeuvre as that of a writer whose sights are always cast toward the horizon Canadian Literature Index
